Society Notes

Easter services were held in the various churches of the city Sunday and the assembly rooms were appropriately decorated for the occasion. Carefully arranged programs were carried out at the Presbyterian, Methodist and Christian churches, and vast congregations turned out enmasse to enjoy them.

The officers and members of the Eastern Star enjoyed a cosy social evening after the regular business meeting of the order last Friday night. Mesdames Lotta Scott, Emma Miller and Maude Wheeler surprised the members with a substantial supper, and Karl K. Mills entertained with several selections on the ambrola. The members have recently finished putting down carpets in all the rooms, including banquet, preparatory and ante rooms and entrance hall, making this one of the finest lodge homes in the county.

and Four Business College Scholarships Are Offered

THE

has inaugurated the GREATEST BUSINESS-GETTING CONTEST ever held in Lane County, if not in Oregon. The Contestants are offered the most liberal inducements ever offered by any paper anywhere. It is an absolutely straight business proposition and every patron gets value received for every dollar spent. The premiums to be given away are educational, and such that the citizens of Lane county can derive pleasure and benefit from supporting their favorite candidates. This is to be a contest in which every worker receives something for her services. There are no failures, no disappointments, no heart-aches at the end, for every contestant will earn wages by her efforts to win a FREE trip to San Francisco next year.

The Business College Scholarships offered are tuitions to some of the best colleges in Oregon, and will reflect great credit upon the young ladies who win them. The Certificate of Tuition will be transferable in the event a successful candidate does not wish to use it.

The rules of the Contest are simple and easily understood. Every dollars worth of business brought to the Leader office pays a commission to the bringer, and one dollar's worth of advertising space, or job printing, secures the same number of votes as one dollar for subscription. Each dollar is good for One Thousand Votes.

The contestants retains 25c cash on yearly subscriptions and receives 16 per cent on all advertising contracts and job printing orders brought to the Leader office. Contestants also have the privilege of getting advertising contracts for several months or a year, to be paid for monthly as used, and will receive commission when the money is paid to this office.

Candidates must be nominated. A nomination blank will be found on the first page, and when properly filled out and given or mailed to Contest Manager the person nominated becomes a contestant, and every nomination carries with it a complimentary vote of 25,000. After being nominated, candidates will be given advertising rate cards and contract blanks, job printing price list and receipt books. Only residents of Lane County are eligible, and any lady married or single in the county who is over 16 years of age, can be nominated as a candidate. Commencing next Friday the list of nominations will be published and the race will be on.

The Contest Ends June 30, 1914, at 6:00 o'Clock P. M.
