Removing Mildew Stains.

Soaking mildew stains in butter-milk or sour milk will many times remove them, but not always. Try a solution of one heaping teaspoonful of chloride of lime to a quart of soft water; strain when well dissolved and dip the mildewed spots in it until the stains disappear, then rinse immediately and thoroughly in clear water.

Emergency Plea.

One night Marjorie and her sister were enjoying a pillow fight before going to sleep. They had been told repeatedly to be quiet. Finally their mother could stand the noise no longer and started for their room. They heard her coming, and five-year-old Marjorie dropped down on her knees beside her bed and said: "Oh, God, please turn me into a mouse, so I can hide under the bureau!"

Is A Wonder In the Blood

A Remedy That Has Shown a Most Remarkable Purifying Effect.

The word medicine is one of the most abused in our language. There are certain medicinal properties just as necessary to health as the food we eat. Take, for example, the well-known tonic medicine S. S. S. This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the elements of wheat, roast beef, the fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration.

As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin affections.

And in regenerating the tissues S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antidotal effect upon all those irritating influences that cause rheumatism, sore throat, weak eyes, falling hair, loss of weight, thin, pale cheeks, and that weariness of muscle and nerve that is generally experienced as spring fever. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life. S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 160 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient Medical Department, where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may write freely for advice and a special book of instruction. S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores.

Beware of any attempt to sell you something "just as good" as S. S. S. Such a claim is preposterous. There is nothing else "just as good" as S. S. S., nor is there another remedy similar to this famous blood purifier.

AMERICAN IS SHOT

Mexican Federal Soldiers Try to Kill Captured Inspector.

Shot in Back. In Accordance With Notorious Mexican "Fugitive Law" for Prisoners.

El Paso, Tex.—Charles B. Dixon, of San Diego, United States Immigration inspector, was shot in the back by Mexican federal soldiers at Juarez Sunday. The soldiers are said to have invoked the notorious "ley fuga," or fugitive law. Dixon was seriously wounded and is likely to die.

Dixon was in Juarez on official business, when he was arrested by a band of federal soldiers, who started to march him away from the city in the direction of the foothills, where many executions have taken place. Dixon started to run, and, after getting a block away, was fired on.

Dixon made a statement in Juarez to American officials that he was satisfied the Mexicans were marching him out to shoot him when he ran. He said the Mexican soldiers were drunk.

Dixon was sent by a superior to Juarez to see a witness in connection with a white slave case that was being investigated here. He says he believes the witness, after he had talked to him in Juarez, bought drinks for the soldiers and induced them to arrest him.

"I told the soldiers I would go with them to the commandant's office," Dixon said, "but, instead of taking me in that direction, they started with me in the direction of the outskirts of the town. As I had on a suit of khaki, I thought that perhaps they had taken me for a United States soldier acting as a spy, so I ran and they shot me after I had got about half a block away from them."

Dr. J. H. Tappan, of the immigration service in El Paso, went to Juarez and treated the wounded man. He found that Dixon was shot in the back, the ball going completely through his body and coming out through his stomach. It did not strike the spine.

Washington, D. C.—"It looks like a serious case. We will do whatever is necessary," Secretary Bryan said in commenting on the shooting of Immigration Inspector Dixon at Juarez. He telegraphed American Consul Edwards for an immediate investigation.

Secretary Bryan was at his office in the State department when he received a brief message from Consul Edwards advising him of the shooting. The press dispatches were also shown to him and he manifested keen interest in the situation. President Wilson was advised of the incident, but made no comment.

SEATTLE FIGHTS BAD FRUIT

Inspector Condemns Big Shipments From California.

Seattle—Attempts of California growers, brokers and distributors to flog wormy and damaged fruit on the Seattle market have met with vigorous resistance by F. M. Rhodes, district horticultural inspector, and one assistant, but with the height of the season and receipts of eight to ten carloads a day, Mr. Rhodes said he was unable to cope with the situation, and had asked his department to take up with the county commissioners the matter of appointing one or more deputies to assist in handling the problem.

One carload of pears inspected Saturday was in serious condition. Approximately 60 per cent of the fruit was ordered destroyed. Moth-infested potatoes also are coming in, one carload being condemned and ordered to the dump. Inspector Rhodes about ten days ago condemned five carloads of moth potatoes.

Marshall Explains "P. C."

