

Eyes Must Be Carefully Examined

It takes PATIENCE, skill and TIME to determine the prescription according to which the proper lenses for your eyes should be made. Do not make the Mistake of getting glasses without first having your eyes carefully examined. I am equipped with MODERN FACILITIES for examining your eyes, and supply the glasses to meet your INDIVIDUAL REQUIREMENTS.

And Guarantee Satisfaction.

D. J. Scholl

Optometrist and Jeweler

Local News Notes,

Prof. J. E. Dunton has become the owner of a new Ford run-about and made his initial trip to Eugene and return Sunday with his wife and baby.

Hemenway & Lockwood, real estate firm, have purchased a new Ford automobile.

Phonographs and records at the Music House.

Fresh ground bone for poultry at Bartels & Ernest's meat market.

Orders filled at any time for ice cream in any quantities. Phone 13, The Elite. m 3 tf

For Sale—Buff Orpington eggs for hatching, $1.00 per setting of 15. Apply to Mrs. J. K. BARRET.

For Sale—Wagon, team and harness. Team weight 2500. Enquire Box 21, Cottage Grove. 3-4-tf

Poultrymen.—Before you buy an incubator, examine the new model "Queen" at Sterling's feed store. (f3)

For Sale.—Three choice Jersey heifer calves. Address Box 21, Cottage Grove.

Johnny, bring the washtub, Mariar, fetch the starch; And we'll wash the dirt from father's shirt, for the thirtieth day of March.

Eggs For Hatching.—White Wyandottes and Indian Runner ducks, only 75 cents per setting. Leave orders at DesLarzes Grocery Store.

For Sale or Trade—My nine room residence and nearly three acres of well improved lots on West Main, a paved street. Inquire of W. C. Conner.

If you want good wall paper call on A. H. Cruson or write him a postal card.

Valuable coupons with purchases at the West Side Grocery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish in this manner to thank all our friends for their kindly assistance and sympathy in our great bereavement, the loss of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. HENRY WIDDERSHEIM and FAMILY.

Everything in the music line at the Music House.

Buff Leghorn eggs for hatching. 75 cents for 15. Shelby Teeters. 3-4-5t

Wanted—To trade two beds and springs for dry wood, bark preferred. Inquire of Leader.

Dont forget we have fresh bread every day for dinner trade. BAKER BROS.

Pure White Indian Runner Duck eggs for setting $1.00 per dozen for local orders. For orders requiring shipping package $1.50. Good 200-egg incubator cheap. W. B. FINNEY.

See Cruson for wall paper.

Subscribe for the Leader.

Remember the thirtieth of March.

No lady of Cottage Grove should buy a spring hat until she sees the stock of the Vogue Millinery store—opening Saturday, March 28.

LOCAL NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Mrs. Emerson is visiting in Eugene.

Miss Eunice VanDenburg visited at Eugene Friday.

"Why dont you speak for yourself John"—"Priscilla"

Mrs. Sarah Knox is visiting relatives in Springfield.

Ben Lurch made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Auto excursions and picnic excursions were numerous Sunday.

Miss Neva Perkins spent the week end with friends at Eugene.

Mesdames Elbert Bede and Ben Groff visited friends at Yoncalla today.

The Vogue Millinery will have a big opening of Spring Millinery, Saturday, March 28.

Milo Roach, of Eugene was looking after business interests in this city last Thursday.

Mrs. Ben Lurch visited relatives and friends in Portland a few days last week, returning home Sunday.

Jas. Benson went to Wolf Creek last Thursday to look after his fruit ranch and take a few days vacation.

Chas. Thornton, who has been seriously ill at the home of his parents east of town, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. W. B. Walker went to Walker Station on the Cottage Grove local Saturday afternoon for a few days visit.

C. W. Wallace and family have moved into their new home on the hillside overlooking Cottage Grove on the east side.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Tennis left Saturday morning for Hoover, Oregon, where they will probably spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr and Mrs. Martha A. Mount left Thursday morning for a few weeks visit near Carlton, Oregon.

C. L. Monson, traveling salesman for the Pacific paper Co., Portland, was transacting business in Cottage Grove last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cashatt, of Portland, attended the funeral of Mrs. Cashatt's father, H. Widdersheim, in this city yesterday.

The ladies of Cottage Grove and vicinity are invited to attend the millinery opening of the Vogue Millinery, Saturday, March 28.

James Ostrander, Sam McKernan, W. C. Conner and Charles McKernan went to Eugene and return in an auto Monday to look after their taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clow and daughter, Mrs. Ed Ashby went to Salem in their automobile last Tuesday in their automobile, returning Saturday.

Attorney Alta King received last week the first installment of Oregon Reports, which he has just bought complete. The full Reports include 65 volumes.

J. F. Spray has completed a model dairy barn with concrete floor and a fine milk house on his little farm east of this city and is putting material on the ground for a fine farm residence.

