Death of Mrs. Rudolph.

Mrs. Augusta E., wife of C. R. Rudolph died Dec. 30, 1913 at the family home west of this city, after a prolonged illness the direct cause of death being dropsy. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bauerlein of Albany Friday and were largely attended. Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Rudolph was born April 6, 1840, in Merane, Saxony, Germany. She came to the United States 1868, settling at Yankton, S. D., where she was one of the earliest settlers. In 1889 she came with her family to Lane county and has lived here continuously since that time. Her married life was characterized by devotion to husband and children and she enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew her.

Mrs. Rudolph is survived by her husband and nine children. The children are Mrs. E. Fahrenwald, Mrs. Agnes Graber, Herman, Hugo, Willie and Paul Rudolph of this city, Mrs. R. Anlauf of Portland, Honno Rudolph and Mrs. J. Kubowitz of South Dakota. One son and one daughter died in South Dakota a number of years ago.

All of the children, with the exception of the son who lives in South Dakota, were present at the bedside of their mother at the time of her death.

HEROISM AS A BOY FREES LIFE CONVICT Friend Whose Life Was Twice Saved Pays Debt.

Bloomington, Ill.—After serving ten years for murder Herbert C. Galleghugh of Chenoa, this county, is a free man.

Galleghugh is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. Galleghugh. He left that place sixteen years ago and in Minnesota worked on a railroad.

One day, while on the road, his wife was insulted by a negro. Upon his return, aroused by the sneering manner of the negro, he shot him dead.

Galleghugh was arrested and charged with murder. He made a strong plea of self defense, but was sentenced to the prison at Stillwater, Minn., for life.

The sentence was a shock to his family and friends. His parents, wife and friends have always accepted the plea of self defense and believed that he did what any other self respecting man would have done.

Among those active in his behalf was W. B. Clooney, passenger agent for the Chicago and Alton in Bloomington. The two had been playmates together. Galleghugh twice saved the life of Clooney.

When the case reached the board, comprising the governor, attorney general and chief justice of Minnesota, they unanimously voted to release Galleghugh. He was granted an unconditional pardon.

LAMP SHEDS PINK GLOW.

Neon Gas Appliance is Suitable For Milady's Dainty Boudoir.

London.—Much discussion is going on concerning the new neon lamp, which gives out a beautiful rose-pink color peculiarly suitable for boudoirs and tea rooms.

Neon, which is an atmospheric gas, was discovered by the English scientist, Sir William Ramsay. It is said to possess the property of allowing an electric current to traverse it under certain conditions of pressure and temperature and of turning a large proportion of it into the rose-pink light.

Tooth a Foot Long.

Seattle.—The skeleton of a mammoth was uncovered by workmen sluicing the excavation for the municipal stadium at West Seattle. The bones were found 150 feet below the top of the hill imbedded in a clay bank. One tooth measured twelve inches long, eight inches wide at the base, six inches wide at the top and three inches thick.

FEWER WORKING OVERTIME.

Better Hours For Employees, Making Trains Safer.

Washington.—"Violations of the law limiting the service of train employees on American railroads to sixteen consecutive hours go to the very heart of the efficiency and safety of train operation," said Charles C. McChord, commissioner, commenting upon a statement issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission analyzing the monthly reports of interstate railroads on hours of service in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913.

Nearly 300,000 violations of the sixteen hour limit were reported by 269 railroads in the year. It must be remembered, however, that 251,111 men were employed in handling trains.

"As a result of the prosecutions instituted by the commission," the analysis points out, "the number of instances of excess service reported during the last six months, as compared with the corresponding figures for preceding years, has shown a marked reduction."

THRUST INTO HAY FATAL.

Royalist Hidden in Cart is Killed by Frontier Guard.

Paris.—A grim incident of the rising in Portugal was recently narrated by a French sculptor.

