Society Notes

By Mrs. W. C. Conner.

Mrs. W. P. Hall and Mrs. Lee Nixon were joint hostesses at a Sculpture party at the home of Mrs. Hall on west Main street Friday afternoon. The parlors were decorated with cut flowers and plants, while the dining room was beautiful in pink and white. Several contests were enjoyed, including a "pi" contest, nail driving contest and sculpture contest. Mrs. Fishborne was the winner in the "pi" guessing contest and received a hand painted olive dish. Mrs. Miller received the prize in the nail driving contest for driving the least number of nails and was presented with a miniature hammer and tacks and instructed to practice up for the next occasion. Mrs. Monroe proved the best sculptor and received a rubber pig. White gum was used to mould out the different objects. A three course luncheon was served, and the following guests were present: Mesdames Compton, Swengel, Chambers, Short, Umphrey, Robbins, Mackin, Fishborn, Miller, Abrams, Geo. Hall, O. M. Kem, Monroe, McAdams, Kinter, Anna Kinter, Kerr, Nichols, Bader and Miss McDaniels.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church met with Mrs. DesLarzes at her pleasant home on Madison avenue last Wednesday afternoon, she having invited her near neighbors to meet with them. After some work, including the finishing of a beautiful quilt, the society business was attended to, after which a pleasant social time was had. Mrs. Julia A. Moore read some beautiful poems which were much appreciated. Mrs. DesLarzes, with two assistants, then served some bountiful refreshments which she knows so well how to prepare. Delicious grapes and peaches were also served and heartily enjoyed by all. Then all dispersed feeling refreshed and delighted. Those present were: Mesdames Todd, Brown, Young, Willard, Fuller, Cottle, Knox and Gault. The guests were Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Groat. —J. A. M.

Mrs. N. E. Compton entertained a number of friends last Monday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. F. D. Wheeler, who is visiting her from San Diego, Cal.
