

Eyes Must Be Carefully Examined

It takes PATIENCE, skill and TIME to determine the prescription according to which the proper lenses for your eyes should be made. Do not make the mistake of getting glasses without first having your eyes carefully examined. I am equipped with MODERN FACILITIES for examining your eyes, and supply the glasses to meet your INDIVIDUAL REQUIREMENTS.

And Guarantee Satisfaction.

THE TWO POEMS.

Last Saturday the Leader published "Casey at the Bat," a poem of unknown origin, that has probably been read by more ball players and ball fans than any other.

In this issue is the sequel to that poem, "The Volunteer," by C. P. McDonald. It is not so well known as "Casey," but it takes this poem to complete the story begun in the other, as it lets "Casey" out of a mighty bad hole, in which the author of the other set of verses left him.

LOCAL NOTES

Nelson Lewis, of Divide, was in town Thursday.

Mrs. Lee Roy Wood was a visitor at Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. J. D. Anderson went to Eugene Friday on a visit.

A. J. Armstrong and Jas. P. Redford visited Creswell Thursday.

E. E. Lilly returned from a visit to Salem and Portland Wednesday.

Martin Anderson made a trip to Roseburg this week, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary E. Nesbitt, of Minneapolis, arrived Wednesday night and is the guest of her son Karl K. Mills, and wife.

A. B. Wood, Superintendent of the Oregon Pacific & Eastern R. Co., was transacting business at the county seat Thursday.

Miss Isabel Boldon, who has been attending school at Mt. Angel the past winter, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boldon.

George Comer, of Portland, is a guest of Cottage Grove relatives and is looking after his West Main street property interests.

Prof. Charles L. South, violin instructor of Eugene, made his usual weekly visit to Cottage Grove Wednesday, returning on Thursday morning.

Mrs. De Spain went to Eugene Friday to hear the lecture by Malcom R. Patterson and will go from there to Marcola to spend a week with her daughter, Mrs. Jorgeson.

Nobody keeps tab on the amount of goods they sell in the aggregate, but the unusually large number of traveling men in town these days seems to indicate more buying on the part of our merchants.

Real estate men report a lot of good "prospects," but are not closing many deals this week. But the fact that inquiries are increasing promises a lively real estate market this season.

The Messrs. Nixon were looking over the farming country tributary to Salem and Corvallis the first of the week in their auto not having been able to find just what they want in this community, but they may yet locate here.

The circus came to town yesterday morning and for a few hours wandered around like a lost child, looking for a comparatively dry place to light. But dry spots have been mighty scarce in this town for the past few days.

Chas. Taylor, the Creswell liveryman, sustained a broken arm by being kicked by horse last week. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor visited Cottage Grove Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Taylor's sister, Miss Nancy Whitsett, late of California.

Miss Nancy Whitsett has returned to this city from Orland, California, after a year's absence. She says her brother will also return to Cottage Grove as soon as he can close out his farm holdings near Orland where the summers are said to be very warm.

In 1900 Cottage Grove had a population of 974 and Springfield had only 353. When the census was taken in 1910 the returns gave Springfield four more people than this city—1838 to our 1834. If Springfield has always overshadowed Cottage Grove in the matter of publicity as she is doing right now, the explanation is easy.

Frank Woodfuff, the plumber, reports an increase of business, both in repairing and new work. There are several new residences now ready for plumbing. This seems to indicate a general tendency toward improving conditions, as people neither build nor repair extensively in periods of depression.

A committee of ladies who are interested in the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home of Portland, have placed a collection box in the Southern Pacific depot in this city, and asks such contributions as any one sees fit to make. The home is supported as a refuge for abandoned mothers and their infant children. The institution is endorsed by Portland's mayor and the governor of the state, and is supported entirely by free will offerings.

THREE FREE TRIPS

TO THE

Panama Pacific Exposition

at SAN FRANCISCO IN 1915
and Four Business College Scholarships Are Offered

has this week inaugurated the GREATEST BUSINESS-GETTING CONTEST ever held in Lane County, if not in Oregon. The Contestants are offered the most liberal inducements ever offered by any paper anywhere. It is an absolutely straight business proposition and every patron gets value received for every dollar spent. The premiums to be given away are educational, and such that the citizens of Lane county can derive pleasure and benefit from supporting their favorite candidates. This is to be a contest in which every worker receives something for her services. There are no failures, no disappointments, no heart-aches at the end, for every contestant will earn wages by her efforts to win a FREE trip to San Francisco next year.

The Business College Scholarships offered are tuitions to some of the best colleges in Oregon, and will reflect great credit upon the young ladies who win them. The Certificate of Tuition will be transferable in the event a successful candidate does not wish to use it.

The rules of the Contest are simple and easily understood. Every dollars worth of business brought to the Leader office pays a commission to the bringer, and one dollar's worth of advertising space, or job printing, secures the same number of votes as one dollar for subscription. Each dollar is good for One Thousand Votes.

The contestants retains 25c cash on yearly subscriptions and receives 16 per cent on all advertising contracts and job printing orders brought to the Leader office. Contestants also have the privilege of getting advertising contracts for several months or a year, to be paid for monthly as used, and will receive commission when the money is paid to this office.

Candidates must be nominated. A nomination blank will be found on the first page, and when properly filled out and given or mailed to Contest Manager the person nominated becomes a contestant, and every nomination carries with it a complimentary vote of 25,000. After being nominated, candidates will be given advertising rate cards and contract blanks, job printing price list and receipt books. Only residents of Lane County are eligible, and any lady married or single in the county who is over 16 years of age, can be nominated as a candidate. Commencing next Friday the list of nominations will be published and the race will be on.

W. C. Conner, formerly editor and owner of the Leader, will have charge of the Contest, and perfect fairness and impartiality is assured. There are no outsiders pulling down a big "rake-off" in this contest. Letters must be addressed to W. C. Conner, Contest Manager.

Nominate Your Favorite Now

The Contest Ends June 30, 1914, at 6:00 o'Clock P. M.
