

Glasses

An Optician of professional standing is bound to refrain from self praise. I do not claim to be the "best on earth" but I do insist that I am a good optician, that I know my business and that you can safely intrust your eyesight to my care. I shall be pleased to fit glasses for you and guarantee satisfaction.

D. J. Scholl

Optometrist and Jeweler

TWO BIG GAMES ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Eugene Y. M. C. A. vs. High School. — Junction Girls vs. High School Girls.

Friday night the armory pavilion will be the scene of two hotly contested basket ball games. The Junction city girls are after the scalps of the local fair ones, and the Eugene Y. M. C. A. is anxious to add another victory to those already won this season.

The Y. M. C. A. team is composed of university and high school graduates and with daily practice under a very able coach have developed a system of long swift passes which the local lads will have difficulty in breaking up. They also play a clever guarding game and are good basket shooters.

This is the first outside game for the girls, and they have been practicing faithfully under Paul Bond as coach and they promise to show us some very clever work.

All Day Meeting.

Thursday beginning at 10 o'clock will be held an all day meeting in the Methodist church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. it being a day set aside for prayer and religious services, with "Oregon Dry" as the principal theme. Afternoon session begins at 2 o'clock and are invited to attend these services. Rev. H. N. Aldrich, Miss Jessie Smith and others will sing and Miss Short will give a reading. Vital topics will be discussed.

Teachers' Institute.

A very interesting and instructive meeting of the county educators was held in the high school building last Saturday and was well attended.

The Cottage Grove teachers Saturday afternoon informally entertained the visiting teachers at the recess hour.

Will Open New Bakery.

A Mr. Baker, late of Kansas, will open a first class bakery in the McFarland building adjoining the Schleaf building. Mr. McFarland is completely renovating the building for the new bakery.

SHOES AT COST AND LESS

Standard grades for Men, Women and Children at prices which appeal to the lean pocket book.

COTTAGE GROVE SHOE STORE

DesLarzes Grocery

LOCAL NEWS OF ALL SORTS

For wall paper see Cruson, Scholl's window is full of bargains.

This is the Leader's birthday anniversary.

Rees-Wallace Co. have a big new ad today.

Fresh vegetables daily at the West Side Grocery.

Work is progressing on the new Main street steel bridge.

John Bader was transacting business in Portland last week.

Annual clearance sale is now on at Scholl's. See his window.

Rogers silverware for coupons, given at the West Side Grocery.

Mrs. Edna Hedrick returned home from a visit at Drain last week.

The Leader and the big Weekly Oregonian both one year $1.75. Short time only.

C. A. Bartell, proprietor Hotel Oregon has been spending a few days in the Bohemia mines.

Mrs. Edith Hill-Booker, was a guest of Mrs. Lee Roy Woods Monday night, while on her way to Grants Pass.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market of home cooking Saturday at Kerr & Silsby's store.

Ed W. Jurgens, the Drain stage robber, effected his escape from the penitentiary last week. He was serving a 10 years sentence.

B. O. Huff fell while crossing the torn up bridge on Main street Friday evening when returning from church and sustained some severe injuries.

John Hostettler has returned to Saginaw after five years spent in Alberta. After a month or so he will return north, where he has valuable farm interests.

Frank Blair, the pioneer potato shipper, is shipping to California points one car load of potatoes from Jasper, another from Natron and another from Coburg.

The high school and faculty, the football team in particular, wish to express their appreciation to the citizens of Cottage Grove for so materially assisting in securing for the football boys those fine high school sweaters.

"Bill" Hayward, director of physical education at the University of Oregon, delivered a very interesting and entertaining lecture in the high school Friday evening. His subject was, "The Value of Physical Education."

C. J. Howard, ex-postmaster and ex-editor of Cottage Grove, came down from Grants Pass and spent a few days last week with relatives and old friends here. He is now traveling salesman for the Blake-McFall Paper Co. of Portland.

"Tip Top" bread at the West Side Grocery.

Mrs. Mary E. Morris, grandmother of Mrs. A. L. Zacharias, died at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Zacharias, this Tuesday morning, Jan. 13, 1914, aged 66 years 11 months and 25 days. The remains will be shipped to the old home in Kansas Wednesday for burial, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Zacharias.

You can't beat Scholl's clearance sale prices anywhere.

The Cottage Grove militiamen, Capt. H. K. Metcalf, Sergt. Wilson, Privates Lee Tennis, Butte Mooney and Jesse McDole, returned home from Copperfield last Thursday, where they were sent by the Governor under command of Col. Lawson to straighten out corrupt municipal and saloon affairs up there. The boys say conditions were just as corrupt as were reported.

Valuable coupons with purchases at the West Side Grocery.

