

A SONNET OF SPRING

'Tis the fragrance of the flowers,
'Tis the early breath of June,
'Tis the brightness of the sunshine,
'Tis the silvery light of moon
All combined in KAS-PA-RILLA
In a manner that is sure,
If you take it when you're ailing,
To effect a speedy cure.

KAS-PA-RILLA

Oregon's Tribute of Health to the World

is a natural corrective of all derangements of the liver and an aid to perfect assimilation of food. Positively cures CONSTIPATION—the bane of modern civilization. Its effects, while lasting, are never pernicious, and unlike thousands of nostrums and vaunted cures, its continued use is never necessary, as it creates no habit.

RHEUMATISM in its acute form is quickly relieved by the use of KAS-PA-RILLA, eliminating at once from the blood and joints, toxic salts, which nature alone cannot excrete.

World's Fair medals have been awarded us at Buffalo, Omaha and Charleston. Our success has caused unscrupulous parties to imitate Kas-pa-rilla. Your druggist should have it, and if he does not supply you promptly, write us, giving his name.

MARRIED.

WRIGHT — MESSLER — At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Messler, at Roseburg, Oregon, Wednesday evening April 29, 1903, Mr. M. F. Wright and Miss Maude H. Messler.

Mr. Wright was local editor on the Plaindealer staff when that paper was under our management and is a very genial and exemplary young man. Miss Messler is the eldest daughter of J. H. Messler of Cottage Grove, but whose family still reside at Roseburg. She is a very charming and estimable young lady and is regarded in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. The happy couple will reside at Roseburg and the LEADER joins in extending congratulations and best wishes.

BISSELL — HAMBRICK — At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hambrick, April 29, 1903, by Rev. C. H. Wallace, Mr. William E. Bissell, of Dunsuir, California, and Miss Edna Hambrick, of Cottage Grove.

Thirty minutes before twelve o'clock on April 29th William E. Bissell placed a beautiful gold ring upon the third finger of Edna Hambrick's left hand and with an appropriate ceremony the happy couple were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock. The family home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and after the ceremony the family with a number of invited guests repaired to the dining room where the table was supplied with all the delicacies of the season and the sumptuous spread was enjoyed by all.

The bride and groom took passage on the evening train for Ashland for a brief visit which will be extended to Dunsuir and Sacramento as well as to Southern California points after which they will return to Ashland, their future home. Mr. Bissell is a well known and popular railroad man while the bride was raised in this community where she has a wide circle of friends who join the LEADER in extending congratulations.

A Young Lady In Drain

There was a young lady in Drain
Whose face grew exceedingly plain.
She tried paints and lotions
And all kinds of notions
To bring back her beauty again

"Till a friend who had been the same way
Happened to meet the young lady
One day.

Said she: "Fool no more
Here's a splendid drug store
And they do just whatever they say"

P. S. She took the advice. Just a week ago last Wednesday she came in; has had four proposals since, and is telling all her friends of the lovely lotions, powders and perfumes at the New Era Drug Store.

Local and Personal

Dr. Geo. Wall visited Portland briefly this week.

When a business man lets up on advertising, his business will let up on him.

F. E. Alley, the Roseburg abstractor and architect has a neat new ad in the LEADER.

W. B. Hawley, of Lorane, spent a few days at the county seat and in the Grove this week.

Miss Lena LaFore of Salem is in the city spending a week with her sisters, Miss Pearl and Mrs. Edna Abrams.

Johnny Kirk, the genial Dorena postmaster, was transacting business in town Tuesday and favored the LEADER with a pleasant call.

We would feel very grateful to the mining men and miners if they will send in the mining news frequently or bring such news to the LEADER.

Among those who visited the county seat this week to look after business matters from this place were: Chas. Cochran, Attorney Young, Alfred Johnson.

Hamilton Veatch and Dave Sears, two prominent citizens of the Creswell neighborhood were transacting business and greeting friends at this place Saturday.

More fine weather for the builders and carpenters to do outside work. Every portion of the city has its hammers and saws singing in pleasant industrial harmony.

No merchant would give an order to a shoddy or ragged salesman. Your stationery is your salesman. See that it represents you well. Get it printed at the LEADER office.

Miss Celia Lureh returned home late last week from San Francisco where she has been enjoying several months visit. Her many friends are glad to welcome her home again.