Aurora, Ill.—"Too many persons who see the sign 'P. C.' in the heavens think it means 'Preach Christ,' when it means 'Plow Corn,'" said Vice President Marshall, in addressing 20,000 persons who had gathered at Mooseheart, Ill., to attend the laying of the cornerstone for a $5,000,000 industrial school and home for orphaned children and aged persons. The institution is to be erected by the Loyal Order of Moose.

"Out of the superior educational advantages of today," he continued, "one unhappy corollary has developed. A vast army of persons whose labors would make for the industrial advancement of the nation have conceived themselves fitted for fancied nobler pursuits, and thus the progress they would have made in the work they are fitted for is lost."

Wheat Yield 77 Bushels.

Pendleton, Or.—J. N. York, who lives near Weston, Or., reports the first harvest returns in this section for the season, and if the rest of the wheat crop turns out proportionately the 1913 yield will be a record breaker. From a field of 40 acres harvested Monday and Tuesday, York threshed 1103 sacks of as fine wheat as could be grown. From this field a roadway had been taken on each side, leaving the actual acreage about 38. The yield is a fraction over 77 bushels an acre.

PECULIAR BELIEF IN JAPAN

Though Pathetic, It Seems Strange to Western Ideas.

Among the Buddhists in Japan it is believed that the souls of children go farther after death to Sui-no-ka-wara (the stony river-bed) and there they remain until they reach maturity under the care of Jizobosatsu, who is represented as a priest with a long cane in one hand and a ball in the other.

He is said to stand in the center of the kawara, where he preaches to the children as they pile up stones, one for the salvation of their father, one for the mother, the third for brothers, the fourth for sisters and the fifth for their own salvation.

When night comes on and the wind blows hard a gigantic evil spirit appears and with a huge iron rod knocks down the heaps of stones which the children have made, and they are so frightened that they run to Jizo and hide themselves in the big sleeves of his kimono, which have a miraculous way of increasing in size according to the number of children who seek refuge. Then the evil spirit disappears and the children begin again the work of heaping up the stones.

Passing through cemeteries in Japan one sees tombs that have the image of Jizo carved upon them, as the parents take that way of gaining the special favor of Jizo for their children, and one will see little piles of stones built up by the parents and brothers and sisters of the children with the hope of helping in the tedious work of the little ones in the kawara.—Christian Advocate.

Definition of a Gentleman.

A kindly heart, a quiet voice, polite words and manners, a hand open to help, attention to little things for the comfort of others, freedom from anger, boasting, and patronizing; toward the strong, courage; toward the weak, chivalry; toward all men, fairness. Few men ever see one in a mirror.—Life.

Wanted One of Her Own.

Dorothy loves her baby sister dearly and takes it quite hard that she is not allowed to play nurse oftener. The other day, being asked what mamma should bring her back from a visit to the city, she made a gentle request: "Please, mamma, a great big doll dressed like a real baby. I want one of my own to play with, since you won't let me have any fun with yours."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules. Easy to take as candy.

Money and Prosperity.

Some of the most flourishing countries in the world, such as the United States, Canada, Argentina, Australia and France, have a large supply of money in proportion to their population, but so have poor Paraguay and Spain. On the other hand, the per capita supply of money is notably small in Germany, Chile and Sweden, which are also prosperous and progressive. Argentina leads the world in the stock of money relative to the number of inhabitants.

Resented the Secrecy.

A new little brother had come to small Carew, and it was observed that he looked sulky. Being asked if he was jealous, or what ailed him, he made outspoken answer: "No, I ain't jealous, an' I like the new kid well enough, for a baby, but I think I might have been told he was comin'. How'd you all like it if I was to walk into the house tomorrow and just about out, 'See, I gotta baby!' an' none of you'd even so much as heard a peep from me before?"

Masterfulness Checked.

"I've a good mind to go and jump into the river," said N. Peck, at the end of a little domestic discussion, as he picked up his hat and started out. "You come back here," said his wife. "If you intend any such trick as that, just march upstairs and put on your old clothes before you start."

Montenegrin National Dress.

The national dress of Montenegro is very picturesque, consisting of bright and varied colors. The headgear is a becoming cap.

CONVICT HAS DEADLY DEVICE

Lights Lamp, Rings Bell, Explodes Dynamite at Distance.

Salt Lake City—In the presence of electrical experts, Federal officers and detectives here was demonstrated what was declared to be perhaps the most remarkable death-dealing machine invented in recent years. The invention is the work of W. L. Cummings, 23 years old, who confessed to Federal and municipal officers when he was arrested that he had threatened to use it to destroy Miss Dorothy Bamberger, wealthy society girl, unless she gave him $100.

