Social Notes.

The ladies of the Kensington club will serve a supper on Tuesday April 22nd at I. O. O. F. Hall, beginning at five o'clock. A short program will follow beginning at eight o'clock. Everybody come.

The Young Ladies' Circle of the Christian church met at the home of Miss Grace Bennett on South Sixth street, Monday evening. After the business period, a good social hour was spent. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mary Bartels on the evening of May 5th. All young ladies invited.

F. C. Ralston and wife will go to Burney, Shasta County, California, next Monday to enjoy a prolonged visit with members of their family.

W. P. Hall, wife and child of Stillwater, Oklahoma, have arrived in this city to reside. Mr. Hall is a brother of our esteemed townsman, George M. Hall of the Bank of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Anna Hoxie and Miss Anna Leuna will open their new cafeteria in the building formerly occupied by the Wave confectionery Thursday. It will be up-to-date in every respect.

A very artistic show window, which is attracting much attention, is the Burkholder-Woods display of Zion laces, direct from America's greatest lace factory at Zion City. Ladies are invited to call and inspect this fine line.

Stone to Fit the Purse

Is better than none at all. The spirit in which a monument is erected counts more than the cost.

A Moderate Cost

Stone will show as much respect and love for the departed one as a more expensive stone if you can afford only the smaller sum. We have various designs in low-priced memorials we shall be glad to submit to you.

The Mothers' Council of the W. C. T. U. held a very interesting and well attended Purity meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith, Friday afternoon, April 11. Meeting opened by scripture reading, Phil. 4:3-9, by Mrs. DeSpain, prayer by Evangelistic Supt. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. K. B. Woods, supt. mother's meeting, having charge of program. Topic for consideration, "Why Girls Go Wrong," was ably brought out by such Purity workers as Mrs. Lola Baldwin, Purity Supt. of Oregon, Mrs. L. Ward, Supt. Crittendon Refuge Home, Mrs. Lineman, Matron Sal. Army Rescue Home, Miss Prickard, Supt. People's Institute, Portland, Judge Gaten, Mrs. Robt. J. Burdette, Dr. Frederick Rhodes, Evangeline C. Booth, Sal. Army, Mrs. Kate Waller Barnett, World's Purity Supt., and others. After a general discussion of subject, one practical help for this evil in our town was suggested. That we enforce the curfew law and endeavor to change the hour, making it nine o'clock in summer and eight o'clock in winter. A social time then followed and light refreshments were served. Six visitors were present. These meetings do much good and we only wish more mothers would attend.

Eyelet-Rib

SUMMER UNDERWEAR FOR MEN AND BOYS

Ventilated porous summer underwear with two exclusive features that eliminate the faults of the ordinary porous undergarments.

- They are the patented worked eyelet and the elastic rib fabric.
- The patented eyelet prevents the openings or "pores" from tearing.
- The elastic rib fabric keeps the garment in shape and permits free bodily movement without straining or stretching at any point.
- Eyelet-Rib is cool—durable—elastic.

"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

Insect Exterminator

(PATENT APPLIED FOR)

An inexpensive and simple little device designed, tested and found most effective in the destruction of the flea beetle and general plant insects. Patented and thoroughly tested by George O. Walker and found most practical in his large tomato field last season.

A TESTIMONIAL

Among many other testimonials Mr. Walker submits the following from Harry K. Metcalf, proprietor of the Sunnyside Greenhouses, Cottage Grove:

"I have seen your insect catcher and I believe it to be a very complete and effective trap for tomato fleas, beetles, etc., and it certainly cannot injure the most tender plant as the spray cure often does."