Robt. Griffin is building a neat cottage for his son-in-law, Jas. Potts on the five acre tract which Mr. Potts recently purchased of Wm. Landess at the foot of the hill east of town.

J. V. Thornton, the popular confectionery dealer whose place is headquarters for the celebrated registered Hazelwood ice cream, has a neat new ad in this issue of the LEADER. Read it.

Be sure to send the LEADER, after reading it, to some friend in the East or elsewhere. It will save you the trouble of writing, and besides, will help to advertise the town. Don't forget this.

Capt. and Mrs. Ben D. Boswell have returned to Boswell Springs after a winter's sojourn in Southern California. The springs will soon be opened to the public for the season, and a very popular resort they are becoming.

Geo. McQueen, the genial clerk in Eakle & Bristow's general merchandise store, is enjoying a pleasant two months vacation after a long period of service behind the counter. Geo. spent last week on the old farm home near Lorane.

In view of the fact that there were nearly one hundred applications for the office of state game warden, backed by invincible petitions, the appointment of J. W. Baker, of Cottage Grove, is a great victory—for Baker.—Albany Democrat.

Ben Pitcher, of Star, who has been having a severe tussel with the measles spent a few days in town late last week. Ben says considerable activity is being revived in Bohemia and the upper Row River valley with the advent of spring.

"The Willamette Valley Choral Union will hold their annual Festival at Eugene May 12th to 14th. Tickets at reduced rates from all points on the Oregon Lines of the Southern Pacific Co., will be sold May 11th to 14th inclusive, return limit May 15th, 1903."

John W. Baker went to Salem Monday to look after business connected with his late appointment as State Game and Forestry Warden. He was accompanied by his wife as far as Eugene where she went to enjoy a brief visit with her grandmother, who is quite aged.

H. H. Hazleton sold his residence property to J. E. Norin yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Hazleton will soon go to Alturas for the summer where Mr. Hazleton has a long job for E. Laver & Sons. Mr. Hazleton and wife contemplate a sojourn in Southern California next winter.—Lakeview Herald.

Jas. Redford, one of the prosperous farmers of near Dorena, was in town Friday transacting business and favored this office with a cash subscription. Mr. Redford has a good proposition for some good saw mill man—over 300 acres of good timber and a mill site only a few miles from a railroad.

Alex Chamber and family arrived at this place last week from Nebraska and will make this vicinity their future home. They are relatives of E. F. Smith and will be followed to this place by a number of their Nebraska neighbors and friends this fall. They have come to a good country and a good place.

Johnny Culp, the LEADER's bustling solicitor, went to the Blackbutte cinchona mines this week in the interest of the paper and on his return home is canvassing the Coast Fork valley for the paper. He reports flattering success and says he hears nothing but good words for the "Lane County LEADER."

John Wilson, of Woodburn, and daughter, Miss Katy, who is teaching in the Eugene high school, spent Sunday at this place in attendance at the funeral service over the remains of their nephew and cousin, Samuel Bennett. Mrs. McFarland, a sister of Mrs. Bennett, late of Iowa, was also in attendance at the funeral.

If you want to see something nice go to see the Pedalis shoe, with patent shoe lace pocket. A classic shoe, artistic and comfortable. McKay's turns and waits at $2.75 and $3.00 at Lewis & Veitch's.

Senator Mitchell has sent a sack full of seeds from Washington to the LEADER. Each large package contains a package of corn, lettuce, radish, beet, watermelon, parsnip and tomato seed. If persons who can use these seeds to advantage will call at the LEADER office, a package will be given to each person until all are distributed.

Rev. I. M. Boyles, of Woodburn, has accepted a call to be pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Cottage Grove. Mr. Boyles and family arrived in this city late last week and he took up his new charge at once. Mr. Boyles comes to Cottage Grove highly recommended as an earnest worker in the cause of Christianity, and the LEADER extends the reverent gentleman and his estimable family a hearty welcome.

J. W. Trunnell who resides on a farm south of this place was in town Saturday with a fine lot of wine plant an improvement on the rhuubarb plant, which he sold very readily at a very remunerative price. We observe that the rhuubarb or pie-plant seems to be in its natural element hereabouts, the local markets being supplied with as fine a product of this kind as can be produced in California or any other country. Of course Mr. Trunnell had his name enrolled on the LEADER's subscription book before leaving town.

