

WATCHES

At Less Than Catalogue Prices
FOR THE HOLIDAYS
AT
D. J. Scholl
Optometrist and Jeweler

Local News Notes

The Leader—the biggest little paper in Oregon.

Thanksgiving ball at Armory Thursday evening November 26. Good music.

The eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. McDonald is confined to his bed by an attack of the measles.

Miss Edna Elledge has returned home from an extended visit with an aunt in Washington.

Don't fail to read the new ad of the Fair store on this page. Something to interest the boys and girls.

R. A. Booth's election expenses were $2575.30. Lawrence T. Harris conducted his campaign on $439.38. He did not tour the state.

Frank "Admiral" Sly, the ex-drug clerk, was up from Creswell Sunday in his auto greeting old friends. He is doing the farm stunt now.

Some snow fell in the Bahemia mining district 36 miles east of this city Friday, which was visible on the high peaks from this city Saturday.

L. L. Woods, the piano tuner, is the possessor of a fine new two-speed 1915 model Harley-Davidson motorcycle, which was delivered Monday.

Mrs. VonBoskirk is receiving surgical and medical treatment at a Portland hospital. She was accompanied to Portland by her brother, S. L. Goddard.

J. Hardy Crow returned from Portland Saturday, he having been serving on the Federal grand jury which is taking a brief recess, but Mr. Crow succeeded in getting excused from further service.

Miss Lucinda Ward returned on Tuesday from Cottage Grove, having been called to the bedside of her sister who is very ill. Mrs. Skidmore went to Cottage Grove to take Miss Ward's place as nurse for her niece.—Drain Herald.

The brisk ocean breeze which accompanied the rain storm of Thursday night caught one of the large swinging doors at the entrance to the Reese-Wallace store room in the Cooper building and caused it to swing against the wall with such force as to shatter the large plate glass in the door.

Saturday's Eugene Guard says, Ethel Tooze, a former University student who is teaching at Cottage Grove, spent Friday night in Eugene visiting her friends. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Miss Helen Hamilton a senior at the University, accompanied her back to Cottage Grove Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday at that place.

Charles Matthews returned home from a trip to Coos county last week. He spent a few days with Frank and Foster Phillips on their dairy farm near Coquille. They are milking eight head of cows and are improving their place having already seeded 150 acres of their logged off land to grass which gives them abundance of pasture. Mr. Matthews visited Marshfield and Myrtle Point also, going in by way of Roseburg and returning by Gardner, Florence and Eugene. He was favorably impressed with Coos county.

LOCAL NOTES

Time to plant that Holiday advertisement.

The new currency law went into effect Monday.

Slaughter sale on all trimmed hats at The Vogue.

Ladies you should read Mary Bartels ad on this page today.

Special hat and millinery sale for a short time only at The Vogue.

Thursday, November 26, has been proclaimed as Thanksgiving day.

Thanksgiving ball at Armory hall Thursday evening Nov. 26. Good music.

Born, Monday evening, Nov. 16, 1914, to the wife of Clarence Morss, twin boys.

Many subscription renewals are coming in which is duly appreciated by the Leader management.

The county court has again separated the Row River and Mosby Creek Vallies into separate road districts.

While in town putting in supplies Saturday, J. P. Miller, a Coast Fork valley farmer, had his name recorded for the Leader a year.

Albert Anderson is home after a season spent on his Montana homestead. He reports the past season unusually dry up there as it was here.

Ivan Yancey and family of Wendling returned home last Thursday after an enjoyable visit with relatives and friends in this community.

Born, Tuesday morning November 17, 1914, to the wife of Lloyd Bisbey, a pretty 6 pound daughter. She has been christened Josephine Joyce Bisbey.

Archie Thompson of the Elite, celebrated his 32nd birthday anniversary Sunday. His grandmother who resides at Oakland, Calif. celebrated her 99th birthday anniversary on the same day.

D. F. Dean, formerly publisher of the Leader and later publisher of the Halsey Enterprise, which he recently sold, has bought the Halsey Confectionary Store from Bert Clark.

John Bader spent several days in Portland last week selecting ornamental shrubbery and plants with which to beautify his new residence grounds on West Main. He being an expert florist his home site will soon become a veritable eden.

