INCENDIARY FIRE BUG

The old red building near the S. P. depot and east of the railroad tracks was discovered to be on fire Wednesday night about 11 o'clock. The fire was seen by Frank Wallace who gave the alarm which brought out the fire department. The blaze was soon extinguished and very little damage done.

The old hulk has been unoccupied for years and was somewhat of an eyesore to the public. It was originally built for a machine shop. The business was a failure and the machinery was removed and disposed of. How a fire could start there is a mystery.

Later, this same building was fired by an incendiary Thursday evening and totally consumed. Before the firemen arrived the building was past saving and they directed their efforts toward wetting down other buildings in that vicinity and preventing the fire from spreading. The entire population came out to see the bonfire. The building was owned by Robert Anlauf and had been condemned but the owner neglected to remove it.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS AT CRATER LAKE

The Beautiful Story Portrayed Amid Majestic Surroundings.

The Cottage Grove Knights of Pythias had a pleasant journey and a safe return from Medford and Crater Lake last week. Most of them went by automobile and returned the same way. Upon their arrival at Medford they were taken care of by the local committee and steered to the lake. Camp was made under the hemlock grove above the hotel. After dinner Tuesday there was a concert by the Medford band. Then the story of Damon and Pythias was staged in a natural amphitheater, huge bonfires furnishing the light. A dance in the assembly room of the hotel with music by the band was greatly enjoyed.

Wednesday morning the rank team and the candidates were taken by launch to Wizard Island, where in the extinct crater, the grand lodge assembled and the initiation ceremonies were concluded. In the evening there was a farewell dance at the hotel, after speeches by officers of the grand lodge and visiting knights. Early Thursday the return trip began, a stop for lunch being made at Prospect.

In describing the surroundings Lev Cates of the Dallas Observer says in his paper: "Perhaps no lodge session was ever held in more awe-inspiring surroundings or on a more majestic spot; the crater of an extinct volcano, the great cauldron of a collapsed mountain now filled with the beautiful blue waters of the world's unique lake."

Fully three hundred Knights were held in the campment under giant hemlocks overlooking the lake and another hundred were sheltered in the picturesque lodge now rapidly nearing completion. A hundred automobiles were used in the transportation of the visitors and not a note of discord marred the harmony of the occasion. Through the enterprise of the Pythians, hundreds of persons viewed this wonderland of nature that would never otherwise have seen it and thousands have heard of it, who would never otherwise have noted it. For the first time the music of a brass band echoed among the majestic cliffs of Crater Lake and its melody floated over its mystic water as humanity kept pace to the measured beat of the waltz. For the first time a play was staged under the thousand-year old trees in the light of the blaze of fallen logs in an amphitheatre provided by nature. For the first time the rough unfinished rocks heard the solemn and inspiring words of the ritual based on human friendship. The first time should be no means be the last. The example of the Pythians should be followed by other lodges."

Those in attendance from Cottage Grove were Messrs. Vandenburg, Swengel, Wright, Simeral, C. W. Parker, Dr. Wall and Geo. Widdersheim.

Ex-President W. H. Taft, wife and daughter passed through Cottage Grove on the Shasta Limited at 8:17 Monday evening. They were on their way to San Francisco.

The O. P. & E. Railway is making repairs to the Wildwood bridge.

Last week The Leader stated that Rev. H. N. Aldrich was having his vacation. Such is not the case. His vacation will be taken later in the season. He was at Medford on business for a day or two last week.

Rosecoe Hemenway left Sunday for Portland, where he will remain to attend school.

MRS. VEATCH DIES

WAS SALEM RESIDENT FOR PAST FIFTY YEARS

Death of Daughter-in-Law in Seattle Saturday Brings Double Affliction to the Family.

A double death has occurred in the Veatch family, the passing of Mrs. J. P. Veatch, for fifty years a resident of Salem, closely following that of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Olivia M. Veatch, a former Salem woman, who died Saturday, while visiting in Seattle. Mrs. Veatch died yesterday at 2 p. m. at her late residence 828 Marion street, aged 73 years.

