Good Attendance at Latham

In spite of the rain, twenty four were present at the Sunday School at Latham school house Sunday afternoon.

This is a good beginning for the class which was but recently organized and if the people of the community will make an effort to attend, it will greatly aid and encourage the young people who have taken the matter in hand.

Sunday School will be held each Sunday at 3:00 P. M.

What the Willamette Valley needs more than irrigation ditches, is drain pipes and some method for producing artificial sunshine.

Allison Brothers have just completed repapering their barber shop, and the result is a great improvement in the appearance of the interior.

D. Y. Allison and family returned to their home in Roseburg Monday after visiting for two weeks with relatives in Cottage Grove and Coburg.

Work is progressing on the Pass creek canyon road, we are informed by Chas. McKernan, who was home Saturday, and who is employed on the job.

When you buy underwear for the summer months ask for Chalmers' Porousknit in boys' and men's. Every garment guaranteed to give the wearer satisfaction. See them at Powell & Co.

J. D. Myers of Coquille, Coos county, arrived in this city Monday. He is endeavoring to exchange a stock ranch near Coquille and town property there for a farm or ranch in this vicinity.

Wilbur McFarland went to Eugene Monday to meet with the county school boundary board, it being proposed to include some more territory in West Gowsdyville in the new Cedar School district.

Clackamas county is spending $5,400 on the county road between New Era and Oregon City. This will be good news to the automobilists, as that was the worst strip of road between Portland and Cottage Grove.

Harry Wheeler came down from Roseburg last Friday and remained over Sunday with his wife and relatives, Mrs. Wheeler having been visiting here for some time with her mother, Mrs. Hart, and brother, Harry Hart.

J. R. Hendricks and wife, of Harney county, after visiting Mr. Hendricks' mother, Mrs. M. J. Emerson, in Cottage Grove, for a couple of weeks, left here Tuesday for Vashon Island, Washington, to visit Mrs. Hendricks' relatives.

Welcome Hubbell, who has the contract for the construction of a large brick business house at Harrisburg, spent Sunday with his family in this city. He says Harrisburg is a flourishing little city surrounded by a prosperous farming community.

Jas. S. Benson has returned home from a week's sojourn at his Wolf Creek fruit ranch and reports the peach crop very near a failure in Josephine and Jackson counties this season, owing to an untimely frost. This crop is an unusually heavy one here.

Angora goat meat has made its appearance on this market, and people are giving it a try-out. If you ever ate any antelope meat, you will find the goat meat a good substitute. It is more like venison than mutton, and is really a good-flavored meat, and it promises to be cheaper than beef, pork or mutton.

Nothing except old, unused, tumble-down shacks gives a town such a neglected, gone-to-seed look as to have the sidewalks overgrown with weeds and grass. There are sections of walk in Cottage Grove across which the grass laps from side to side, and the owners of the adjacent property seem to be entirely unconscious of the fact.

The store where both town and country folks feel at home—West Side Grocery.

Elzie Holderman is down from Ranger Lodge, at Disston, on official business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart will go to Portland today in their auto to attend the Rose carnival.

If your garden hose is bursted & leaks go to Wynne & Woods & get some hose menders & repair it.

A good cup of coffee starts you out right in the morning. Try Country Club—West Side Grocery.

There were no games of ball in this neck of woods Sunday, all league games being postponed on account of rain.

Mrs. L. F. Orpurd went to Eugene Tuesday to enjoy a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Cochran.

Mrs. James Wayland and children left Saturday for their new home at Tiller Ore, where Mr. Wayland has a position in a store.

Now that the people have got over growling about the rainy weather, they are beginning to show symptoms of spring fever.

M. C. Cochran has moved his general repair shop to the east side, and is now occupying the lower floor of the Woodmen building.

Miss Lola Wilson and Gladys Dascom visited at the country home of the former's brother, Wilbur Wilson, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Fueston and daughter, Mrs. Turmire, and child, from Rock creek, near Leona, have been guests of Mrs. J. M. Ritchey, west of this city, recently.

We carry in stock Champion Mowing Machines & rakes. If you need any sections, rivets or repairs for the Champion or McCormick, see Wynne & Woods.

We can sell you a Domo cream separator for $17.50 which will please you. Simplest thing on the market & guaranteed.

Wynne & Woods.

The stock and fixtures of the Owl Cigar Store were sold at sheriff's sale Saturday and were bought in by the wholesale houses holding claims against the establishment.

