DOCTORS AND DRUGGISTS CUT OUT LIQUOR BUSINESS

Will Not Write or Fill Any More Booze Prescriptions in Cottage Grove Notice to the Public.

WHEREAS, the physicians of Cottage Grove, Oregon, have in the past endeavored to live carefully within the Local Option Law to the best of their knowledge and belief and have endeavored to obey as carefully as possible all of its provisions, and

FURTHER, that they sincerely desire to uphold the law of the land and feel that they are entitled to be considered respectable citizens in this community and

WHEREAS, owing to the fact that the physicians in various dry parts of the state have been unjustly arrested and convicted and fined heavily on purely technical grounds for writing alcoholic prescriptions, and

WHEREAS, the undersigned physicians have been annoyed by spotters from time to time, who falsely plead sickness and hope by misrepresentation and fraud to entice some unwary doctor in writing a prescription that they may secure his arrest thereby placing physicians in the category as an ordinary criminal, and

WHEREAS, the doctors are being continually annoyed by individuals seeking prescriptions for alcohol and alcoholic liquors, often when the doctor is sitting at his meal or perhaps, called out of bed and often calling at the doctor's office during his most busy time, causing the doctor to waste valuable time explaining the reason he cannot write prescriptions and very often the said individual, be he stranger, friend or patient, leaves the office sore and angry, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that we will in the future positively not write any prescriptions for alcoholic or spirituous liquors for internal or external uses or for any purpose whatever.

Dated this 24th day of November, A. D. 1914.