Electricians took the machine into a steel and concrete vault in an office building. Another part of the contrivance, on which was mounted a bell and an incandescent globe, was placed in a closed room across a hall. Then the electric current of the machine in the airtight vault was turned on. On the unattached box in the other room the bell rang and the lamp glowed brightly.

In his acknowledged letter to Miss Bamberger, Cummings sent a diagram of his invention, saying that he would place a suitcase of nitro-glycerine in her room and explode it from a distance.

The demonstration, say the electrical experts, proves that he could have accomplished this.

Cummings said the attachment could be installed in locomotive cabs, where it would give a positive signal if a train ran past a closed block signal. In war, he said, mines could be exploded without wire attachment.

BETTER JOB OFFERED BRYAN

Secretary Can Command $24,000 a Year as Press Agent.

New York—Arch Selwyn, managing director of a theatrical company, has written Secretary Bryan:

"Sir—If the newspapers are correct in quoting you as saying that your salary as secretary of state is insufficient for your means, that you are therefore compelled to add to your income by 'outside work,' I beg leave to offer you a position that will pay you twice as much as the United States government pays and which will call for your individual attention. In other words, I offer you $24,000 as chief publicity promoter of (naming his company).

"The position is one of importance, and like your present high office is of world-wide influence, for the play is about to be presented not only in the United States, but in every civilized center of the world. The position is one that will call for the highest quality of intellect and resourcefulness, the combination for which we are willing to pay a good living wage."

Whaling in Great Luxury.

San Francisco—The Adventurers, $50,000 auxiliary schooner yacht, has arrived in port here on her way from Boston to the Arctic to demonstrate whaling de luxe. Millionaires, scientists and sportsmen will make the party that will penetrate the frigid waters "on the coast of Wrangel island, Point Barrow and beyond, in search of adventure, data, pictures and the elusive bowhead, least known of the whale kind.

The terrors of the "chuck" known to ordinary whaling expeditions will not haunt the board of this cruise, for a French chef will take care of the cuisine. Where the harpoon points seaward from the bow, several moving picture machines will attempt to catch whales, polar bears and seals. Because it is cold in Northern waters a heating plant is fitted up aboard, but because part of the voyage lies through the tropics, the yacht also carries a special refrigerating plant.

Chinese Revolt Growing.

Pekin—The Chinese government is still dispatching troops to subdue the revolutionary movement in the disaffected Southern provinces, but has not withdrawn any soldiers from Mongolia.

President Yuan Shi Kai is anxious to proceed south to lead his troops, but his associates have persuaded him to remain in Peking, for fear that he might be assassinated on the way to the scene of hostilities.

It now is generally believed that General Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of the republic, who has taken sides with the Southerners and who is now at Nanking, and General Huang Sing, former generalissimo of the revolutionary army, never intended to support President Yuan Shi Kai permanently, but only to use him to bring the revolution to a successful end.

Men Go Up With Factory.

Winchester, Mass.—The factory of the New England Fireworks company went up in a puff of smoke, the result of an explosion late Saturday afternoon. Manager Ernest Borelli and three workmen disappeared with the factory. Borelli was thought to have been killed, as portions of his clothing, his eyeglass case and some coins were found near by. The searching party later on discovered him in a clump of bushes a mile from the scene of the explosion, unable to remember what had happened.

Stefansson's Ship Sails.

Nome, Alaska—The power vessel Alaska, the second ship of Vilhjalmr Stefansson's Arctic expedition, sailed for Teller, Port Clarence, Monday. She is in command of Captain William O. Nahmens. She will anchor near the Karuk, the principal vessel of the expedition, and await the coming of Stefansson, who will leave for Teller in a third boat. A farewell dinner was given to Stefansson.

Systematic Slaughter of Rats.

A price is set on the head of the rat in Tokyo, and, according to the Far East, "The sight is frequently seen in the side streets of the city of some blooming damsel gingerly conveying a small rat, suspended by a string tied to its tail, to the police box. Here an official receipt is given for the rat, which entitles the holder to 5 sen, and so the plague is combated and the people protected against foul epidemics."

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time. I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged."

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R.F.D. No. 6, Warren, Ind.

Another Case.

Outspoken Intelligence.

A letter addressed "To my dear God in Heaven," written in a child's handwriting, was recently posted in a Russian townlet. As the address was written in German, the Russian post authorities forwarded it to the German frontier postoffice at Tilsit.
