LOCAL NOTES

Chautauqua June 13-18.

Memorial Day next Sunday.

Credit has led many a man into financial perdition.

Pomona Grange will meet at Springfield next Saturday.

Cottage Grove cannery will handle gooseberries this season.

A. W. Swanson and family visited Eugene friends Sunday.

After all nature treats us about right in the Willamette valley.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tonoli at Divide, May 23, 1915 a 7 pound girl.

Have you engaged your Chautauqua season ticket—the greatest event of the year for Cottage Grove.

There is little improvement in the condition of Dr. W. W. Oglesby this week, he still being quite ill.

Mrs. Lou Knutson wishes to extend her heartfelt thanks to all those who so kindly rendered her assistance since fire destroyed her home recently.

The Cottage Grove Sanitary Bottling Works received an order for 8 cases of their sodas from a single Drain grocer today. The Grove soda water products fame is spreading.

A. Doolittle and wife of Creswell, were over Sunday guests of Cottage Grove friends and were looking after property interests here. They are well pleased with their Creswell farm.

The Lobsch ranch of 154 acres on Coast Fork was transferred to Lew Markham late of Grant county Tuesday, the deal being consummated through the E. C. Lockwood real estate agency.

Born, to the wife of Jack Grant, Wednesday May 19, 1915, a 7 1-2 pound daughter. Mrs. Grant and baby are doing nicely and Jack bears the new title of "Dad" with much dignity and grace.

W. B. Cooper of Cottage Grove was a business visitor in Eugene Monday. He states that the fruit crop in that part of the country is in excellent condition, the crop having escaped the frost, excepting some of the early cherries.—Eugene Guard.

Stanley Martin is home from Silver Lake. He has purchased an interest in a Silver Lake garage and will soon return to that city to reside. He was much pleased to meet Stanley Jr., who arrived at the Martin home in his absence to Eastern Oregon.

H. H. Veatch returned home from a trip to Portland Friday. He says some great records were made at the big Seattle blue-rock shoot last week, the two winners scoring 99 out of 100 and in shooting off the tie the winner stood 49 out of 50, the other fellow 48 out of 50.

In the Thursday afternoon double header baseball game, Mackin's Badgers bested Brund's Beavers by a score of 4 to 2, and Baker's Bears swatted Smith's Braves to the tune of 9 to 1. This Thursday afternoon the Badgers will play the Bears and the Beavers will play the Braves.

A Pretty Show Window.

The "Commencement" show window at Hampton's is attracting much attention and favorable comment, wherein is displayed a wax figure in graduating costume, the diploma and bouquet being near at hand and a large C. G. H. S. pennant forming a background. This clever window display is the handiwork of Mrs. Dana Lawton, Hampton's sales lady.

May Build New Road.

Lane county and the forestry service plan to co-operate in building a road from High Prairie to Oakridge. Mr. Stites, will remain in that territory for several days, making a preliminary survey for the purpose of making estimates on the work. The residents of the High Prairie section desire the road so that they may haul their products to market at Oak Ridge.

Death of Mrs. Harry Bristow.

Mrs. Nettie Churchill-Bristow died at the Portland Sanitarium, following a surgical operation May 19, 1915, aged 43 years.

Margaret Burnetta Churchill was born near Roseburg, Nov. 29, 1871, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Churchill. The family moved from Douglas county to Cottage Grove where they resided for many years, deceased being married to Harry Bristow in this county. The mother died a few years ago and Mrs. Bristow moved to Portland to reside. She is survived by a husband, Harry Bristow of Portland, two sons, Clifford and Helix, two daughters, Hazel Bigger of Tacoma and Atha Davidson of Portland. Four sisters also survive, Mrs. Harry Pickard of Portland, Mrs. Dell Burnfield, Wineville, Calif., Mrs. Henry Wagner, Los Angeles, Mrs. Clare Baker, Portland. She was a member of the Christian church at the time of her death.

Funeral services were conducted from the Finley Chapel, Portland last Friday May 21, and many beautiful floral offerings were in evidence. The remains were shipped to Pleasant Hill, Lane county, for burial Saturday.

Among those of Cottage Grove who attended the burial services at Pleasant Hill were Frank Hambrick, Mrs. Currin Cooley and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Counts.

Mrs. Wm. Chapman Dead.

