

A SONNET OF SPRING

The fragrance of the flowers,
The early breath of June
The brightness of the sunshine,
The silvery light of moon
All combined in KAS-PA-RILLA
In a manner that is sure,
If you take it when you're ailing,
To effect a speedy cure.

KAS-PA-RILLA

Region's Tribute of Health to the World
A natural corrective of all derangements of the liver and an aid to perfect assimilation of food. Positively cures CONSTIPATION—the bane of modern civilization. Its effects, while lasting, are never pernicious, and unlike thousands of nostrums and vaunted cure-alls, continued use is never necessary, as it gives no habit.
HEPATICISM in its acute form is quickly relieved by the use of KAS-PA-RILLA, eliminating at once from the system and joints, toxic salts, which nature cannot excrete.
World's Fair medals have been awarded at Buffalo, Omaha and Charleston, to imitate Kas-pa-rilla. Your drug-store should have it, and if he does not, write you promptly, write us, giving his name.

Obituary.

Wm. Cole was born in Green county, Virginia, Oct. 26, 1819, and died June 22, 1903. He professed religion in the Christian church in Astoria and was fully prepared to go to the final summons. He was a pioneer in the Row valley in pioneer times. Two children, Joe Cole and Margaret, and a number of grand and great-grand children mourn their loss. Uncle John was one of those unassuming, generous hearted gentlemen, whose friends are many and whose enemies are few. Funeral services were conducted at Stewart home by Rev. C. H. Madsen June 24th.

DIED.

At the family home in Perkins addition to Cottage Grove, July 1, 1903, Mrs. Geo. H. Young, of consumption, aged 41 years and 10 months.
Elizabeth Ann Ashby was born in Boone county, Missouri, in November, 1861. She was married to Geo. H. Young in the same county state in 1880. They came to Astoria to reside about a year and a half ago. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashby, who reside in this city, and besides a father, mother and husband, she leaves two sons and a daughter, four sisters and two brothers, and numerous friends to mourn their sad loss. She was of a kind and gentle disposition, a faithful wife and a loving mother. Her funeral service was conducted at the Christian church Thursday by Rev. J. S. McCallum of Eugene. The bereaved family and other relatives will receive the heartfelt sympathy of all.
Everything is now in readiness to begin work on C. H. Wallace's brick yard just north of town and brick making will probably commence Monday. The plant will turn out 50,000 brick per week and a total of 200,000 will be burned and delivered in this city in August. The kiln will be used principally in the fine new two story brick store building to be erected on the corner Main and 4th street, opposite Garman and Hemenway's store. Messrs. Jones, Wheeler and Phillips. The new brick will be 10 feet and modern in its construction.

Have you seen those fine diamonds H. C. Madsen's.

