Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hull left Saturday for a week's outing at Newport.

At Gleason's brickyard fires have been started in the big 300-, 000 kiln of brick.

A large company of young people from this city attended the dance at Divide Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ginther accompanied Dr. Robinson up to Bohemia Saturday, returning home Monday.

Miss "Jimmy" Ruth Blair of Portland has been a guest of her father, Col. W. H. Blair, and of friends in this city, the past week.

Fingal Hinds is again in a Portland hospital, this time afflicted with a kidney trouble, which is believed to be incurable.

Chas. Cochran and wife have been spending the past ten days at Newport, the babies remaining here with their grandmother, Mrs. L. F. Orpud.

L. M. Owens and wife left for St. Helena, California, Tuesday, where they will remain indefinitely, and where Mr. Owens' father and mother reside.

E. A. Wheeler and wife left Monday afternoon to spend the fall and winter at St. Helena, California. They will visit briefly, enroute, with a son at Roseburg.

Frank and Robt. Jones, Frank Wallace and Clarence Spencer left Monday morning by private conveyance for Bandon by the sea. They will travel leisurely, taking time to hunt and fish along the route.

Rev. Meminger and wife of Portland stopped over Sunday in this city to visit with friends, while on their way to Wolf Creek. Rev. Meminger was a former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Leum entertained at dinner Sunday Archbishop Christie of Oregon, his secretary Rev. Fr. DeLorme and Rev. Fr. Bernard, pastor of the Catholic church of this city. His Grace the Archbishop is an old Minneapolis acquaintance of the Leum family.

Mrs. Jas. Benson returned home Friday from Corvallis, where she has been taking a course in domestic science, at the O. A. C. Mrs. Benson returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, who made the trip from this city to Corvallis and return in their auto.

Mr. Holland, who is spending the summer in Eugene, has just made a trip from British Columbia to this place, and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull one night recently. After looking over Cottage Grove he said that there is more building going on here than at any point he had seen on the trip.

Rev. R. M. Broadbooks, late pastor of the Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning in the place of the pastor, Rev. Aldrich, and delivered a very able and interesting sermon. The most pleasing feature of the music program was a sacred duet by Rev. Aldrich and Miss Ella Anderson.

The Cottage Grove band held its first open air concert since its recent reorganization, on the street last Friday evening, and considering that the new aggregation of musicians had only three rehearsals prior to this concert, they did remarkably well and royally entertained the large crowd which assembled to listen to the musical numbers.

FIRE BOYS' ALARM FUND MAKING GROWTH

The collection taken at the "water fight" Monday evening amounted to $22.53, and C. A. Bartels handed the boys a check for $10.00, which with the $15 presented by the owners of the hotel building, the boys now have almost two-thirds enough to install their steam alarm.

The people of Cottage Grove have shown that they are not lacking in appreciation of the work of the Fire Boys, and the time may come when they will appreciate them still more. No man does harder work or takes greater risks than the fireman and in the case of a volunteer department like that of this city, his work is a contribution to the public good, such as many whose interests are a hundred times as great, will not make.

BALL FANS HAVE A BIG TREAT COMING

On Saturday, August 8, the ball fans of Cottage Grove will be treated to something new in base ball, when the home team will try issues with the Al. T. Gibbs Co., of Cincinnati, the champion Ladies Baseball Team of America.
