

Children are often blamed for not getting along with their lessons when the real fault is with their eyes, although unsuspected by either parent or teacher.

If children need glasses it is cruelly not to have them, if they don't need them the fact should also be known. A scientific examination will remove all doubt.

Toric Lenses

Don't mar the looks, because they are curved lenses and harmonize with the lines and curves of the face.

Society Notes

By Mrs. W. C. Conner.

The Foreign missionary society of the M. E. church will meet in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Elmer T. Olson, of Saginaw and Miss Amanda G. Lower, of Creswell.

A jolly crowd of young high school students met on McFarland's hill last Friday evening. A good time is reported.

"Ladies Evening" was observed at the commercial club rooms last night. An entertaining program was rendered and refreshments were served.

It is stated that Mrs. Lillian Brehaut and Mr. Harry Wheeler late of the Wells-Fargo express office here, now of Roseburg, will be united in marriage in this city Wednesday.

Married.

Ballard Truax, of Grants Pass, and Miss Marie Willard, of Cottage Grove, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Jost, at Grants Pass, Sept. 16, 1913, Rev. Teel, pastor of the Christian church, officiating. About 30 guests witnessed the pretty and impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Truax is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Willard of Cottage Grove and is a very attractive and estimable young lady.

The groom, Mr. Truax, is the son of one of the leading merchants of Grants Pass and is buyer for the firm. They will reside at Grants Pass.

Surprise Party Surprised.

George Comer of Portland, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Larabee and daughter, Mrs. E. E. O'Neil also of Portland, arrived in this city last week intending to give their father and brother, J. M. Comer, a surprise upon his golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening. However Mr. Comer and wife were camping in the hop fields down the valley and not desiring to return home until late this week, their Portland relatives were the ones to receive the rather unlooked-for surprise and returned to their Portland homes last Thursday and will return for a visit at some future date.