A peasant's cart filled with hay drew up at the Spanish-Portuguese frontier. The officials glanced into it. One, to satisfy himself, thrust his sword several times among the bundles. "Pass on," he said carelessly. An instant later he uttered an exclamation of horror. Blood was trickling from the straw.

The driver sprang from the cart and fled, followed by revolver shots from the customs officials. Overturning the cart, the officials found beneath the straw a dead man. The sword had passed through his heart as he lay hidden. He was a royalist leader trying to smuggle himself into Portugal.

BITTEN BY BUG, BEGS BALM.

Passenger Asks $10,000 For Incident in Sleeping Car.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Samuel Cohn of Milwaukee, who arrived from the west recently, has sued for $10,000 because he was bitten by an insect in a railroad sleeper. The defendant in the suit is the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road, and the case will be tried in Montana, where the "offense" is alleged to have been committed.

When Cohn arrived in Milwaukee he carried one arm in a sling, and he claimed in making his complaint to the company that he had been made so ill that his business was interfered with and that the mental and physical anguish resultant was worth $10,000.

PRAYER FOR AGED BY MRS. MORGAN

Asks That Fear of Death Be Taken Away.

PEACE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE

New York Church Adopts Prayer, and It is Published in Annual Calendar. Notable Woman is Much Impressed With Beauties of Old Age—Asks That Undue Love of Life Be Taken Away.

New York.—Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, widow of the financier, is so impressed with the beauty of old age and the need of showing special favor to those of advanced years that she has sent to the Rev. Karl Reiland, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, a special prayer for those who have passed, reached or nearly reached the allotted span of life. It is a prayer of the Episcopal communion, although not in the Book of Common Prayer.

Mr. Reiland was so impressed with Mrs. Morgan's letter and the prayer itself that he printed it in St. George's Calendar, with this note: "Through the kindness of Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan a copy of the following prayer has been received, and we are very glad of the opportunity to print it. It is a prayer especially for those advanced in years."

MRS. J. P. MORGAN.

The prayer occasioned considerable comment, and many parishioners expressed a resolve to repeat it daily.

The prayer is as follows: "O God, our Heavenly Father, whose gift is length of days, help us to make the noblest use of mind and body in our advancing years. According to our strength apportion thou our work. As thou hast pardoned our transgressions, sift the in-gatherings of our memory, that evil may grow dim and good may shine forth clearly. We bless thee for thy gifts and especially for thy presence and the love of friends in heaven and on earth. Grant us new ties of friendship, new opportunities of service, joy in the growth and happiness of children, sympathy with those who bear the burdens of the world, clear thought and quiet faith. Teach us to bear infirmities with cheerful patience. Keep us from narrow pride in outgrown ways, blind eyes that will not see the good of change, impatient judgments of the methods and experiments of others. Let thy peace rule our spirits through all the trial of our waning powers. Take from us all fear of death and all despair of undue love of life, that with glad hearts at rest in thee we may await thy will concerning us, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

J. P. Morgan accompanies his mother to the services and sits in the seat his father occupied for half a century.

MARKET FOR COCKLEBURS.

Farmer Makes a Shipment to Indian Doctor in Spokane.

Russellville, Ark.—An express shipment of a peck of cockleburs consigned to Spokane, Wash., was the unusual product given the express company here by J. J. Deltich, a Pope county farmer. The selling of cockleburs, which the shipper says are used by an Indian physician in Spokane in compounding a salve, is uncommon, the product being generally considered a nuisance.

O. Henry, author of "Cabbages and Kings," once used the burs to good advantage in his fiction, a consignment of the burs being scattered over the streets of a small town in the torrid zone to compel the natives to buy shoes.

LURE OF CITY KILLS FOX.

Dazzled Reynard Fails to Look Out For the Cars.

South Norwalk, Conn.—A fine specimen of red fox, usually the "foxiest" of foxes, blinded by the headlight of a trolley car, was struck and cut in two here. The conductor, Harry Bouton, has claimed the bounty on the pet.

The spot where the slaughter took place is but a short distance from the center of the city.