Holding that the notice of the sewer assessment had not been published in the papers and thus given sufficient publicity, Judge Harris last week decided in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Lea vs. Bartels to recover property sold for sewer assessment. The court decided that the notice should have been published in the newspaper as provided by the city charter and that posting was not sufficient. Mr. Lea was awarded the property but was required to pay the assessment and the interest.

Telegraphic reports are to the effect that a volcano and earthquake has just overwhelmed southern Japan and as many as 50,000 people may have lost their lives.

Cottage Grove wants a shipping siding.

See The Ladies' Toggery big ad on page 2.

Don't overlook our question and answer department—page 7.

Hamilton Veatch made Eugene a business visit today.

Furnished house-keeping rooms for rent. Apply at 326 Fifth st.

Thurston Doak who sustained a severe injury to his knee some time ago, is slowly improving.

Wm. Edlefsen, of Lorane, was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Bader of this city last week.

Span of ponies, well mated and well broke, good harness and buggy for sale cheap, or will trade. Inquire at Leader office.

Miss Pherne Miller, one of the instructors at the institute held in Cottage Grove Saturday, was the guest of Supervisor Stahlman and wife over Sunday.

W. T. Shedenhelm and family of Iowa, arrived in this city Saturday and have taken up their residence in the Lawson cottage on Madison street.

Jas. S. Benson received a $10 Rhode Island Red cockerel from a well known Hood River breeder last week with which to head his fine flock of Reds.

Mrs. Curtis Veatch of Cottage Grove, who visited with Miss Beulah Miller and Mrs. J. E. True last week, returned home Saturday.—Halsey Enterprise.

Hemenway & Lockwood, the well known real estate dealers, now occupy half of the front of the Leader office, into which they moved their office last week.

Ripe wild strawberries and numerous blossoms were found on sunny slopes on the Felix Curran farm near Cottage Grove on New Year's day by Ira Beidler who resides there.

Harvey Guey and daughter, of Davenport, Iowa, stopped over in Cottage Grove last Wednesday night while touring the West. They were old friends and guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simeral.

A Y. M. C. A., or reading room, or some respectable resort should be provided for working boys and men in this city before an attempt is made to throw them out upon the streets on Sunday.

Dairy paper wrappers with your name on them, can be had in large or small quantities at the Leader office. 100 for 75 cents, 200 for $1.00, or 300 for $1.25, 400 for $1.50, or 500 for $1.75.

The grange will hold an interesting meeting next Saturday. Prof. O. F. Stafford, department of chemistry of the U. of O. will deliver an illustrated lecture commencing at 1 o'clock to which all are invited.

Bird N. Hawley, late of Lorane, one of South Lane's well known athletes, left last Friday for Deer Island on the Columbia below Portland to remain indefinitely. The Leader will keep him informed on the home news.

Walter Lunau of Cottage Grove, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at Harrisburg, was brought to the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. T. K. Johnson, last Wednesday. He is not able to be out yet, but expects to be soon.—Halsey Enterprise.

James Atkinson of Cottage Grove, who recently disposed of his business there, passed through our city Monday en route to Portland, where he is interested and will probably locate in the near future. He greeted many friends at the depot.—Halsey Enterprise.

A fine lot of odds and ends going at less than cost at Scholl's.

Rev. J. L. Beatty, of the Klamath Indian Reservation Mission, was a guest of old friends in this city last Wednesday and Thursday, he having formerly been pastor of the M. E. church here. He informs the Leader that a new postoffice has been established on the reservation to be known as Beatty and he has received his commission as postmaster at that place.

Society Notes

By Mrs. W. C. Conner.

Mrs. Minnie Price and her Sunday School class tendered Miss Mildred Walker a farewell shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Walker in west Cottage Grove, Monday evening. There were miscellaneous gifts besides a beautiful manicure set from the class. Vocal and instrumental music and games were features of the evening and dainty refreshments were served. Mr. Walker and daughter, Miss Mildred, will leave for California Wednesday morning and will visit various parts of the state. Mr. Walker expects to be gone about a month and Miss Mildred will remain with an aunt in Madero county, in hope of the change being beneficial to her health. Members of the Christian Sunday School who attended the reception were: Buelah Hawkins, Maude Doyle, Jay Sams, Helen Stafford, Virgie and Lelah Houston Laverta Shea, Grace Rinard, Georgia Raines, Ethel Rogers, Esther and Ruth Jorgensen, May Hayes, Hazel Ostrander, Mable Goodrich, Edna Hull, Rhuetta Boyd, Helen Price, Mildred and Lala Walker, Clarence Spencer, Frank Wallace, Dale Hawkins, Irl Groves, Rupert Coffman, Carl Houston, Merrit Eddy, De-white Stafford, Claude Kime, Leslie Hull, Leslie Hawkins, Charles Protzman, Virgil Powell.

