

WATCHES

At Less Than Catalogue Prices
FOR THE HOLIDAYS
AT
D. J. Scholl
Optometrist and Jeweler

Local News Notes

Subscribe for the Leader.

The Leader—the biggest little paper in Oregon.

Make Cottage Grove Bigger, Busier and Better.

Mr. Flynn, the brick mason, is recovering from a severe illness.

Born, to the wife of George Keblebeck, Nov. 9, 1914, an 8-1-2 pound boy.

Max Dorward is able to get down town occasionally by the use of crutches.

Jas. Ostrander, the barber, is serving on the Federal Grand Jury at Portland.

The New Era drug store took on a yellow or buff complexion this week—the Nyal color.

E. U. Lee, ex-county clerk, sustained a broken arm while working with his auto at Eugene Monday.

Mrs. Josie Field, of Lorane submitted to an operation at the Eugene hospital Saturday afternoon. She is recovering rapidly.

Do not purchase a cream separator without investigating the "Dome" at Wynne & Woods'. 90 to 1000 pounds capacity and $17.50 up.

Mrs. Sarah Cochran has moved into the Cooper bungalow in east Cottage Grove which she recently acquired in the transfer of her farm to W. B. Cooper.

Citizens residing on West Main street are complaining about auto and motor cycle racing in that part of town. Its a dangerous pastime fellows, better cut it out.

Fred Bartels went to northern California points last week to buy a carload of alfalfa hay on which to feed the Bartel & Ernest beef cattle. This product should be raised here.

The S. P. Company is putting in large concrete tubular culverts between this city and the railroad bridge on the north and will replace the old wooden trestles with dirt and gravel fills.

Mrs. C. W. Parker who left for Wisconsin last week to attend her mother who was reported seriously ill arrived at her destination Tuesday of last week, her mother having died the day before—Monday.

Hon. John Baker and wife of Portland, accompanied by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Baker of Florence, arrived in this city Saturday to enjoy a visit with relatives and old friends.

W. B. Osmon captured a great spider of some unknown specie last week. It was presented to Dave Scholl, the jeweler, who embalmed it and mounted it on a stick pin. The process is a secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McFarland are having a broad colonial porch built on the front and north end of their home in the north suburbs of this city. A commodious sleeping porch above the lower porch is included in the improvement.

The Eugene police were looking for Keltly Sheufule, a 11-year-old girl from Cottage Grove Saturday, who with her parents were visiting on Pearl street. The girl wandered off during the afternoon wearing a gray coat and red cap.—Guard.

LOCAL NOTES

Cottage Grove is an important mohair market.

Don't overlook our complete market report each week.

Strawberries and cream is still on the Cottage Grove menus.

You would do well to patronize, those business men who advertise.

Funny how close together Christmas seasons are in stringent years.

Wilbur McFarland went to the county seat Thursday to transact probate business.

Late new subscribers to the Leader are S. D. Nixon, Wm. Lacky and Rev. E. G. O. Groat.

President Frank, of the Blumeir-Frank Drug Co. Portland, personally called upon local druggists Friday.

J. H. Thomas and family late of California, have taken up their residence in the Lockwood cottage on North Fifth street.

Mrs. Josie B. Abrams and Willard McGee, both Lane county pioneers died at Eugene last Tuesday. Mr. McGee was a pioneer logger.

J. C. Porter and Josiah Porter have filed suit against M. C. Wallace and J. C. Wallace to collect $800, with interest, attorney fees and taxes.

J. Ed Angel of Saginaw, was transacting business in this city Tuesday, the most important being the enrollment of his name on the Leader subscription book.

E. A. Rhoten, field editor of the Pacific Homestead, was in this city Thursday letting the contract for building a wire fence around his ranch a short distance west of Cottage Grove.

Mayor Davis of Drain, has resigned because he was accused of using his influence to secure an electric wiring contract for a certain firm in that city. Councilman Rush succeeds him.

Bert Harrel, wife and little son of Portland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harrel of this city. Bert Harrel is recovering from a serious injury resulting from a fall from a railroad bridge some time ago. They will go from here to Glendale to visit a brother of Mr. Harrel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesLarzes of Oregon City, are guests of the former's parents and brother in Cottage Grove. Mr. DesLarzes being interested financially in the DesLarzes Bros. grocery store of this city, may decide to locate here permanently. He is also a practical printer having long been connected with one of the Oregon City newspapers. Mrs. DesLarzes is a talented musician, vocalist and instructor and they would be a valuable acquisition to Cottage Grove.

A successful meeting of the Lane County Horticultural Society was held at Creswell Saturday. Among the speakers at the meeting were C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector, who talked on "Fruit Tree Pests," and A. C. Chase, an orchardist of Creswell, who talked on "The Development of a Ten Acre Orchard Tract." R. B. Coglon the county agriculturist, spoke on the subject of better business methods in farming. The next meeting will be held in Eugene, on December 5, when officers, for the year, 1915, will be elected.

Pianos

Musical Merchandise
Edison Phonographs
Victor Victrolas
Singer Sewing Machines

Mills & Roach Music House
First Nat'l Bank Bldg.

