LOCAL NOTES

Binder twine at Wynne & Woods'.

The M. E. Sunday school is holding its annual picnic today.

Horse to trade for wood. Call on W. H. Harrison, West Main Street. 6-24-3t.

Max Wilson of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city.

Wm. Ward and family spent the fourth in Eugene with Mr. Ward's relatives.

W. B. Cooper was called to Montau, Iowa, last week by the serious illness of his brother.

Mrs. Fay St. Ore was shopping and visiting in the city a couple of days this week, from Drain.

Mrs. Groat went to Elmira Friday to visit a sister. She is expected home the last of the week.

Dr. O. F. Demorest is home from Merrill, Eastern Oregon, for a few days visit with his family.

Fred and Edmond Aldrich returned last Saturday from Salem where they attended the Cherry Fair.

Raymond Gleason and family came down from Wildwood Friday to spend the Fourth with home folks.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting next Friday at the home of Mrs. Knox, beginning at 3:00 p. m.

W. B. and William Hawley, Ralph Lynch and C. C. Davis and family, of Lorane, were Cottage Grove visitors Tuesday.

Charles Thornton, who has been sick for several months, is so far recovered that he was able to be on the streets last week.

L. L. Harrel says he climbed Lorane Hill with 28 people on his big auto-truck, and the machine never "drew a short breath."

Max Wilson, of Portland, was a guest of the Berg brothers over July fourth. He has a position in the S. P. offices at Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson and daughters Lola and Mabel, and Miss Margaret O'Mara left Monday for a two weeks' outing at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen, of Mabel, spent the Fourth with their parents, the Jorgensens and the DeSpains in Cottage Grove.

Chas. Whitlock and family, of Rujada, spent the Fourth in Cottage Grove with Mrs. Whitlock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. DeSpain.

Mrs. S. E. Cochran returned Monday from Eugene, where she had been visiting for several days at the home of her son, Chas. J. Cochran.

W. C. Lemen, district sales manager for the Oregon Home Builders, has taken apartments above Brund & Co.'s store, and he and his family have become residents of Cottage Grove.

Some of these days some short legged man is going to sue the city for damages. There are nails in the sidewalk south of the Armory sticking up high enough to tear the seat of a short legged man's trousers.

Binders, Mowing Machines, Horse Rakes, at Wynne & Woods'.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCreddie and Baby Janis, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Harvey Krueger, of Butte, Montana, are making their annual visit to the parents of Mrs. McCreddie and Mrs. Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Ben Lurch.

It is evident there is no one in this locality suffering from bread. If there is such a one, he is too honest to beg and too proud to steal. A sack of flour laid from Friday night until Monday morning, on a box in front of the Rees-Wallace store, and no one ever touched it.

Valvoline lubricating oils for all purposes, at Wynne & Woods'.

An old gentleman, 69 years of age, carrying about 75 pounds of camp equipment passed through this city Monday on a bicycle. He came from Imperial Valley, Southern California, and was seeking an eastern route to New Orleans, his old home. Being afraid to attempt to cross the desert by the southern route, he tried the Lake Tahoe and Nevada route but was compelled to turn back on account of snow, and is now on his way to attempt the Columbia river, Idaho and Colorado route. He is a hale and hearty old fellow and well posted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wampole spent the Fourth in Eugene.

J. I. Jones has ripe peaches in his orchard near town, and the flavor is most appetizing—we've "sampled" them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller, of this city, spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. G. H. Hess, and family, at Roseburg.

John Kirk, the Dorena postmaster, is the owner of a new Ford auto which he purchased at the Woodson garage last Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Ritchey came up Tuesday from Anlauf to remain for awhile with her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Ritchey, who is quite ill at the family home west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Matthews motored up from Portland last Friday and spent the Fourth with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beals.

While the rigs were all out on July 4th Art Summers completely renovated the Fashion Stables preparatory to repainting the interior and fixing up the place generally.

Arthur Woodring has returned from Salem, where he has been employed for some time, and is visiting for a few days with his mother, Mrs. Dan Beck. He expects to remain and follow the line of taxidermy.

Grandpa Shortridge brought a twig off a Bing cherry tree to the Leader office Tuesday morning, just to show that the cherry crop is not a failure in this section. The twig measures a little short of four feet, and bore 153 cherries.