A very pleasant and enjoyable surprise was tendered Mr. S. L. Purnell, late of New Zealand, upon the occasion of his first birthday anniversary in America, last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Spear, in this city, upon which date Mr. Purnell entered upon his 23rd year. He is studying for the ministry at Eugene, and is a close friend of Rev. Fagan whom he has been assisting in the revival meetings at the Christian church, both being formerly of New Zealand. About thirty guests attended this birthday surprise and the guest of honor was showered with handkerchiefs and hosiery. Charades and entertaining social features were introduced for the amusement of the guests and excellent light refreshments were served.

A number of the eighth grade pupils were royally entertained at the Kem home on west Main street Saturday evening. Games and music was enjoyed until a late hour, when the girls of the party provided excellent refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, cocoa, coffee and candy. Those present were: Cecil Caldwell, Dale Hawkins, Erwin Brown, Victor Kem, Vergil Powell, Clarence Spencer, Edwin Redford, Herbert Brown, Donald VanBoskirk, Loretta Bennett, Laverta Shay, Helen Longfellow, Edith Brown, Flora Longfellow, Ina Valentine, Kathleen Kem, Rydal King, Idalia King.

The annual fellowship meeting of the Baptist church was held on Wednesday evening. Fifty-six members and friends gathered around the tables in the church rooms for the fellowship supper provided and served by the ladies of the church. Chicken pie formed the chief part of the sumptuous feast. Among the visitors present were Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich.

Joint installation of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. was held last Saturday and a splendid dinner was served by the ladies. The Leader editor and wife acknowledges receipt of a kind invitation to attend this dinner, but regret being unable to do so.

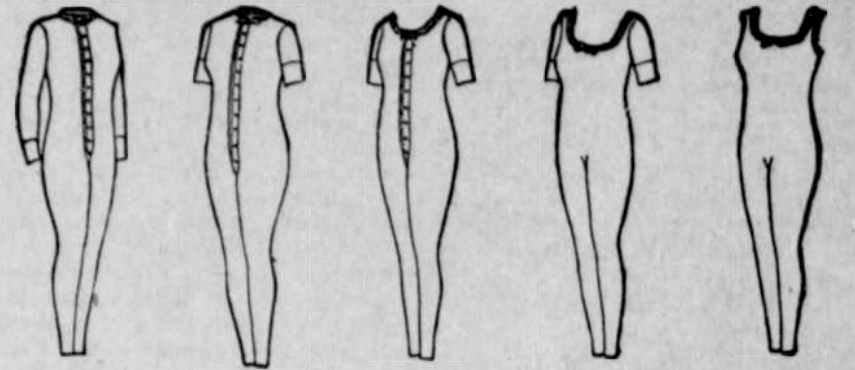

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Orvil Spear last Thursday afternoon. An interesting and instructive meeting was held and the ladies enjoyed a delightful afternoon.

Married.

SHULTZ-WILCOXEN—At the parsonage of Rev. I. M. Spangler in Eugene, January 8, 1914, Rubina Shultz of Eugene, to Frank Wilcoxon of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Orpurd returned this Tuesday evening from an extended visit at Myrtle Point with Mrs. Orpurd's sister, Mrs. W. E. Lundy and family. They also visited friends in Roseburg on their return.

LOGGERS' SHIRTS, GLOVES AND SHOES

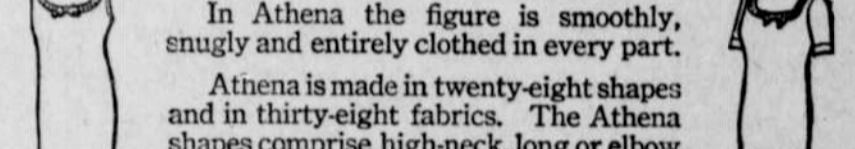

Shape No. 70 Shape No. 80 Shape No. 86 Shape No. 60 Shape No. 50
Knee-length Knee-length Knee-length Knee-length
Shape No. 82 Shape No. 62 Shape No. 52

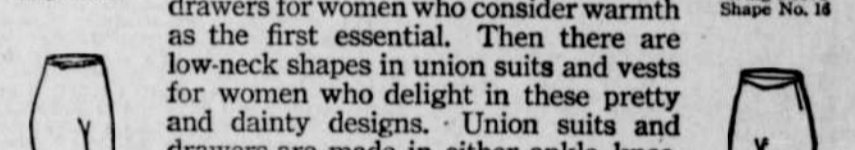

Shape No. 10 Shape No. 12

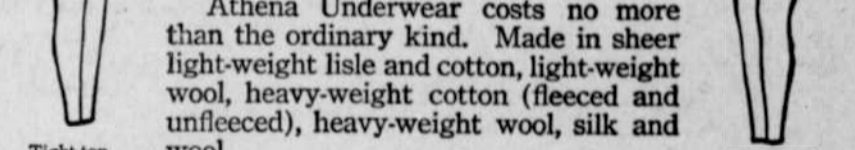

Corset Cover No. 90 Corset Cover No. 92

Shape No. 14 Shape No. 18 Shape No. 16

Tight-top Drawers Shape No. 40 Knee-length Shape No. 42 Umbrella-style Shape No. 44

