

A SONNET OF SPRING

The fragrance of the flowers,
The early breath of June,
The brightness of the sunshine,
The silvery light of moon
Combined in KAS-PA-RILLA
In a manner that is sure,
You take it when you're ailing,
Effect a speedy cure.

KAS-PA-RILLA

Dr. J. C. Morgan's Tribute of Health to the World

Natural corrector of all derangements of the liver and an aid to perfect assimilation of food. Positively cures CONSTIPATION—the bane of modern civilization. Its effects, while lasting, never produce, and unlike thousands of nostrums and vaunted cure-alls, continued use is never necessary, as it does no harm.

HEMIPLEGIA in its acute form is quickly relieved by the use of KAS-PA-RILLA, eliminating at once from the system the poisons which cause paralysis. It should have it, and if it does not cure you promptly, write us, giving his name.

To Improve Opera House.

Messrs. Ernest & Nichols who have leased the opera house of Messrs. Martin last week will lengthen, but not greatly increase the size of the stage, supply it with new scenery and curtains, put in chairs and otherwise improve the house. They have put in a very large and well stocked stand, including tobacco, confectionery and soft drinks on one side of the entrance which was opened for business this week. They will endeavor to make some good theatrical company to visit this place during the coming season and are already booking some splendid attractions. The management of the opera house will endeavor to encourage entertainments and amusements both local and transient.

Big Time at Lorane.

The local camp of Modern Woodmen of America turned out 35 strong Wednesday evening with four-horse and three two horse teams and went to Lorane to assist the initiation of eight new members. About twenty members from the local camp were also present and the time was had—a regular picnic—one of the greatest in the history of Lorane Camp. The evening continued all night the visitors returning about seven o'clock Thursday morning, all speaking in the highest praise of the hospitality of their Siuslaw brethren.

Basket Social.

There will be a basket social at the opera house, on the evening of Decoration day. A splendid musical program will be rendered. Phonograph record taken by the M. A. band and reproduced. All ladies are invited and requested to come and bring baskets which will be sold to the highest bidder. Admission is free.

DIED.

ANNETT—At Creswell, Saturday morning, May 23, 1903, G. W. Bennett, aged 77 years. Deceased recently came to Ore. from the east. He leaves a wife, three sons and a daughter. Funeral services were held Sunday 2 p. m. with interment in Creswell cemetery.

A Young Lady In Drain

There was a young lady in Drain
Whose face grew exceedingly plain.
She tried paints and lotions
And all kinds of notions
To bring back her beauty again
Till a friend, who had been the same way
Happened to meet the young lady one day.
Said she: "Fool no more
Here's a splendid Drug Store
And they do just whatever they say!"

P. S. She took the advice. Just a week ago last Wednesday she came in, had four proposals since, and is telling all her friends of the lovely lotions, powders and perfumes at the New Era Drug Store.

The lumber and timbers for the new county bridge across the river at this place is being placed on the ground. N. B. Alley of Eugene was awarded the contract, but county bridge builder Striker will have charge of the work which will commence next week.

W. H. Lincoln, president of the Lane County Veterans Association, went to Eugene Saturday to call his committee together to arrange for the annual meeting of the association commencing Tuesday June 16th and continuing three days. Mr. Lincoln expects to attend 300 or 400 of the old comrades to attend the annual meeting this year, which will be the fifth annual convention of the association.

E. C. Conner has purchased the 150 acre ranch of P. Mitter on the hill about one mile due north of this city. It is a very fertile place and an ideal fruit, poultry and stock farm. Ed will take charge of the place August 1st, when he expects to have a new two story residence completed on the premises, which is otherwise well improved. He will look down on the other "hayseeds" hereabouts when he takes possession of his mountain view ranch.

Work is progressing on the dam above the Warehouse for supplying power for the big electric plant of the Oregon Securities Company. Power will be generated at this plant to operate the company's big 60 stamp mill in the champion basin some eight miles above. Work on the big tunnel to give the Music mines an outlet to the mill in Champion basin is progressing at both ends and the saw mill plant of the company will soon be ready for operation.

T. O. Gray, his wife, three daughters, three sons and a nephew, arrived in this state lately and after looking over Western Oregon thoroughly, spending three weeks at Roseburg, finally selected Cottage Grove as their permanent Western home. The eldest son has accepted a position as clerk in a Grants Pass bank, and the other members of the family will take some vacation here. We extend Mr. Gray and his estimable family a hearty welcome to our city.

Get Out and Vote.

Monday is the day for expressing your choice for Congressman. The opera house will be the polling place for east Cottage Grove and the polls for the west side will be located in the Masonic hall. The judges and clerks who served at the last general election will serve at this special election. Let every loyal American citizen exercise his sovereign right, get out to the polls and vote at least once during the day.

His oven is entirely inadequate for his growing patronage, and he has already purchased the necessary irons and other material for the building of an oven 10x12 feet, and work on same will begin as soon as the brick can be had.

Hamilton Veatch and wife of Creswell spent Sunday at the home of the former's uncle, Lafayette Veatch, who is seriously ill at his home near this city. Hamilton is farming on quite a large and diversified scale this season, having large potato and corn fields in connection with his hay and grain crops, all of which, he reports looking fine.

