Kept Busy By Home Orders

J. H. Langston the Walker basket maker, has recently received inquiries about his baskets from several towns in various parts of the state, including Albany, Roseburg, Portland, Lebanon, Jefferson, Myrtle Creek and others. Mr. Langston says that of all the hundreds of baskets he has sold in this section of country he has never had a complaint, and his customers are re-ordering continually. The inquiries he has received have all come from friends and relatives of customers, people who have visited here and inspected his work. At the present time Mr. Langston can not fill any of the outside orders for the reason that the home orders keep him busy.

LOCAL NOTES

The free public reading room at 307 Main street is open every night at 7:30, and all day Sunday.

O. M. Kem will go to Portland Friday, to drive home his big new six-cylinder Jeffries automobile.

Elsworth Damewood went to Eastern Oregon last week, where he is employed in the Forest Reserve service.

L. L. Harrel, the auto-dray man, has placed an order for a two-ton Reo truck, which will arrive within a short time.

A. L. Monroe and Nelse Lewis of the local camp of Modern Woodmen, are in attendance at the State Camp at Eugene today.

Mrs. Roy Romain of Portland arrived in this city Sunday to enjoy a two weeks visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime.

Mrs. Ernest Lockwood returned Friday from a visit of four or five weeks with friends at Portland, Albany and other Oregon cities.

The Misses Lula Currin and Edna Russ went to Corvallis last Friday, where they were weekend visitors of Miss Russ' parents.

Mr. Wilshire of Corvallis, brother of Fred Wilshire, who recently bought a farm south of Cottage Grove, is visiting his brother here.

The officers of Sixth Company C. A. R., Oregon National Guards, left on the afternoon train Sunday for Fort Stevens, to attend the Officers' School.

Social Friday night at Silk Creek school house. Bring your basket and fellows' pocket book. Short program. One half of proceeds to go to Sunday school.

The Grangers, at their Saturday meeting, carried out a very interesting program during the lecture hour, following the splendid dinner, which was spread in banquet room.

J. B. Lewis is visiting in Junction City at the home of Will Lewis. This is his first trip to his old home within the last ten years and he is enjoying the stay immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Powell were called to Portland Monday by a telegram announcing the death of Mr. Listo, husband of Mrs. Powell's sister, a prominent hardware man of that city.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. Butler and Mrs. James Haynes, of Elkton, were in the city over Saturday night. All are friends of O. E. Woodson, who took them by auto to Eugene Sunday.

Professor P. G. Bond of the Cottage Grove High School is absent from duties for a short time, having been ordered to Fort Stevens with the militia company of Eugene. Hugh Currin is teaching during his absence.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a poster social at the Christian church next Friday from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. Every woman is invited to attend. Bring all temperance literature, pictures, or other material suitable for poster making.

J. Darling and wife, of Lorane were in Cottage Grove Monday on business. Mr. Darling is the big "Orchard" man of the Lorane Valley, and is also interested in the fruit growing business in the neighborhood of The Dalles—in one of the largest orchards in the country.

A. J. Armstrong, photographer, has secured the services of Miss Grace Battee of Eugene, for the coming season, and she has taken up her duties at the local studio. Miss Battee is considered one of the best artists in the state by her profession, and Armstrong's studio is fortunate in securing her services.

Willis Southward met with an accident last Saturday which came near proving quite serious. While loading a car at the dry kiln of the Brown Lumber Company, Southward went to help a fellow workman, young Milne, whose foot was caught between two timbers, when a door fell, hitting him on one side of the head, knocking him senseless. Although Mr. Southward's head was quite sore and his neck and shoulders stiff, he went to work again Monday morning.

An alarm of fire was sounded

Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, and before the firemen had time to respond, the "all out" signal was given. A small blaze started by a torch at Hamloth's blacksmith shop on Seventh street was cause for the alarm. It was quickly extinguished by employes working late.

Social Friday night at Silk Creek school house. Bring your basket and your fellow's pocket book. Short program. One-half of proceeds to go to Sunday school.

An automobile balked with its driver Saturday night on the Main street bridge, and backed up and tried to enter the Taylor survey office. The chauffeur got out to crank the machine when the breaks released and control of the auto was lost for a moment. Very little damage was done to the building or machine.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Oglesby have received word from their daughter, Mrs. Anna Graham, that she arrived safely at Wauna-on-the-Columbia Saturday. The message received Sunday was in the form of congratulations and good wishes to Dr. Oglesby, as Sunday was his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary.

Harry Hart drove his little auto to Roseburg last Thursday returning Friday. He was accompanied by his mother who will enjoy a few weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wheeler in that city. Harry reports the roads very rough in Pass Creek canyon and Yoncalla valley, but much good road work being done by Douglas county.

E. F. Jones, of Roseburg, candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in this district, was in Cottage Grove Monday getting acquainted with the people. Mr. Jones counts on a large vote in this district because his only opponent, now in congress, is on record as opposed to restricting foreign immigration.

