How Our Girls Kiss.

The Portland maiden so gentle and sweet,
Lets her lips meet the coming kiss—
With rapturous warmth, and the youthful souls
Float away in the sea of bliss.

The Creswell girl gets a move on herself,
As she carefully takes off her hat;
And grabs up the prize in a frightened way
Like a terrier shaking a rat.

The Salem girl bows her stately head,
And fixes her pouting lips—
In a firm hard way—then lets 'em go
In spasmodic little snips.

But oh!—the Roseburg girl says never a word,
As she freezes her face with a smile,
She sticks out her lips like an open book
And chews her wax meanwhile.

As you place your arms 'round an Albany girl,
And squeeze as you never did before,
You'll think she's going to faint, she'll fool you, for she ain't—
She has been there several times before.

The Junction girl neither sighs nor re-
pines,
Nor acts in a manner rude;
But goes about it in a business way,
That catches the average dude.

The Eugene 'varsity girl removes her specs,
And you'd think she was rather tame,
With her practical view of the matter in hand,
But she gets there just the same.

The Cottage Grove girl will at first refuse—
Just to have you insist and plead;
But when finally she does consent,
Her kiss you'll confess takes the lead.

LOCAL NOTES

It was a fine rain, and came at the right time, too.

The grand jury for the June term will meet at Eugene May 26th.

My photographs speak for themselves. Monroe, at the bridge.

J. Hardy Crow, of Lorane, marketed a lot of farm produce in this city Thursday and transacted business with our merchants.

The Wildwood school was standardized last Wednesday. County Supt. H. C. Baughman and Supervisor R. C. Andrews attended the exercises.

William F. Wallace last week traded his house and lot in the Gross addition to William B. Goodman for 40 acres of land six miles west of Creswell.—Guard.

The station on the O. & S. E. in the forest reserve has been named Rujada. Manager Woods says the word means "big body of fallen timber," and so far no one has disputed the definition.

In the Rees-Wallace piano contest which closed last Wednesday, Mrs. Robert Hanna was the winner, receiving the highest number of votes, and Miss Veta Hickey was second in the contest.

W. C. Hoppes, one of the members of the graduation class of 1913 in the Junction high school, has just been elected principle of the Lorane union high school. He has a splendid reputation and will, no doubt, make good.

Watch our window Saturdays for all kinds of fancy baking. Salads, meats and all kinds of home cooking, also very best meals served Cafeteria style at reasonable prices. The Mew Willamette Cafeteria in the old Wave building.

The neatest and newsiest country weekly to reach our table is the Forest Grove News-Times. It is a 7-column, 8-page paper, and there is not a line of plate matter in it. It carries an ad for nearly every local business man and can therefore boost with a hearty good will.

Fruit Inspector C. E. Stewart has discovered that the mountain ash is badly infected with the so-called "cedar rust," and it is said to also be found on wild crab apple and sarvest berry trees. This fact makes it the more difficult to combat and keep away from the pear orchards. An effort may be made to have a government inspection of this new pest in this valley.

Hon. C. J. Hurd, deputy state master, reports the organization of a new grange with 60 members at the Bogart school house Saturday. The name of the new organization will be the Willamette grange, because of its location between the Willamette and the McKenzie rivers. The officers are: C. G. Rice, master; Miss Myra Calef, overseer; John Walls, lecturer; W. C. Ayers, secretary.
