Late last week another small sized disaster occurred on the Mosby Creek spur of the Bohemia railroad. Two flat cars loaded with logs broke loose from the train and ran down grade both being derailed and considerably damaged.

We feel very grateful to our many friends for their kindly expressions and good words for the Lane County LEADER. New subscriptions are coming in rapidly and many of the old subscribers are renewing their subscriptions. The LEADER is rapidly forging ahead.

Mr. Doc Veatch, a brother of our esteemed townsmen, R. M. and H. C. Veatch, who was brought to this place recently for medical treatment is gradually sinking and all hope for his recovery has been abandoned. He is being tenderly cared for at the home of his nephew, R. W. Veatch.

Andrew Nelson has completed the work of installing an electric light plant in the big Booth-Kelly saw mill at Springfield and returned home. He says the company has a fine milling plant at that place. About 300 electric lights are used in illuminating the mill and yards.

F. W. Hahn, Land Immigration agent for U. P. R. and Southern lines, who is associated in business at Shennings, Wis., with Chas. Lea, a brother of our townsman, George Lea, will stop off in this city for a brief visit with the latter in the near future. Mr. Hahn is making a tour of the Coast States.

The Rev. John Dawson of Roseburg came up Monday for the usual services in connection with the Episcopal church. In the future all services will be on the Monday after the first and third Sundays with all fifth Sunday mornings. We will have services in Masonic hall on March 29th at 11 a. m.

J. W. Richardson, one of Lane county's honored pioneers, died at the family home at Franklin, on the Long Tom, Saturday, March 14, 1903. Mr. Richardson was born in 1837, crossing the plains to Oregon in 1846. He was married in 1857 to Miss Rebecca Cantrell. Nine children were born to them, five of whom are now living.

Billy Edwards has returned to the Grove from Row river where he has been spending a week with Bake Steward. He is becoming anxious to get into the Bohemia mines and resume development work in his promising property. He thinks weather conditions will be such that work can be resumed in the mines in two or three weeks.

Hon. J Henry Booth, receiver of the U S land office at Roseburg, was a passenger on Tuesday afternoon's train on his return to Roseburg from Eugene. We were pleased to learn that the injury to his eye for which he has been receiving treatment at a Portland hospital, is giving him no further trouble and that he is able to resume his official duties.

A G Knapp and family, late of South Dakota have rented the Dutton place in West Cottage Grove, where they will reside until Mr Knapp finds an investment either in town or the country. They are very favorably impressed with this part of Oregon. They are relatives of F P Phillips and family and we join with others in welcoming them to our city.

Lot S Dimmick an employe in Long & Bingham's mill in this city was quite seriously injured Monday. He was in the act of starting a pile of lumber over the dump in to the yard below when in some manner he was thrown or fell down the chute in front of the lumber some of which struck him in the back injuring him severely. He is still confined to his bed, but is improving.

Rev. John Dawson, pastor of the Episcopal church at Roseburg, made this city his regular semi monthly visit this week and favored this office with a pleasant call. He says that Roseburg people are confident of securing a big box factory and also a big fruit packing establishment this season whether they secure another railroad or not. The Pacific Timber Co., of Cottage Grove, is the promoter of the Roseburg box factory.

The city council would do our town a valuable service, and at the same time remove an unsightly and disagreeable, if not dangerous germ breeding cesspool, by providing drainage for the vacant lots in the center of Main street between the LEADER office and Wheeler & Phillips real estate office. Such unsightly places, especially in the heart of a town does not tend to give the visitor and new comer a very flattering impression of the town's pride and enterprise. Just why the street should be built up at this place without providing a tile, culvert or other drainage will always remain a deep, dark mystery.

PAY DAY AT THE MILL.

About $2000 Distributed Monday by Long & Bingham.

Monday was the regular monthly pay day at Long & Bingham's saw mill in this city and as usual about $2000 was distributed among the workmen in the mill and logging camps on this occasion. Though having been established only since last fall this enterprising company has already built up a good business here and have even more orders at hand from time to time than can be filled promptly with the present capacity of the mill, which is about 30,000 feet per day. During the past few weeks about fifty car loads of lumber has been shipped from this mill to California points, besides the local trade, the Southern Pacific railroad company extending this mill the same or similar special shipping rates as is given other like institutions along the S. P. lines in Oregon. So much has the business of this mill increased that the proprietors were recently compelled to install a small electric light plant in the mill to enable them to work both a day and night shift—the planer being operated principally at night. In a recent interview with Messrs Long & Bingham we were informed that a larger boiler and engine is among the improvements contemplated for this mill in the near future which when installed will give the mill a capacity of 50,000 feet per day.

