NEW BREED OF POULTRY.

On last Monday Mrs. Jas. P. Graham received a setting of 12 expensive eggs from Astoria, they being from stock imported this season from England, direct from the originators, the Cooks. They are of the Blue Orpington breed, the Astoria breeder being the first to introduce this variety of the English Orpingtons on the Pacific coast. Mrs. Graham visited the Astoria breeder while in that city recently and says his Blue Orpingtons are the most beautiful fowls she has ever seen and they are also said to be an exceptionally good layer and table fowl. The eggs sell readily at $10 a setting of 12 from a select breeding pen.

It was a few days ago a passenger train stopped at Albany, where the "sandwich man" went through the train with lunch boxes and hot coffee. BAPTIST MEETINGS BIG SUCCESS

The series of services at the Baptist church are becoming very interesting. Quite a number have started out for a better life. Others are thinking of the necessity of a Godly purpose.

Last Thursday seventeen from Creswell came to cheer and encourage the good work Sunday about twenty-five of Pastor Groat's Baptist church and congregation of Creswell came to attend the services in the morning, including five recent converts who were baptized at the close of the service. Many of these stayed to attend the Men's meeting at the M. E. church in the afternoon. A woman's meeting was held in the Baptist church.

The services will continue this week, every evening, with Bible studies at 2:00 p. m.

Evangelist Williams is an effective speaker and has a simple gospel to preach, seeking only to win souls to Christ.

Everybody cordially invited to attend these meetings at the Baptist church, East side. —Contributed.

Society Notes

A pleasant social dancing party was given in Phillips hall last Saturday night under the management of Fred Lizer. The dance was well attended and the music was furnished by local talent.

Mrs. N. E. Compton pleasantly entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at her home last Wednesday afternoon. After a social hour with fancy work, the guests were entertained with a drawing contest in which each lady drew a picture of a rooster on an egg and Mrs. Lizar carried off first prize, a pretty book. Mrs. B. S. Swengel was recipient of the consolation. Refreshments were served.

S. E. Veatch celebrated his 83d birthday at the home of his son, Curtis, the old Veatch home, last Friday evening, March 27. Mr. Veatch is a pioneer of this section and is quite hale and hearty for his years. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Veatch served an oyster supper and the friends and relatives added to the sumptuous feast by donating a colation of pies and cakes. In choosing partners for supper, the ladies brought hats for the men to trim and a very stylish creation of hats was exhibited. Those present were: Mesdames and Messrs. M. M. Wheeler, Ed Ashby, Otto Doberstein, C. O. Willis, C. A. McFarland, Frank McFarland, A. W. Hemenway, P. H. Magee, Daniel Read; Mrs. C. E. Smith, Wm. Hemenway and Perry Ritchie.

THREE FREE TRIPS

TO THE

Panama Pacific Exposition

at SAN FRANCISCO IN 1915

and Four Business College Scholarships Are Offered

with this issue inaugurates the GREATEST BUSINESS-GETTING CONTEST ever held in Lane County, if not in Oregon. The Contestants are offered the most liberal inducements ever offered by any paper anywhere. It is an absolutely straight business proposition and every patron gets value received for every dollar spent. The premiums to be given away are educational, and such that the citizens of Lane county can derive pleasure and benefit from supporting their favorite candidates. This is to be a contest in which every worker receives something for her services. There are no failures, no disappointments, no heart-aches at the end, for every contestant will earn wages by her efforts to win a FREE trip to San Francisco next year.

The Business College Scholarships offered are tuitions to two of the best colleges in Oregon, and will reflect great credit upon the young ladies who win them. The Certificate of Tuition will be transferable in the event a successful candidate does not wish to use it.

The rules of the Contest are simple and easily understood. Every dollars worth of business brought to the Leader office pays a commission to the bringer, and one dollar's worth of advertising space, or job printing, secures the same number of votes as one dollar for subscription. Each dollar is good for One Thousand Votes.

The contestants retains 25c cash on yearly subscriptions and receives 16 per cent on all advertising contracts and job printing orders brought to the Leader office. Contestants also have the privilege of getting advertising contracts for several months or a year, to be paid for monthly as used, and will receive commission when the money is paid to this office.

Candidates must be nominated. A nomination blank will be found on the first page, and when properly filled out and given or mailed to Contest Manager the person nominated becomes a contestant, and every nomination carries with it a complimentary vote of 25,000. After being nominated, candidates will be given advertising rate cards and contract blanks, job printing price list and receipt books. Only residents of Lane County are eligible, and any lady married or single in the county who is over 16 years of age, can be nominated as a candidate. Commencing next Friday the list of nominations will be published and the race will be on.

W. C. Conner, formerly editor and owner of the Leader, will have charge of the Contest, and perfect fairness and impartiality is assured. There are no outsiders pulling down a big "rake off" in this contest. Letters must be addressed to W. C. Conner, Contest Manager.