Roseburg went dry by 661 votes.

Slaughter sale on all trimmed hats at The Vogue.

Ladies you should read Mary Bartels ad on this page today.

Nov. 11, and tomato, beans and potato vines still green in the gardens.

Special hat and millinery sale for a short time only at The Vogue.

Every precinct in Coos county went dry except the little town of Empire.

Read DesLarzes Bros. new ad on opposite page. It announces real bargains.

Born, to the wife of John E. Holstrom Nov. 10, 1914, an 8 pound boy at Dorena.

Mrs. E. Mills of Ashland is visiting with Mrs. Helen Silsby and daughter, Miss Esther Silsby.

John Adams, a German living in Cottage Grove has taken out his second papers for naturalization.

The Odd Fellows are surveying and platting the new addition to their cemetery on the west.

J. V. Thornton is celebrating his 66th. birthday anniversary today. A fine family dinner was the principal feature.

The Leader's job printing department is being kept very busy these days, but all work is delivered promptly.

More than a 50 per cent reduction on trimmed hats and all other millinery greatly reduced for a short time at The Vogue.

Mrs. F. F. Wells and children of Elkton, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Hefty and sister Mrs. Laurence Johnson of this city.

Father Bernard, of Cottage Grove, was in Eugene between trains Tuesday on his way to Monroe on a business trip.—Guard.

The residence of J. V. O'Leary at McKenzie Bridge sixty miles east of Eugene, a two-story ten-room structure, was destroyed by fire last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Phelps, Misses Pearl Johnson and Leota Case and Lester Phelps attended the Hopper-Queen wedding at Saginaw Tuesday evening.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a special praise meeting, Friday Nov. 13, at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Cora Compton on Adams ave. A cordial invitation is extended to all women to attend.

Ladies, Mrs. Henderson has equipped her cleaning and pressing parlors with a new mercedes plaiter adjustable to materials 1 to 48 inches wide. Give her a trial order for work in this line.

A. Doolittle, who recently purchased a Creswell farm, turning in one of his Cottage Grove residences on the deal, is in the city today and says he is kept very busy improving his new farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham have leased the Lew A. Cates 20-acre ranch a short distance south of Latham and will move thereon in a few weeks. Mrs. Graham will be chief agriculturist while "Pat" will be farm supervisor.

Mrs. Hathaway and son, Ferris, the former a sister of Mrs. Gray of this city, and the latter manager of the Ford auto agency at Eugene were guests of Mrs. Gray of this city Sunday and Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Winchel, a niece of Mrs. Gaay.

C. H. Burkholder and N. E. Compton are home from a brief visit to Newport by the sea. They didn't tarry long the bathing season being over. Any one having any odd jobs laying around should not overlook these two worthy and energetic citizens. Salary no object!

For the prompt payment of fraternal insurance the order of Women of Woodcraft is certainly to the fore. The Grand Circle at Portland was notified of the death of Mrs. Frank Hambrick on Oct. 26, and the clerk Mrs. F. C. Coffman received the check in the sum of $500 for the beneficiary Nov. 8.

Is Released On Bail

H. F. Welch, of Creswell, arrested yesterday charged with wife desertion, furnished $500 bail and was released this afternoon. He will be given a hearing later in the week.—Guard.

Committed To Asylum

Mrs. Clara Lame, a resident of London Springs, south of Cottage Grove, was declared insane after an examination late yesterday, and committed to the state asylum.

Loganberries have been picked recently in many parts of Lane county, and are being shown as out of season curiosities.

Household furniture and office fixtures, all practically new, for sale, call at the corner of 5th and Washington streets.

DR. F. W. ROBBINS.

Do It Now!

Only a few week's till Christmas. Nothing is more acceptable than a really classy photo as a remembrance to a friend. We pride ourselves on making our work of a quality that gives lasting pleasure. Come now, and give us time to finish the work. Prices and quality right.

ARMSTRONG STUDIO.
Right in the center of town.

Third Auto Thief Caught

The third man implicated in the theft of the Case auto from Oakesdale, last week is now in the custody of the officers at Pullman, Washington. The car is still at Parker's garage in this city. Marshal Pitcher received the above information yesterday.

E. C. Lake, the genial monument dealer of Eugene, was a Cottage Grove visitor Tuesday, where he has a number of prospective orders.

Slaughter Sale--Trimmed Hats & Millinery

Our Loss of over 50 per cent is Your Gain. Trimmed Hats to be sold at Less than Half the regular Price while they last. All other Millinery greatly Reduced for a short time only at THE VOGUE.

Main St. MARY BARTELS.

The Wonder Washing Machine

With water motor or Hand Power ...

Dozens of them in use in and about Cottage Grove. Come in and let us demonstrate them to you.

Wynne & Woods.

No War Prices Here

Although the Packing Houses have increased their prices, and there has been a general rise in prices all along the line, we have not raised the prices to our customers. You can buy meat here just as cheap as before the talk of War Prices began. Remember that.

Dressed Chicken Every Saturday
or at any time on order

CULVER BROTHERS

PEOPLES MEAT MARKET
Pure Homemade Lard Our Specialty