Dr. Geo. Wall was up from Eugene Monday making W. H. Abrams a professional visit, and upon his return home in the afternoon was accompanied by J. W. Gowdy, who will receive medical treatment at the Eugene hospital indefinitely.

George Atkinson returned home Saturday from Iowa where he went last March to visit his aged mother who was reported to be seriously ill and who died sometime after Mr. Atkinson arrived there. He reports bumper crops throughout the Middle West.

John and Gene Spray are here from Eastern Oregon visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spray. They expected to return home the first of the week, but will prolong their visit on account of the injury sustained by their father in the runaway accident Sunday evening.

J. W. Eddy, who has been at Mable for some time past, returned home Friday to make arrangements to take his family to Mabel for the summer. They left Sunday with tent and camp equipment, and will camp out until cold weather. Mr. Eddy says he found things at Mabel better than he expected.

Speaking about the profits in farming—Culver Brothers bought Tuesday morning from Lew McCoy six pigs, which totalled 1050 pounds in weight, and paid him for the load $73.50. These are the kind of pigs one can raise in eight months on a clover field, and $12.25 each for pigs would soon make a hog-raiser rich.

Society Notes

The members of the Presbyterian Missionary Society held a pleasant veranda meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eakin.

The M. P. G. Club and the Constellation Club omitted their regular meetings last week on account of other festivities.

The Royal Neighbors enjoyed a delightful picnic at the Latham school house last Tuesday.

The most unique and enjoyable affair of the season was the 4th "Celebration" at Spencer's Park given by Mesdames Eakin, Kerr, Abrams, Medley, Lurch, Cruson, VanDenberg, Miller, Hall, Spencer and Miss Esther Silsby, to over 100 of their lady friends last Friday afternoon.

The invitations had taken the form of small hand bills and had caused considerable speculation. The "parade" was of course first on the program, and some of the "features" were "Uncle Sam," represented by Mrs. Cruson; the "band" of eight members under the capable leadership of Miss Esther Silsby; the "Goddess of Liberty," represented by Mrs.

Geo. Hall, who with her maids marching under a pretty red, white and blue canopy, made a fine appearance, the maids being Mesdames W. H. Abrams, Groves, Joe Porter and C. W. Caldwell. "Columbia up-to-date," in the person of Mrs. Will Hall, was much appreciated, and a small but ardent band of suffragettes brought forth great applause from the audience. Oregon and California were represented by Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. J. C. Johnson respectively, while Mrs. C. J. Kem as Cuba and Mrs. C. H. VanDenberg as Mexico wore pretty costumes typical of the countries they represented.

Immediately following the parade a program was given as follows:

Music by the band.
Welcoming address by the mayor, Mr. Chambers.

Special music by the band.
Reading of Declaration of Independence (revised) by Mrs. H. A. Miller.

Music by the band.
Oration by Mrs. George Kerr, speaker of the day.

Song, "America," by entire company, led by the band.

The oration was a masterpiece and it, together with the Declaration, presented the rights of women in a way which elicited many cheers from the "Militants."

After the program the sports were in order on the spacious tennis court, the winners being as follows: Egg race, Mrs. C. J. Kem; potato race, Mrs. C. H. Burkholder; three legged race, Mesdames W. Hall and Lee Nixon.

Much of the success of the affair was the good order which was enforced by the marshal of the day in the person of Mrs. Spencer who, on the back of a gaily caparisoned burro, made a very dignified appearance.

Soon after the sports were over the voices of many spieles were heard announcing that lemonade, ice cream, peanuts, etc., were to be had at the stand under a majestic old fir tree. Here the crowd gathered for another hour of fun and greatly enjoyed the 4th of July refreshments. The day was an ideal one and nothing occurred to mar anyone's pleasure, and it is safe to say the event will be long remembered with pleasure by all who participated.

DOES YOUR HORSE KICK ON HIS FEED?

A Poorly Fed Horse

reflects discredit on its owner, but the owner gets the worst of the deal because economy in feeding the horse affects its working capacity as well as its appearance. If your horses kick on his feed you can correct it by buying your feed here, as you get the best quality for the least outlay. Farmers, contractors and horse owners generally know that our Feed is always up to the standard.