Conductor R. E. Veatch has been chosen by the Roseburg trainmen's lodge as a delegate to the national conductors convention which meets at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania this month. All delegates are allowed a remunerative mileage on the trip both ways. This convention meets but once in two years and it is quite a distinguished honor to attend this great assembly as a delegate. Al informs us that he expects to be accompanied by his wife and little daughter on the trip and there is no doubt but what they will enjoy the journey across the continent very much. Al expects to have about a month's leave of absence for his convention and sight seeing trip.

Rev. I. M. Boyles and family left yesterday for Cottage Grove, where he has accepted a call to be pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of that city. Their many friends here, while sorry to lose them, wish them well in their new home. Rev. Mr. Boyles is an earnest worker in the cause of Christ, and with his family has the highest esteem of the citizens of Woodburn. Miss Maggie Boyles, who is clerking for G. H. Beebe, will remain in this city.—Woodburn Independent.

"Breaking His Bonds" tonight at the opera house.

Many new ads this week. Read them. It will pay you.

Miss Annie Underwood is at a Portland hospital receiving medical treatment.

Don't fail to see the drama, "Breaking His Bond" at the opera house tonight.

John Sloan of Eugene was in this vicinity the first of the week with two of his fine stallions.

Clint Branstetter and family of Junction is spending the week visiting with relatives and friends in this city and vicinity.

W. P. Elmore, the prohibition candidate for congressman, will speak at the C. P. church in this city Wednesday evening, May 6.

S. F. Jackson, of Coyote precinct, was in town Tuesday visiting his mother who is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Miller.

G. O. McGilvray, of Shaw, Oregon, has leased the Ed Long residence east of the depot and is finishing it up with a view of bringing his family here to reside at an early date. He may become associated in the lumber business with Long & Bingham.

W. W. Elder, the new commandant of the Soldiers Home, at Roseburg, spent several days in town last week and the early part of this week the guest of his old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hust. Mr. Elder made the LEADER a pleasant call and we found him a very genial, affable and entertaining gentleman.

The contract for delivering the telephone poles for the new telephone line from Lorane to Cottage Grove was completed Wednesday morning, and a force of men have the poles all set about two-thirds of the distance. Lorane will very soon be within "Hello" distance of the outside world.

R. W. Veatch enjoyed his annual spring diversion of capturing rattlesnakes last week. He visited the rocky bluffs on the Sears mountain northeast of town and succeeded in bagging five of these venomous musical reptiles. When accosted by the LEADER man on his return as to his success, he gave the pocket of his hunting coat a brush with his hand and immediately a hair-raising jingle and hissing was set up by the imprisoned reptiles, which Bob had caged in strong paper bags. He now has a cage of these denizens of the rock-ribbed hills on exhibition at his home.

Reams at Cottage Grove.
A. E. Reams, Democratic congressional candidate, will deliver an address, in this city this Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, on the issues of the Congressional campaign.

Big Hotel Project.
Two Portland men visited this place recently and entered into negotiations with Messrs Long & Bingham for two or three lots cornering on Main street and the O & S E railroad grounds nearly opposite the S. P. depot. They announced that they had in contemplation the erection of a modern three story hotel building on the site selected, and that both the building and grounds would be made up-to-date in every particular. While the site was selected and the plans of the parties were exploited no deal was consummated, the parties returning to Portland with a promise to return later and carry their enterprise to a successful conclusion. They stated to a LEADER reporter that the opportune time was at hand for the establishment of such a hostelry at this place.

HENRY J. DAY LOCATED.
A letter to Eugene parties from H. W. Stewart, who has been sojourning in Sacramento gives out the information that he met Henry J. Day, the defaulting deputy sheriff of this county face to face in that city recently.

While acting as deputy under Sheriff Withers about three years ago, Day suddenly disappeared, leaving a shortage of over $2000 in his accounts, and this is the first information received of him.

Parents, Take Warning.
The undersigned desire to call attention of parents who have boys to the fact that a number of boys, ranging in age from 7 to 15 years, have a habit of climbing on and off trains while in motion, thereby greatly endangering their lives; there being a city ordinance which prohibits this, all persons hereafter who have no business on such trains will be prosecuted when caught engaging in this practice.

Very Truly,
D. T. Awnney
Agent.

Card of Thanks.
The undersigned desire to express their heartfelt thank for the kindness, favors and assistance extended them by their neighbors and many friends during the illness, death and burial of their son, Samuel. These many expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness will ever be cherished in our memories.