When you buy of a merchant who advertises in the Leader you have the satisfaction of knowing that your trade is going to a merchant who is not afraid of competition—the live merchant never is.

Mrs. L. M. Shepardson, of Medford, formerly of this city is taking a vacation near Walker Station and was visiting friends and looking after business interests here last week a few days. She was accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher.

Editor Bede of the Sentinel, attended a meeting of the Executive committee of the Oregon State Press Association, of which he is president, at Salem, Saturday. The Willamette Valley Press Association was in session at Salem also Saturday and Sunday, of which Mr. Bede is secretary.

A romance of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the privations and hardships of the early days in Canada, of which Mr. Armstrong is familiar, having been in Canada before there was a railroad, he knows his subject, his lecture is a life history of educational and interesting facts. High school, Cottage Grove, March, 26, 8 p. m.

Vogue Millinery opening Saturday, March 28.

"There's a charm in the sound of the wedding bells"—"Priscilla."

More new residences are springing up in the new Woodard addition.

Mrs. H. J. Shinn went to Portland Tuesday afternoon on the Cottage Grove local.

Born, Sunday, March 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Al Miller, of Mountain View, a ten-pound daughter.

"Dutch" Johnson has returned to Northern California where he is looking after some mining interests.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Moore left Cottage Grove Tuesday for Santa Rosa, California, where they will make their future home.

It will pay every lady who contemplates buying a new hat to wait until Saturday, March 28, and attend our Millinery opening at the Vogue.

Baker Bros., the bakers, were among the first to start with the clean up and paint up campaign. The place of business has a very improved look.

DeLarzes Bros. have remodeled the front of their store building this week, a job that adds very much to the appearance and convenience of the store.

The M. P. G. club enjoyed a pleasant afternoon with needlework at the home of Mrs. Harry Short Tuesday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served.

W. C. Conner sold his little Ford auto last week to E. E. Crandall, the Booth-Kelly engineer at Coburg, who come up and drove it home Sunday.

Mrs. K. K. Mills went to Eugene Friday in response to a telephone message stating her father, J. M. Howe, was critically ill. Mrs. Mills was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Jessup, who had been visiting here from Eugene.

L. Elam came down from Hoquiam Saturday and purchased the large Maxwell auto which has been at the Nesmith garage for some time and drove it to Hoquiam Monday where Mr. Elam will use it on a stage line for carrying passengers.

Armstrong's travel talk illustrated by moving pictures and stereopticon views, tell a beautiful story of the Canadian Northwest. "The Way to a Home" will be given at High school, Cottage Grove on March 26th, at 8 p. m., entire proceeds go to the benefit of Cottage Grove High school. Admission.

The Ladies Missionary society of the Christian Church held an interesting and delightful session at the home of Mrs. Lee Roy Woods last Thursday afternoon. Subject, "The Missionary Education of Children." Many articles of interest were read and freely discussed by all present and a pleasant and profitable hour was enjoyed.

A fascinating story "The Way to a Home," the title of a lecture to be given under the auspices of the Cottage Grove High school, illustrated by moving pictures and panoramic views, showing scenes from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts including the Canadian Rockies which are said to be the equal of the Alps of Switzerland, an educational, interesting lecture on Canada. High school March 26th., 8 p. m. Admission.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Rachel Pearce et vir to James A. Wright—Lot 1, blk. 3, Wynn addition to Cottage Grove, $1800.

James Bankhead et ux to Frederick Wiltshire—39 acres sec. 17 tp. 21 S, R. 3 W, $10.

Lyman Adams et ux to James Bankhead et al—39 acres sec. 17 tp. 21 S, R 3 W, $1400.

The Kind of PRINTING You Want When You Want It At the Leader Office

Society Notes

Invitations are issued for a Japanese tea to be given by the Ladies club at the Woodman hall tomorrow afternoon. The proceeds to be used toward the purchase of a public drinking fountain.

Mrs. N. E. Compton was hostess to the Social Twelve at her home Thursday afternoon. A pleasant time was spent with needlework, and refreshments were served. Mesdames Aldrich, Wm. Hall and Nixon were invited guests.

Friday evening was the regular social night at Rebekah lodge and a splendid impromptu musical and literary program was rendered followed by games, charades and dancing. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

The 500 club were entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robbins last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Robbins served an elegant supper after which the guests enjoyed progressive 500. Mr. and Mrs. H. Kinter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cruson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook were invited guests of the club.

Members of the Rebekah Embroidery club are indebted to Mrs. H. C. Shinn for a delightful social afternoon at her home last Friday. Refreshments were served consisting of chicken patties, cheese wafers, cake and coffee. Thirty four members were present and Mesdames E. M. Shinn and A. Brund were invited guests. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mesdames Knowles and Earl.

The Emanon Club spent a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben Groff on Jefferson Avenue last Thursday afternoon. The hostess served a delicious luncheon consisting of sandwiches, deviled eggs, meat loaf, pickles, peaches and cream, cake and fruit punch. The following members were present: Mesdames Allison, Bede, Bisby, Short, Mackin, Arms, Brund, Atkinson and Groff.