Mrs. C. Numbers, of London, Oregon, recently returned from a four months visit with her brother, Mr. James Harper, at Hillsboro and other relatives at different points in the valley. Mrs. Numbers is an Oregon pioneer, 74 years of age and reports having a fine visit. Wm. Lacky accompanied her from this city to her home at London last week.

While great flocks of wild white geese were flying southward last Thursday night they were caught in a dense mist about Eugene, Springfield and the Grove. Quite a number were killed the next morning about these places after having hovered over these towns all night, being dazed by the electric lights. This variety is not common about here and a bag of these is quite a treat to the sportsmen. The birds were plump and fat.

J. H. Langston, the expert basket maker of Walker, was transacting business in Cottage Grove Saturday. He made a good sized shipment of baskets to Eugene last week and two shipments to that city the week before and has enough orders right along to keep him busy. He manufactures a basket superior to anything in the market using only Oregon maple. In style his baskets include everything from a ladies' sewing basket to a bushel farm basket. Mr. Langston will receive the Leader another year.

Oliver plows: Swengel Hardware.

Don't fail to read DesLarzes Bros. new ad.

The Eagle cigar store has an artistic new window sign.

You can get Soluble Sulphur, the new tree spray, at the Swengel Hardware store.

Read the new ad and cash announcement of Shorts grocery on the last page of the Leader.

Dr. C. B. King has been quite ill at his home in this city, but his condition is now improved.

Mrs. Roy Bellows of Roseburg, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones of this city.

Lime-Sulphur spray is sold by the Swengel Hardware store. Any quantity. Straight 30 per cent test.

DuPont stumping powder is sold by the Swengel Hardware Co. Cheapest and best method known for clearing land.

Cottage Grove physicians are contemplating following the lead of Eugene physicians in refusing to issue prescriptions for liquor.

Ladies tailored suits, in the latest Regingate style, new silk petticoats and a fine new line of ladies neckwear just received at the Vogue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beidler and daughter went to Oakland today to spend a week with Mrs. Beidler's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Richards.

Buy your Mazda electric lamps from the Swengel Hardware store. The Shelby lamps are high efficiency and give best lights for your money.

Frank Wallace and Fred Lizer combined their shoe shine equipments, formed a partnership and have opened a shine parlor in the Wilson restaurant building.

Rev. Murphy, father of Prof. Murphy, of the city schools, was an over Sunday guest of his son, and assisted in the morning service at the Methodist church.

Monday Mrs. George Mote presented the Leader with some branches taken from her garden upon which were fine ripe red raspberries, blossoms and green fruit. Pretty good for the middle of November.

Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, soloist and teacher, will be at the Methodist church parlors from 3 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon to meet those who wish scientific instruction in vocal music, voice placement, ect. Residence phone 123 L.

Homer B. Millard, of Portland, stopped over in this city Thursday for a brief visit with his brother-in-law, Judge Medley. He told the Leader he stopped off here in order to get a "square meal" an indirect way of paying a neat compliment to Mrs. Medley.

Miss Bell M. Menzies, a deaconess in the Methodist Episcopal church arrived here Tuesday coming from the Deaconess training school in Seattle, and will spend several weeks here assisting in the work of the local church.

Mrs. O. C. Johnson of Portland, who owns 263 acres of ranch land west of this city, has engaged Wm. Fullerton of Portland to fence and otherwise improve her tract and develop it into a stock ranch. Mrs. Johnson visited her holdings last Sunday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hemenway and Ernest Lockwood.

N. C. Maris, field worker, industrial fairs, for Oregon, is spending the day in Cottage Grove photographing our new high school building and making other views for the collection to be exhibited in the Oregon building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. With Prof. Stahlman Mr. Maris favored the Leader with a pleasant call.

Bird cages; Swengel Hardware.

Last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Groat 1444 Madison Avenue, two classes of the Baptist Sunday school were delightfully entertained by their teachers, Miss Protzman and Mrs. Groat, with singing, music, fancy work and cheerful conversation, the time sped quickly away. Light refreshments were served at the close. It was decided to hold monthly socials in the future.

THE FAIR

Will Offer You This Year

German hand painted china, Haviland china, rich cut glass, fancy leather novelties, toilet cases, manicure sets, fancy box paper, art linen fancy toweling, pillow tops, scarfs, silk floss and D. M. C. handkerchief, gloves, pictures, mirrors, holiday boxes, suspenders, arm bands, fancy socks and shaving sets, safety razors, ties, tie pins, toys of all kinds, dolls all prices, guns, pistols, wagons, Irish mails, shoo flies, hobby horses, chairs, rockers, blackboards, doll carts, books, bibles, testaments, gift books, fancy baskets, jewelry, rings, pins, etc., book marks, perfumeries, best grade at special bargain prices. Umbrellas for all.