Mrs. Chas. Beals returned to her home at Vancouver Sunday after a two weeks' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, and with other relatives and friends.

Sam Veatch and William Southard were mustered into the 6th Company, O. N. G., last Saturday, and will accompany forty other members of the company to Fort Stevens Thursday, for the annual drill.

Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Neal and daughter, of the Rogue River valley, Monday and Tuesday. They are "seeing Oregon" in their auto, and will spend the entire summer in this state, then go to California for the winter.

J. A. Beamer and wife, of Canita, South Dakota, are registered at the Hotel Oregon, and are looking over this portion of Lane county with a view to locating here. They are very much pleased with what they have seen of this land of perpetual springtime.

While Mr. Hartsell was unloading his household goods into a house in the east part of town Monday, his team ran away, throwing several articles out of the wagon, breaking the wagon tongue and tearing the harness up pretty badly. The horses were not hurt.

John Spray is building a large silo on his dairy ranch east of Cottage Grove. He is letting the "patent right" men severely alone, and putting up the building according to his own ideas, using home manufactured material entirely, and is firmly of the opinion that when the silo is completed it will equal anything of the kind to be found in the valley, and will cost him but half what one of the patent kind would cost.

Lee Roy Woods Jr. arrived home Friday from the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, where he has just completed the Junior year in a Forestry course. At the close of this term he was elected president of the Amicus Society, and was elected again on the college glæ club, being the only second tenor of the old club retained. He will probably spend his vacation here, after returning from Fort Stevens, where he goes with the militia company, in the Forestry service.

Subscribe for the Leader,

Work has begun on the 10th street improvement.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. DeSpain at 3:00 p. m. Friday.

The Cottage Grove Fire Department is very anxious to have members who have badges belonging to the city, and who are not now members, to hand them to Chief Woodruff.

C. W. Wallace and family left for Portland Tuesday morning in their auto to attend the Rose Carnival. They were accompanied by Martin Anderson. Mr. Wallace and family may visit relatives at Tacoma before returning home.

Owls Elect Officers

At the semi-annual election of officers in the local Owls Nest Tuesday night, the following officers were chosen:

J. D. Quillen, president; Geo. F. Brumfield, vice president; J. W. Blackmore, invocator; O. W. Blackmore, sentinel; J. H. Huff, picket; Clifford Widdersheim, warden; J. W. Eddy, F. H. Hall and A. J. Armstrong, trustees; Dr. Kime, physician; V. S. Goff, treasurer; Geo. W. Widdersheim, financial secretary and Albert E. Burrows, secretary, hold their offices for one year.

Won Prize Under Difficulties

Miss Della Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Jackson, of Lorane, was one of the four winners of the Waldo Prize at the Oregon Agricultural College this year.

Miss Jackson stood among the very best in her class at the close of the term, in spite of the fact that she was compelled to lose several weeks from school work during the term on account of sickness.

The south part of Lane county is proud of Miss Jackson's achievement.

(a) What is the meaning of the expression Latin America? (b) Also pan-American? (c) What does the word Balkan mean when referring to the nations that fought Turkey recently? (d) How many ministers are there, and what is their average salary?

(a) Latin America refers to the nations south of the United States whose dominant class come from the Latin group of Europeans, Spanish or Portuguese. (b) Pan-American means "all American." (c) The Balkan states are those in the Balkan peninsula, Bulgaria, Servia, Roumania, Montenegro and Albania. Greece was a member of the Balkan alliance. (d) Dr. H. K. Carroll, late of the census bureau, gives the number of ministers in the United States at 174,731. The average salary is not given.

First Necessity.

"How would you define a 'crying need'?" asked the teacher of the rhetoric class.

"A handkerchief," replied the solemn young man with the wicked eye.—Chicago Tribune.

Nuff Said.

"You are charged," said a magistrate, "with talking back at an officer. Have you anything to say?"

"Dayvl a word, your honor," replied the culprit. "O've said too much already."—Philadelphia Ledger.

He Beat It.

"Only a dollar and seventy-eight cents," said the holdup man disgustedly. "Can you beat it?"

"I not only can," replied the citizen, "but I'm going to." And he did.—Detroit News.

The Objection.

"Here is a very useful little book called 'The Pocket Lawyer,'" began the book agent.

"No, thanks," said the victim. "I don't want any lawyer in my pocket."—New York Times.

Worse Than That.

"Is he henpecked?"

"Is he? His wife goes with him to the manicure."—Kansas City Journal.