French-band Shape No. 20 Knee-length Shape No. 22 Umbrella-style Shape No. 34

WOMEN ARE QUICK TO APPRECIATE

ATHENA UNDERWEAR

FOR WOMEN, MISSES, CHILDREN

COMBINING for the first time the features that have given them the first sense of comfort they have ever known in knit underwear. These features are: The Patent-Fitted Seat, The Three-Cornered Gusset at thigh, The Perfected-Shoulder-Stay, The Fitted Shoulders and Sleeves, The Extra-Elastic Cuff, The Tailored Shaping and The Perfect Sizing of Athena Underwear.

In Athena the figure is smoothly, snugly and entirely clothed in every part.

Athena is made in twenty-eight shapes and in thirty-eight fabrics. The Athena shapes comprise high-neck, long or elbow sleeve, ankle-length union suits; and high-neck, low-sleeve vests with ankle drawers for women who consider warmth as the first essential. Then there are low-neck shapes in union suits and vests for women who delight in these pretty and dainty designs. Union suits and drawers are made in either ankle, knee-length or umbrella styles.

Athena Underwear costs no more than the ordinary kind. Made in sheer light-weight lisle and cotton, light-weight wool, heavy-weight cotton (fleece and unfleece), heavy-weight wool, silk and wool.

Try Athena Underwear for children. Perfect fit. Long wear. Comfortable and warm.

THE DAYLIGHT STORE

BURKHOLDER-WOODS COMPANY

"Star Brand Shoes are Better"

AT THE CHURCHES

M. E. Church.

HORACE N. ALDRICH, Pastor.

Next Sunday, 10 a. m., Sunday School, graded lessons and classes for all ages, J. I. Jones, Supt. Efficient teachers.

Morning sermon at 11 o'clock, theme, "Unbelief, Is It Reasonable?" Anthem, "I Have Set Watchmen," Lorenz. Duet, "Art Thou Weary?" Hosmer.

The Junior League at 3 p. m., Mrs. Aldrich, superintendent. 6:30 p. m., Epworth League. Topic, "League Study Classes," Mrs. J. S. Benson, leader.

7:30 p. m., evening service, sermon subject, "The Call of the Master." Anthem, "Home-ward Bound," Harrington. Offertory, "Though Faint, Yet Persuing," Koschat.

This week Wednesday, 2:30 p. m., the ladies' aid society meets in the church.

Saturday, 8 p. m., the second quarterly conference will be held. The district superintendent, Rev. J. T. Abbet, will preside.

Presbyterian Church.

R. M. Broadbooks, Pastor.

Services next Sunday: Bible School at 10 a. m.; morning worship at 11 a. m. The subject of the sermon will be "The Blessings of Unrealized Ideals." Evening worship at 7:30. Subject of sermon, "Not Far From the Kingdom."

The juniors will meet at 3 p. m. and a junior Y. P. S. C. E. will be organized. The Ladies' Aid will meet next Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

Christian Church.

M. HOWARD FAGAN, Pastor.

Revival closed Sunday with a crowded house. Services as usual next Sunday, 9:45 a. m. Bible school; 11 a. m. communion and preaching, sermon, "The Good Samaritan;" 6:50 p. m., Christian Endeavor; 7:30 p. m., song service and sermon, "Why I Am a Member of the Christian Church." At the evening service Mrs. Fagan will sing by request "The Holy City."

Come where you can hear the old gospel in sermon and song.

Baptist Church.

Cor. 11th and Adams sts.

C. M. COBB, Pastor.

Res. 1329 West Main st.

Next Sunday: 10 a. m., Bible School, Mrs. K. K. Mills, supt.

11 a. m., morning worship, sermon subject: "A Christian's Questions In Conduct." 6:30 p. m. Young People's meeting.

The pastor preaches at Dorena in the evening. Week-day meetings: The Philathea class meets at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wood for Bible study Monday afternoons at 3:30.

Teachers' meeting and prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Mills on Monday evening.

Regular weekly prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Griggs on Thursday.

A marriage license was issued Thursday afternoon to Ira F. Wilcoxon, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Rubina Shultz, of Eugene.