Above is a general idea of our large stock. We have thousands of items on display now. Visit our store often buy as early as you can. A $ goes a long ways at this store and we will help you to stretch it to the limit.

Guessing Contest Friday FREE TO THE GIRLS.
Saturday 1000 Thanksgiving Post Cards Given Away.

THE FAIR

THE CHRISTMAS STORE POPULAR PRICES

Society Notes

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held a very enjoyable social and banquet at the church Tuesday evening. The guests were received in the League room. A three course "Boston Luncheon" was served by eight little girls dressed in colonial costumes. The reception room decorations were English ivy and yellow chrysanthemums, and the banquet room was decorated in privet evergreens. After the luncheon a very entertaining program was rendered, closing with a debate, the subject being, "Resolved, that the Neat, Cross Woman is a better home maker than the Slovenly Good Natured Woman." Prof. Dunton led the affirmative, assisted by Miss Maude Hooper. Rev. Aldrich led the negative, assisted by Ernest Anderson. The decision was given in favor of the affirmative. About 75 guests were in attendance. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. McCargar, Prof. A. L. Barnhart and Miss Laura Smith. This pleasant social function was very cleverly planned by Miss Lola Wilson, chairman of the social department of the Epworth League, chapter No. 1.

Mrs. Lydia Stauffer was tendered a very pleasant social surprise Tuesday afternoon by her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Burkholder. About sixteen ladies were invited to the Burkholder home when Mrs. Stauffer was requested to call and was greatly surprised to learn that the social gathering was in honor of her 69th birthday anniversary, her age being determined by the guests by means of a mathematical card contest, Mesdames B. R. Job and H. J. Shinn being first to compute the correct figures. A dainty two course luncheon was served by Miss Belle Burkholder and Mrs. Stauffer was presented with several beautiful bouquets. In the evening Mrs. Stauffer was tendered another surprise at her home by another company of friends who called with well filled baskets and after a social hour a bounteous supper was served. Mrs. Stauffer was the recipient of a number of nice gifts at this social gathering in her honor.

On receiving an invitation from Mrs. Carry Hefty a large number of ladies, of the Foreign Missionary society called at her home last Thursday afternoon to admire the needlework and curios which her daughter, Miss Lura had sent her from China. Miss Hefty is a missionary to China from this place and is expected home on a visit in the spring.

A teacher's meeting of the Christian Bible school was held at the residence of C. W. Caldwell last evening, and quite an interesting hour was spent in the study and discussion of the lesson for next Sunday. Plans are made for this meeting to be held weekly and on next Tuesday evening it is to be again at the Caldwell residence, 343 3rd. st.

The eighth grade pupils of the east side entertained the west side eighth graders at the home of Miss Hildred Hall Friday evening. Games and a jolly good time was enjoyed by the youngsters and refreshments were served.

The ladies of the Christian church are planning a bazaar to be held the last Friday and Saturday of this month, Nov. 27, and 28, to close with a chicken pie supper.

The Endeavorers of the Christian church met at the home of Mr. Zacharias last evening for the purpose of planning the year's work.

Mrs. Leon DesLarzes will sing the offertory solos at the morning and evening services at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday.

Miss Mabel Rosenberg of Aberdeen, Washington, is a guest of Cottage Grove friends. Miss Rosenberg formerly resided here.

Notice To Creditors

Notice is hereby given that George W. McFarland has been appointed Executor of the estate of Oscar P. Adams, deceased, by the County Court of Lane County, Oregon; that said appointment was made on the 10th day of November, A. D. 1914. That all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same, duly verified as the law requires to me at the law office of H. J. Shinn in Cottage Grove, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice.

Date of first publication is the 18th of November, 1914.

GEORGE W. MCFARLAND
(n 18-d 16) Executor.

Slaughter Sale--Trimmed Hats & Millinery

Our Loss of over 50 per cent is Your Gain. Trimmed Hats to be sold at Less than Half the regular Price while they last. All other Millinery greatly Reduced for a short time only at THE VOGUE.

Main St. MARY BARTELS.