Earl Garoutte has just completed tearing down an old building at the corner of Eleventh street and Madison avenue. The removal of this building improves the appearance of that particular part of town, and Mr. Garoutte is entitled to a medal, for he who tears down an unsightly old building improves the town almost as much as he who builds a new one.

After having scored two big successes here within a week, the Cottage Grove High School students presented "Burley's Ranch" at Creswell Saturday night. The play was well received there, and the cast again did fine work. The net receipts were $28.60. Five autos, including Prof. Duntley's machine, carried the theatre party, and all report a fine trip.

Mrs. Cora B. Warner, late of Chicago, has purchased the McMindes ranch, composed of 18 acres, in the neighborhood of Lorane, and will make her home there. The place contains eight acres of choice fruit land, in the cultivation of which she will be assisted by her brother, Alfred Wellman. Mrs. Warner also owns another tract in the Lorane valley, which she purchased three years ago.

A picnic party of eight young people spent a delightful day Sunday at Silk Creek canyon. The young ladies of the party prepared a dainty lunch for the occasion, which was enjoyed immensely. Hugh Currin, one of gentlemen in the party, is reported to have been the hero of the day. He leaped into the mad waters of Silk Creek and recovered an orange that was accidentally dropped into the stream by one of the ladies present.

The past few days of real summer weather has brought out the straw hat brigade and started a run on the soda factories and ice cream foundries. Some of the creations in millinery for men are real "crusty" while others resemble a last year's bird's nest. Jim Hemenway was one of the first to get the "fever," and not liking the latest crimps and shades, dug up his last summer's "lid" and wore it around town without even sending it to the laundry.

The services at the Christian church last Sunday evening were very entertaining and educational. The pastor delivered an interesting sermon, tracing the organization of the church and showing the rise of various denominations. The musical program rendered was delightful. Mrs. Fagan sang several numbers, Messrs. Richmond and Fagan rendered a duet, six young ladies favored with a song, and Miss Mc Cluskey, of Eugene, and Miss Carrie Woods performed ably at the piano. After the services one young lady was baptised.

Society Notes

One of the most delightful events of the season was the "Priscilla Evening" when Miss Esther Silsby entertained those who took part in the opera "Priscilla," the Euterpean Club and a few intimate friends last Friday evening. By a clever pre-arrangement the guests, with a few exceptions, arrayed themselves as school children and met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Aldrich, going from there in a body and thereby completely surprising Miss Silsby, who with sweet "Priscilla" at her side received the "small" guests. The beautiful Silsby home was fragrant with decorations of Purple Lilacs, pink Roses and Dogwood blossoms, while an immense May basket, filled with pink Carnations and ferns, the gift of the opera company to Miss Silsby, occupied a conspicuous place and was greatly admired. An impromptu program was given by the "children" which consisted of songs, readings, duets, etc., recalling memories of childhood days to many of the guests. Juvenile games such as "ring around the rosy" "fruit basket" etc. added to the fun. Partners for a delicious two course luncheon were chosen by matching quotations from the opera. Miss Silsby was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. Helen Silsby, Mrs. George Kerr and Mrs. H. A. Miller. Songs and jests made the luncheon hour a merry one. There were about fifty guests present who enjoyed Miss Silsby's hospitality and who assured her at a late hour that the evening had been one of unalloyed pleasure.

The Royal Neighbors Club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Lockwood Tuesday afternoon. There were 15 members present, including Mrs. Howard Hess, of Roseburg. Invited guests were Mesdames C. Kidd, Delme Hemenway, C. Kerr, G. B. Pitcher, Paul Markley, and Mrs. Roy Ro maine, of Portland. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in needlework and conversation, after which refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee. Mrs. Lockwood was assisted in serving by Miss Ursula Lockwood. The house was tastefully decorated with bouquets of beautiful red roses.

Members of the Rebekah social club were fortunate in having Mrs. Nellie Johnson for a hostess last Friday afternoon. Those present enjoyed to the utmost the pleasant hours of needlework and conversation, and a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols and Mrs. Herbert Eakin will entertain the Constellation Club at the home of the former on Thursday afternoon.

The David Griggs and Dr. F. L. Ingram families, spent the week end at Comstock, guests of Mr. Griggs' parents.

The Womens Club has issued invitations for a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Chas. Caldwell, next Saturday afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. will give a "Poster Social" at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon.

The Philathea class met with Mrs. A. W. Wampole Monday afternoon.

Ground was broken Tuesday for the foundation of the new cannery, and the work of construction will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Can You Give One Reasonable Reason

IF SOMEONE should ask you to give a reason why you buy bread made in some other city, instead of buying just as good or better bread made in a home bakery, by home people, who spend their money with home merchants, rent a home building, and help support home institutions, could you give a reason that would satisfy yourself?

There are many reasons why we should patronize Cottage Grove industries, and none at all why we should go out of town to buy an article that is made here.