Mrs. Ida Chapman, wife of Wm. Chapman, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Currin of this city, died at her home at Marcola, Sunday May 23, 1915, after a very brief illness from heart trouble. Deceased was born near Cottage Grove March 1, 1880, and is survived by a husband and four small children, two boys and two girls. She is also survived by three brothers and one sister. She was a member of the Marcola Rebekah lodge and was highly esteemed. The remains were interred at the Sears cemetery Tuesday forenoon.

Death of Mrs. DeLaVerne.

Mary Jane, wife of Dr. A. L. DeLaVerne, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Finney near Latham, Monday morning May 24, 1915, aged 74 years.

Prof. J. N. Waterhouse of Eugene, assisted by Mrs. Waterhouse and Prof. South, presented his pupils in recital at the Presbyterian church Friday evening. Each number was well rendered and heartily enjoyed. Following is a synopsis of the program: Piano solos, Misses Isabel Boldon, Ruth Bede, Maude Doyle, Ruth and Esther Jorgensen, Hildred Hall, Rita Ridings, Myrtle Potts; organ solo, Austin Berg; piano and organ duets, Isabel Boldon, Prof. Waterhouse. Mrs. Waterhouse rendered two excellent vocal solos accompanied by Miss Boldon, piano; Prof. South, violin; Prof. Waterhouse, organ.

Miss Beulah Brumfield was tendered a very pleasant birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brumfield last Saturday afternoon upon the occasion of her 9th birthday anniversary. Many games were introduced and dainty refreshments were served. Among the young guests were Pearl and Crystal Robinson, Alice and Anna Levi, Goldie and Alta Raybran, Genevieve Rice, Pearl Ritchey, Veta Plaster, Frances Hamloth, Marguerite Higgins, Cecil McKinney, Eva Brocus and Theodore Nichols, the latter of Eugene.

Little Miss Geneva Kime celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary last Thursday, and to commemorate the occasion her mother, Mrs. A. W. Kime planned a very pleasant afternoon for 12 of her young friends. A number of games was introduced for the amusement of the little guests and an excellent luncheon was served in the prettily decorated dining room. Those present were: Dollie Pitcher, Katherine McQueen, Neoma Wynne, Mildred Comer, Lewella Knowlton, Reta Kelley, Donna Nichols, Lois Compton, Sybil Veatch, Mildred Burrows, Erma Pearson and Master Lee Nichols.

Mrs. Edna Kem charmingly entertained the M. P. G. Club at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kinter, Tuesday afternoon. The decorations were of beautiful Honey Locust boughs in full bloom. The picnic idea was carried out and was novel and interesting. Dainty refreshments were served among the Locus bowers making the picnic idea very realistic. After refreshments were served the guests were taken for an auto ride by the hostess. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Chas. Adams next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Caldwell was hostess to the Rebekah Social Club at her home last Friday afternoon. In addition to the usual members there were several invited guests present and a very pleasant afternoon was spent with fancy work and social chat. Delicious refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Hubble, Spray and Johnson.

Mrs. Widdersheim and Mrs. Jos. Porter are entertaining the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at the home of the former this afternoon.

The Constellation Club was entertained at Masonic Temple Thursday afternoon by Mrs. C. H. Burkholder and Mrs. L. Lurch. About 25 ladies were present and enjoyed the afternoon with needle work and social conversation. The additional guests being Mrs. C. J. Kem and Miss Belle Burkholder, the latter assisting the hostesses in serving dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake. This club will meet on Friday afternoons during the summer months so as not to conflict with the Thursday afternoon holidays.

Cottage Grove Rebekah lodge No. 24 at their meeting last Friday evening elected the following officers for the next term: Mabel Thompson, N. G.; Alma Teeters, V. G.; Nettie Cruson, Sec.; Anna Shinn, Treas.

The Social Twelve will meet with Mrs. J. S. Medley Friday afternoon of this week.

Lane County Institute.

The Lane County institute of the W. C. T. U. held in Cottage Grove Tuesday was well attended, many delegates being present from the county unions. A very interesting address was made by Mrs. Humbert of Eugene, who is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fuller of this city. At the close of the afternoon session a beautiful leather top desk and fountain pen was presented to Mrs. Lee Roy Woods of this city who is the W. C. T. U. county president, it being the 48th anniversary of her birth. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. L. A. DeSpain. Several excellent instrumental and vocal musical selections were given by local talent and were much enjoyed. The delegates returned to their homes Wednesday morning all declaring this institute a most interesting, pleasant and instructive one.