T. O. Gray who recently arrived here from Tennessee, left Saturday with his family for Cottage Grove, to reside. Mrs. Rolly Ramp and little daughter left Sunday morning for Cottage Grove to spend a month with relatives. Mrs. W. W. Thackrah will leave this week for a few weeks outing at the Thackrah ranch near Cottage Grove.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

At Roseburg Sunday C. S. Jackson's team defeated a nine from Springfield by a score of 14 to 4. Fred Westbrook officiated as umpire. The Springfield team recently tied the Eugene League team in a hotly contested game at Eugene. The "Outlaws" thus continue to maintain their unbroken record of victories. It has been suggested that they endeavor to arrange games with one or more of the league teams.

Henry Steward of Comstock was in town Tuesday looking after business matters. With his family he lately returned home from a very enjoyable visit with his wife's father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Stratford in Southern California. Henry has resigned as postmaster and station agent at Comstock after a 16 years service in the latter capacity, and will go to Pendleton soon to reside and engage in business with Frank Scott, who has also lately resigned his position with the S. P. company which he has held many years at Creswell and elsewhere.

John Kirk, the genial Dorena postmaster and store keeper, was in town Wednesday transacting business and favored the LEADER office with a pleasant call and cash in the sum of a year's subscription to this popular fireside companion. Johnnie says the former LEADER editor, L. F. Woolley and his lumber company are beginning to get things in shape for installing their saw mill plant two miles above that place. A side track is being put in near Dorena where the company will establish their planer, drier and lumber yards and will flume the lumber from the mill to their depot.

The free illustrated lecture given by Rev. Howard Osborne under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, A. O. U. W. at the opera house Tuesday evening was largely attended and highly enjoyed by all present. The vocal baritone solos, "Asleep in the Deep," and "The Holy City," which were illustrated, were exceedingly well rendered by the reverend gentleman. The stereopticon views were excellent and the lecture on fraternalism by Ralph Feeney, past grand master of the Ancient Order of United Workmen was interesting, logical and convincing. He proved the old reliable A. O. U. W. to be the safest, surest and best of all the fraternal beneficiary orders, its assessments averaging but from nine to ten a year and there cannot be more than twelve. Mr. Feeney will remain in Cottage Grove a few days and will organize an A. O. U. W. lodge here, and all those desiring good, safe, fraternal insurance will do well to get in on the charter list.

Hand Mashed.

Frank Pickett, conductor on one of the work trains on the Bohemia railroad, met with an accident out to the front Friday that came near costing him his good right hand.

While in the act of coupling up his train his hand was caught in the old fashioned link and pin coupling and cut open the entire length of the palm and was considerably crushed and bruised. He came to town in the evening in company with V. C. London and had the wound dressed by Dr. Job and only lost one day as a result of his injury, but considerably pluck was required to resume work so soon after the accident.

Hugh Behne, after about five months absence in the East on business connected with his Bohemia mining interests, returned home Sunday night. Mr. Behne sojourned all through the New England states and spent considerable time in New York City. He visited the state of Kentucky and while there became associated with his old friend, P. J. Jennings in a 4000 acre coal field where Mr. Jennings now has a force of men at work developing their newly acquired coal fields which are showing up well. Good paying mines are being worked all around this property and three veins of coal have already been uncovered by Mr. Jennings, one 5 feet in thickness of uniform quality; the second, strong coking, from 5 to 6 feet thick and the third, good steam coal 4 feet in thickness. This property is in Mohlenberg county and only four miles from a railroad. Mr. Behne is highly pleased with the promising reports from Bohemia and will continue operations in this district. His numerous friends are glad to welcome him back to his old rendezvous after his long absence.

W. W. Jackson, of Colorado Springs, a brother of S. F. Jackson, of near Lorane, arrived at this place recently and is enjoying a visit with his brother and with his aged mother, the latter residing in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Veatch received a letter this week from their son, Conductor R. E. Veatch, who with his wife and little daughter went to Pittsburg, Penn., recently as a delegate to the National convention of railroad conductors. Al reports a great time at Pittsburg, from which place they went to Washington, D. C. and visited the Capitol and grounds, which he reports as magnificent at this season of the year. From Washington they will go to Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and returning westward will visit all the prominent cities leisurely, in order to realize the greatest degree of pleasure from their trip from ocean to ocean. It is a trip rarely afforded to a Lane County boy.

A large number of Eugene people came up to the Grove Thursday evening to attend the Eastern Star reception to Grand Patron Darwin Bristow. L. M. Travis and a Mr. Brown were among the visitors who favored the LEADER with a pleasant call.

Dr. Oglesby has sold his residence and office building to Dr. Parks the new doctor. Dr. Oglesby expects to move to Cottage Grove about June 1st. He has large mining interests in Bohemia and will devote most of his time to their development. He is president of the Golden Slipper Mining Co.—Junction Times.

Jim Dumps had scarcely slept a wink,
All night he'd toss about and think.
But that's all past—he'll ne'er endure
Insomnia. He's found a cure!
Tis "Force." At night, when lights are dim,
It soothes the nerves of "Sunny Jim."
