Miss Minnie Comer left Monday to attend teachers institute in Coos county, and expects to open school at Beaver Hill, in that county, on September 21st.

H. S. Barker of Portland is visiting his brother, John Barker, and wife, of this city. He sees a great improvement since he was here five years ago.

D. F. Dean, formerly of this city, has sold his newspaper, the Halsey Enterprise, to W. A. Priaulx, a newspaper man who lately cast his lot in this state.

Allen Veatch, of Salem, is visiting at the home of H. F. Wynne, having come up in the automobile with Mr. Wynne last Wednesday.

Mr. Nellie Humphries, of Lora, was in the city Friday, returning from a stay on Row river. She was met here by Mr. Humphries, and they returned home that day.

The Free Methodist camp meeting being held in a big tent in the southeastern part of town, is growing in interest and increasing in attendance. It will continue all this week.

James and George Skaggs, of California, brothers of John Skaggs, of Cottage Grove, are visiting here. They are both ministers, James being a Presbyterian and George a Methodist.

Frank Knox is here from Loma, Montana, his wife having been spending the summer here with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Knox have been residing on a homestead near Loma, Montana.

J. I. Jones estimates that he will have between 1500 and 2000 boxes of peaches in his young orchards, east of this city, this season, the early Crawford and Charlottes now being ready for picking.

Mrs. Roy Bellows and Miss Brown, daughter of District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, of Roseburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, of this city, the past week. Mrs. Bellows is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

Claude Hawkins has been enjoying several days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hawkins, and his little son, Emil, in Cottage Grove. He expects to visit Eugene and Portland before returning to railroad employment in Eastern Oregon.

Jas. Hemenway is displaying some beautiful seedling peaches grown from Crawford pits. They are the same color of Crawford's early, but much larger and better, and it looks like they would be an excellent peach to propagate and graft from.

While horseback riding Tuesday evening, the saddle horse ridden by Miss Arlie Langdon slipped on the wet pavement and fell on Miss Langdon's right foot, fracturing two bones in the ankle. She remains at her post in the telephone office, but can get about only by the use of crutches.

Truth of the Brass Tacks Variety.

By MOSS.

FRIENDS, dig in. Let's get right down to BRASS TACKS about the advertisements in this newspaper. They pay the ADVERTISER because they bring him MORE BUSINESS. He can more than afford the expense because of this increased trade. That's where HIS PROFIT comes in. The ad. pay the READER because they enable him to go where he is INVITED. He knows he will get GOOD SERVICE and HONEST RETURN for his money. That's where HIS PROFIT comes in. Rent advertising that TELLS SOMETHING—that really and honestly advertises—is a MUTUAL BENEFIT. Advertisers must tell a SELLING story; tell it CONVINCINGLY and in DETAIL. Then they must BACK IT UP by DELIVERING the GOODS. This kind of advertising will make REAL business. The average person will go where he is INVITED, and he'll RETURN if he is treated RIGHT.