The funeral services of the elder Mrs. Veatch will be held from the parlors of Webb & Clough, Wednesday, at 3 p. m. Rev. F. T. Porter will officiate and burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Aleinda Lawrence Veatch was born in Boone County, Missouri, April 23, 1842, and moved with her parents to Davis County, Iowa, when about six years old. She was married to J. P. Veatch, who survives her, April 26, 1860, in Iowa and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1863, settling in La Grande, Union County. She moved to Salem in 1865, where she has remained ever since. She was a mother of nine children, two sons and seven daughters; two of the daughters, Mary and Myrtle, died in 1880. The surviving children are A. W. Veatch of Salem and J. W. Veatch of Boise, Idaho; the daughters are Mrs. Olive Owens and Mrs. Anna Pape of Portland, Mrs. Alice Wynne of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Carrie Tibbals of Port Casey, Wash., and Ethel Tummerneau of Salem. She leaves two brothers, W. N. and G. C. Lawrence of Portland, and four sisters, Miss Mary F. Lawrence and Mrs. Anna Hasking of Portland, Mrs. Belle Bray and Mrs. Ella Newman of California. She has passed nearly fifty years in Salem, where she was well and favorably known and her many friends will sincerely mourn her loss. She suffered a stroke of paralysis about six years ago, from which she never recovered and four weeks ago was taken with another stroke. In her last hour she was surrounded by her husband and children with the exception of John W. Veatch of Boise, Idaho, who was detained on account of the death of his wife, which occurred Saturday.

Olivia Masher Veatch, the beloved wife of John W. Veatch, formerly of this city, and now of Boise, Idaho, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jack West of Seattle, Saturday, August 21, 1915. Mrs. Veatch had been ill several weeks and accompanied by her daughter Leona was taken to her sister's home last Wednesday in hopes that the lower altitude would be of benefit to her.

Besides her husband, John W. Veatch, she leaves two daughters, Leona and Helen. The remains are enroute to Idaho for burial.—Salem Journal.

Mrs. J. P. Starr of Portland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Jones and family.

BOOZE MAY NOT BE SENT BY MAIL

In correcting a statement made by one of the Portland newspapers, Postmaster Fiske gives some information regarding unmailable articles, especially liquors, which may be of interest to the public. He refers particularly to the liquor establishment just across the California line, which purposes to serve Oregon customers with these beverages by mail. He says:

"Everyone should be made to understand that Uncle Sam does not allow liquor to ever enter the mails in any shape, as for the public to think otherwise will cost confusion and expense for nothing. While on this subject it might also be well to mention that misleading items have also frequently been published by the Portland papers as to shipments made by parcel post—such as stoves, furniture, live animals, etc. Stoves and furniture would be barred by their size, excluding 84 inches of combined girth, and nothing alive, except a queen bee, properly packed, can be mailed. The frequent stories of this or that being sent by mail, not conforming to regulations of weight and measurement, cause erroneous impressions to go out to possible shippers, and this is not for the good of the service. "I take it that, as a newspaper always endeavoring to provide the public with the truth only, you will desire to counteract wrong impressions, and correct, at least, the statement that our Oregon imbibers may, after January 1, get their booze by mail."

COURT TO LET TAXPAYERS DECIDE ON BRIDGE

The Oregon state highway commission will, as soon as possible, prepare estimates as to the cost of a wagon bridge across the Willamette river on the Lane-Linn County line at Harrisburg. On Thursday H. W. Libby, Lane County's engineer, met with Assistant State Engineer Sadler and Engineer Geddes of Linn County, to take measurements for the bridge, which will probably be erected within the next two years.

Mr. Libby said yesterday that the highway commission will make estimates of the cost of at least two types of steel bridge, on a concrete bridge, and on a wooden bridge. The measurements taken by the engineers show that the main structure would have to be 450 feet long, besides the two approaches, the one on the Harrisburg side being form 150 to 200 feet long, and the one on the Lane County side about 300 feet long, making a total of about 950 feet.

The type of concrete bridge upon which the state highway commission will figure the estimate is new, and according to Engineer Libby, there are only one or two in the whole country at the present time. Until the last year or two, it has been considered impossible to erect a bridge of this type of concrete.

The Lane County Court members say that they are willing to assist in the building of this bridge next year or the year after next, if the taxpayers of the county desire it. They say they will not act unless the people vote for such an appropriation in the annual budget. The members of the court admit that there is a big demand for the structure, but they have decided to let the taxpayers settle the matter.—Eugene Register.

There is an especially good program at this popular theatre for Saturday. This is a big four-reel story of capital and labor, and features the famous Florence Turner as a mill hand and the sole support of her invalid mother who tries to keep peace among her fellow workmen when their wages are reduced 15 per cent. Many thrilling mob scenes and much heart interest in this story.

Albert Griffin was up from Yoncolla over Saturday night.