March 3rd, the Woman's Club held its regular meeting. A very interesting lesson on John Greenleaf Whittier was lead by Mrs. Maude Shinn. After the lesson a business meeting was called to discuss plans for a Japanese Tea to be held March 26 for the benefit of the public drinking fountain. March 17 Mrs. Maude Wright led the lesson about Edgar Allen Poe and a very lively discussion followed. Another business meeting was called and each member was assigned a special work for the coming tea.

The ladies of Panama club prettily gowned in spring attire assembled at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cruson Friday afternoon and were received by Mesdames Cruson and J. C. Johnson, joint hostesses for the occasion. The rooms were pretty in festoons of Oregon grape and harbingers of joyous spring was everywhere. Closing the program at tables, a delicious two-course luncheon was served consisting of sandwiches, olives, coffee, fruit with whipped cream and cakes. Members present were: Mesdames C. H. Burkholder, B. S. Swengel, Merle Scovell, W. B. Cooper, C. E. Frost, Jas. P. Graham, B. B. Groff, C. W. Wallace, D. H. Hemenway, A. W. Wampole, C. C. Cruson and J. C. Johnson. Invited guests, Mesdames Alf. Powell, Ernest Bisby and Miss Ivy Holcomb.

A merry crowd of joy riders in four automobiles went to the Blue Mountain school house up Mosby Creek, last Wednesday evening and to say that they had an enjoyable time would be putting it mildly. Old fashioned games, music and laughter were indulged in till the wee sma' hours, winding up with an appetizing supper which had been taken along in baskets. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Bede's mother, of Minnesota, and Mrs. Samuels, Mrs. Ingram's mother, of Washington, Wash. Those who went on the excursion were: Mesdames and Messrs. W. B. Cooper, C. E. Frost, S. L. Mackin, C. E. Umphrey, Alf. Powell, K. K. Mills, Eb. Spray, Parker, F. L. Ingram, B. B. Groff; Mesdames Smith, Bede, Samuels, Bryan, Bennett; Misses Purvance and Kelly; Messrs. Wilson, Jack Grant, Ren Sanford, Geo. Matthews, Lawrence Phelps and Victor Chambers.

MCKIBBIN HATS

NONE BETTER MADE—NONE BETTER KNOWN

The reason why a McKibbin hat always "feels right" at the first try on, is because it is provided with the famous McKibbin "Cushion Sweat." Right qualities throughout and up-to-the-minute styles accentuate the first "right feel." The McKibbin are right through and through. Your Dealer guarantees them.

We also Carry a full Line of STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

Country Cured Bacon, Hams and Pure Lard

THE DAYLIGHT STORE BURKHOLDER-WOODS COMPANY

"Star Brand Shoes are Better"

MUSIC HOUSE

Opens for Business Saturday, February 28, 1914

Everything in the Music Line

Watch For Grand Opening Later

MILLS & ROACH

First National Bank Building

Pianos, Sheet Music, Musical Merchandise, Phonographs and Records

JOHN E. REDMOND

John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in their parliamentary fight for Home Rule for Ireland.

Brief News of the Week

Three dreadnaught battleships are provided for in the naval program of Greece.

The National Woman's Suffrage association has asked President Wilson to establish the first Saturday in May of each year as "Women's Independence Day."

The feminist movement in Chicago progressed another step when eight club-women were appointed deputy assessors.

Evidence is being taken at Chicago in the government's anti-trust suit against the Quaker Oats company and Great Western Cereal company. Conspiracy to control the oat meal business is set forth.

A mackerel trust is in process of formation in Sweden, according to New York reports, and fish dealers in New York are concerned over the situation. America is a heavy buyer of Swedish mackerel and the Norway product.

More than 5,000,000 cubic yards of snow was removed from the streets of New York, at a cost of 2,400,000 and $100,000 more will have to be spent to put the streets in proper condition, as result of the recent heavy storms.

A general primary was held in South Dakota Tuesday for the nomination by all parties of candidates for United States senator, representatives in congress and governor and other state officers to be voted for next November.

The financial loss resulting from the destruction by fire of Wellesley college, at Boston, will be heavier than at first thought. The insurance is said to be only one-fourth of the sum necessary to rebuild the structure.

The Parting.

Little Eva brought a comb and brush to her mother and said, "Mamma, please make a pathway in my hair."

Queer Things That Turn Up In the News

Mrs. Max Sontag of 234 St. James place, Brooklyn, kept dreaming her apartment had been robbed until finally it was.

"Who is president?" asked the court. "Bill Sulzer," responded John Cuzzo of Yonkers, N. Y. His naturalization is delayed three months.

An ingenious device in the house of commons in London shows at a glance who of the members are present and to what parties they belong.

On a Wisconsin farm alarm clocks are used to awaken the ducks and chickens. The clock discharges the food into the feeding trough and starts the heating apparatus which warms the water in the swimming pool.