THE PRODIGAL GIRL.

We all have a heart for the prodigal boy
Who was caught in sin's mad whirl,
And we welcome him back with songs of joy—
But what of the prodigal girl?
For the prodigal boy there's an open door
And a father's bounteous fare,
And, though he be wretched, sick and poor,
He is sure of welcome there.

But what of the girl who has gone astray,
Who has lost in the battle with sin?
Say, do we forgive in the same sweet way
We've always forgiven him?
Does the door stand ajar, as if to say,
"Come, enter, you need not fear;
I've been open thus since you went away,
Now close to the second year?"

Or, do we with hand of hellish pride
Close and bolt the door,
And swear, "While heaven and earth abide
She will enter here no more?"
O Christ! it seems we have never learned
The lesson taught in the sand,
For even yet the woman is spurned
And stoned in a Christian land.

Down into the slough we hurl her back
Then turn around with a smile
And welcome the boy from the sinful track,
Though he may have been more vile.
We all have a heart for the prodigal boy
Who was caught in sin's mad whirl,
And we welcome him back with songs of joy—
But what of the prodigal girl?—Selected.

How Editors Get Rich.

A great many persons have wondered how editors all get rich so quick and with such small efforts. One of them who has grown rich has at last told the secret about it. He outlines it as follows:
"A nursery firm will send us a 25-cent rosebud for only $5 worth of advertising.
"For running a six-inch advertisement for one year, we can get a gross of pills.
"About one dozen firms are wanting to give up shares in gold mines for advertising.
"For $40 worth of advertising and $25 cash we can own a bicycle. The wheel sells at just $12.
"A fellow East wants us to run a lot of advertising for him for nothing, and if it brings results he may become a customer.
"For running $12 worth of locals we can get two tickets admitting us to most any show.
"A gun firm wants us to run $19 worth of advertising and then send $10 in exchange for a shotgun. Such a gun would retail at about $6.
"By running $50 worth of advertising and sending $25 to an Atlantic City firm we will be given a deed to a lot. When the tide is in the lot stands six feet under water.
"When a man dies the undertaker gets from $75 to $150 to bury him, and the editor gets nothing for publishing his obituary."—Ex.
