Entered as second-class matter January 25, 1913, at the post office at Cottage Grove, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Time Is Flying, Do Your Buying While Santa's Stock Is Full.

Thanksgiving Thursday. Cottage Grove has much to be thankful for.

"Where the didder is, there are the diddings."—Hubbard.

The rod has ruined few children, the want of it has ruined many.

The man who is always blowing his own horn will soon play his tune out.

This town welcomes new industries and supports home institutions.

Ten minutes spent reading the advertisements may mean ten dollars saved.

There is talk of contesting the Salem "dry" election, also the Newport "wet" one.

No New Year's reception at the white house. A precedent of 100 years shattered.

You are not getting full value out of your paper unless you read the advertisements.

"Success is not luck, nor pull, nor a soft snap, but the longest, steadiest, toughest job you ever tackled."

The season has been favorable for fall farm work and much has been accomplished in this vicinity.

The man who can't change his mind is a phool, and the one who won't is a bigger one.—Josh Billings.

Shade trees are nice in the summer but make the old man get busy with a rake about this time of the year.

The saloon keeper dies hard. There is talk of contests over the result of the election in Salem, Harrisburg and Springfield.

Don't talk about yourself enny more than you are obliged to, keep praezing the other phellow all the time, this is the kard that wins.—Josh Billings.

Governor West says in event of war with Mexico that Oregon is prepared to respond promptly with two regiments of infantry, one battery field artillery, and one ambulance company.

A campaign for more industries and pay rolls in Oregon, instead of boosting land values all the time, will build up the state and develop its resources faster than anything else.—Brownsville Times.

Never has the Cottage Grove schools made as fine showing as at the present time. The enrollment in the high school shows a score or more above the enrollment of last year, while the attendance throughout the schools show an average of 98 per cent, which is good. No delinquency cases have been reported, and good, efficient work is evident in every grade.

Everybody where I came from is talking about the wonderful stock of Christmas Goods at "The Fair."

I Expect to get my biggest load of toys there this year. I want to help the fellow who hustles and gets the goods. Everybody is invited to meet me at "THE FAIR." Do you know they are going to give away a $6 Piano to the girls. Free Whistles Friday to all the Children. Yours truly, SANTA CLAUS. P. S. A hearty Christmas Welcome at "THE FAIR."