These are the kind of institutions that benefit a town and country, from the fact that they give employment to many men, and raw material from which, in its natural state, no income whatever is derived, is manufactured into a merchantable product which finds a ready market at remunerative prices and through which channel outside money is brought into the community and distributed among the people. With a few more monthly payrolls like those of Long & Bingham and also the Pacific Timber Co., and Cottage Grove will take its place among the foremost Western Oregon towns.

G G Graham, of Bohemia, and I H Bingham of this city were transacting business at the county seat Tuesday.

Sam Ferguson has returned to the Grove from Prineville after five years absence. His father is farming near Prineville.

Mrs L F Orpud started to Myrtle Point via Roseburg Thursday afternoon to enjoy a few weeks visit with her sister, Mrs Laura E Lundy.

The Griffin & Veatch Co., have just received a car load of fine, Studebaker wagons. Farmers and teamsters in need of wagons will do well to call and see them and get prices.

The Cottage Grove band will soon purchase neat new uniforms and will then present an appearance equal to the excellence of its music. Cottage Grove can boast of one of the best bands in southwestern Oregon and should be proud of it.

Fred Sanders, who has been engaged in jewelry and watch repairing at Roseburg for some time past has accepted a position in H C Madsen jewelry store in this city. Mr. Sanders is a very genial and exemplary young man and a good workman. We welcome him to our city.

W. Harris, superintendent of the Black Butte cinnabar mines, was in town Saturday and favored this office with a pleasant business call. He says the mines is being prosecuted vigorously by a large force of men and that the management is decidedly well pleased with the prospects. The furnaces will probably be started up again as soon as spring fully opens. Mr. Harris has been in poor health for some time and for a few weeks, hoping the change and the mild climate to prove beneficial to his health.

D. C. Freeman, of the Portland Telegram, who has been working in Arizona and New Mexico, in the interests of the Lewis and Clarke expedition, made the LEADER a pleasant call while in this city the first of the week. He says Arizona appropriated about $10,000 for our exposition. Nevada's exhibit at the St. Louis fair will be kept in tact for the big Portland fair, and New Mexico will no doubt bring its St. Louis exhibits—rich in romantic, historic legends, to the big Oregon centennial. Mr. Freeman's mission was eminently successful.

Death of Grandma Jones.

Recently C H and Jas. Jones of this city received the sad intelligence of the death of their mother at her home near LaPlata, Missouri, and a local paper contained the following

OBITUARY.

"Sarah McGee was born in East Tenn., in the year 1810, Jan. 15th. Departed this life Feb. 25, 1903. She was married to Isaac W Jones July 1833, in Wayne County, Ky. Some time after they came to Missouri. Nine children were born to them, three sons and six daughters. Three daughters have passed over to the other shore. Grandma Jones was 93 years old. She was a member of the M E church, South, for over 68 years, and was always full of sunshine reflecting the light of Christ day by day. Her life has been a blessing to many homes, her friends can be counted by the hundred as she was widely known and to know her was to love her. Sister Jones was true to her church, her family and her God. Her funeral was preached by Rev. N. F. Mathews and her body was interred in the New Harmony Churchyard. 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.'"

Macy-Banzer Nuptials

PORTLAND, OREGON March 12, 1903.

TO THE LEADER:

One of the happiest social events of the season was the marriage in this city on Wednesday, evening March 11th, at 6 p. m. of Miss Emma E Banzer to Dr Ernest C Macy, a prominent dentist of Cottage Grove, Ore., at the house of the bride's sister Mrs A G Braider, 105 East 15th St.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms and streamers of Oregon grapes and ivy. The bride was beautiful in a lovely gown of white organdies and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Densa Banzer, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a dainty dress of pink albatross, and carried pink carnations. Mr. H. C. Banzer, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony, was pronounced ed by Rev. J. F. Ghormley, pastor of The First Christian Church, a delicious wedding dinner was served in the dining room, which was beautiful in streamers of ivy interspersed with daffodils. After dinner the happy couple took the evening train for Cottage Grove, where they will be at home after April 1st. Many valuable and useful presents were received from numerous friends. Only the immediate relatives and a few of the most intimate friends were in attendance at the wedding.

Mrs Macy—nee Miss Banzer—was a leader in the work of The First Christian Church of Portland, and her loving face and kindly words will be missed by all its members. She will prove a valuable addition to the church and society of Cottage Grove and will be greatly missed by her many friends in Portland.

YOURS TRULY
CURTIS ROBINSON.

The LEADER joins in extending this highly esteemed couple hearty congratulations and may health, happiness and prosperity attend them.
