Glasses

An Optician of professional standing is bound to refrain from self praise. I do not claim to be the "best on earth" but I do insist that I am a good optician, that I know my business and that you can safely intrust your eyesight to my care. I shall be pleased to fit glasses for you and guarantee satisfaction.

Society Notes

By Mrs. W. C. Conner.

The young people of the Presbyterian church were entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Harvey Armstrong and Mrs. R. M. Broadbooks at the home of the former. The invitations for the "Animal social" were written on cardboard rabbits and in all the games and contests the animal idea was carried out. A box of animal cookies was awarded to the group that composed the best composition on the animal chosen. The sketching of the various animals afforded much fun. A short program was rendered during the evening, consisting of solos by Rev. Broadbooks and Hugh Curran, a reading by Miss Elsie Short and a piano and violin duet by Miss Mabel Veatch and Edwin Redford. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Kinter. Those invited were: Misses Veatch, Curran, Neva and Leah Perkins, Holderman, Smith, Harms, Florence and Edith Magee, Shay, Elsie and Margaret Short, Russ, Burkholder, Borgegon, Silsby, Emilie Holderman, Brown, Lockwood, Richmond, Farn and Iva Holcomb, Ella and Esther Anderson, Messrs Curran, McCarger, Mathews, Harvey, Stratton, Ernest and Dale Wyatt, Edwards, Groves, Coffman, Gowdy, Redford, Anderson, Martin, Trask, Smith, White, Holderman, Kerr, King, Messrs and Mesdames Roy Short, Roy Smith, Chas. Beidler, A. C. Kinter, R. Vinson, Chas. Adams, Armes, Griswold and Mrs. Beals.

The Euterpean club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Adams last Thursday evening. After the usual business meeting the following entertaining program was rendered: "Those Evening Bells," High School Octet; Reading, Miss Laura Smith; vocal solo, "Love is a Rose," Jessie McCord; instrumental solo, Mrs. Griswold; vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Miss Marion Hooper; Synopsis of the Courtship of Miles Standish, Prof. Barnhart. At the close of the program excellent light refreshments were served. This club is rehearsing "Priscilla," Miss Esther Silsby directing the musical features and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway the dramatic features of this opera.

The U. G. L. Y. club met with Chief "Ugly," January 3. Rook and riddles were the amusements of the evening. Light refreshments were served. All agreed that the Chief is a good entertainer.