The C. M. A. band has contracted to play at Eugene the Fourth for $100. It is worth every cent of it.
Miss Ethel LaRaut left Saturday morning on the overland for Medford to enjoy a few days vacation.
Best cabinet photos, $1.25 per doz. for a short time only, at Shanafelt's gallery opposite Masonic Hall, West side.
We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the tenth annual regatta to be held at Astoria on August 19, 20 and 21.
The local W. O. W. lunch counter and refreshment stand cleared up $110 for the Heppner sufferers during the carnival.
Kaysner, the auctioneer, can sell anything from a jack-knife to a threshing machine or a township of real-estate. Try him.
It has been announced that all of the carnival queens of the valley will be entertained free of charge at the regatta at Astoria Aug 19 to 21.
This is the time, of course, to begin sounding the annual warning against the Fourth of July toy pistol and giant firecracker, but what is the use?
Miss Nellie Comer and Len M. Tucker were married at the home of J. B. Lewis in Cottage Grove, June 21. Rev. H. W. Babeock, officiating.
Mrs. Ed. Long and little daughter came down from Roseburg Monday and are enjoying a pleasant visit with Mr. Long's parents in this city.
Miss Anna Oglesby returned home from Junction City Tuesday where she attended the annual picnic occasion at that place. She reports a very enjoyable time.
Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested. "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.
Miss Ethel Wooley, of the LEADER force, attended the Roseburg carnival Saturday. She reports the company that visited this place superior to the Roseburg aggregation.
A good many Cottage Grove people will attend the celebration at Oregon Mineral Springs, 3 miles south of town, some will go to Eugene and others will take to the woods.
What would people say if a man should have his pants made a foot or so too long and then went about holding them up? This is no reflection on the ladies. What they do is all right.
For sale, or will trade for desirable ranch property, one of the best hotel properties in this section of State. Business now in flourishing condition and is paying Good Reason for selling. For further particulars apply at the LEADER office.
The complaint filed against Mrs. Will Perman by a Junction City party last week charging her with the larceny of a ring, was promptly dismissed for want of evidence after a hearing of the case Monday. Attorney J. S. Medley, of this city appeared for the defendant, Mrs. Perman.
Arnold's carnival company is said to have spent about $300 or $400 more at this place than its total receipts amounted to, notwithstanding the fact that the shows were well patronized. There is not enough people here to support such a large aggregation.
The attention of business men who are disposed to complain about the advertising rates charged by the local papers here is called to the rates charged by both the weekly Register and Guard at Eugene: Display ads 75 cents per inch per month. Locals 10 cents per line each insertion. The LEADER's rates are 40 cents per inch per month for display ads and 5 cents per line for locals each insertion.
R. A. Booth, and Floyd Booth who arrived here last week from Eugene, and W. A. Booth, of Prineville, who had been here some time before accompanied by W. H. Shirk, agent for the Road Company, left here this week and will look over the extensive real estate holdings of the Booth-Kelley Company in this part of the state, and which were formerly owned by the C. O. Land Company. Lakeview Herald.
Conductor Sam Veatch, wife and daughter, Lillian, of Portland, have been enjoying a brief vacation visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Veatch, and numerous other relatives and friends at this place during the past week. Sam has been continuously in the employ of the Southern Pacific company, since 1881, and in point of service is one of the oldest conductors on the Company's Oregon lines. The family is very kindly remembered by a host of warm friends at this place.
Coffee drinkers should call at Burkholder & Hemenway's store and sample that elegant new coffee, the M. J. B. brand, now being demonstrated or served at that place by Mrs. Kildore, who is introducing this excellent brand of Coffee for M. J. Brandenstein & Co., San Francisco. This brand of Coffee is put up in 40 and 75 cent tins, and its flavor and richness is unexcelled.

C. H. Small, the baker, has severed his relations with Parkers bakery in this city and is succeeded by Alex Moresky, a first class baker from Portland. Some very fine cakes were turned out at this bakery Tuesday for the I. O. O. F. banquet at Creswell following the organization of the new I. O. O. F. lodge Wednesday evening.
Wm. Ryles, an esteemed pioneer settler of Benton county was visiting with friends in this vicinity this week including our esteemed pioneer townsmen, H. C. Veatch, Mr. Ryles crossed the plains in 1853, being a member of the Sam R. Knox company or train. Mr. Knox settled near Cottage Grove the Harding farm being the site of his homestead, and has many descendants in this community.
That Landlord Courts of the Imperial hotel understands his business from a tizzard was very well exemplified a few days ago when his Chinese cook got on a high horse and skipped the tra-la-loo. Good cooks are an article that's hard to get in these days of prosperity, and seeing no other way out of an unpleasant condition of affairs, Mr. Courts donned an apron and one of those paper sack caps peculiar to "the man behind flap-jack turner," with the result that the patrons of the Imperial are faring sumptuously.
G. G. Warner, the Bohemia mining man, came down Friday evening to look after business matters for a day or two. He reports more activity there this season than last. Considerable road building is also in progress.
Lee Thompson, who has been employed in the Bohemia district for some time, was in town today. He reports a large amount of work being done there this season, in the way of road building, tunneling, etc.—Roseburg Review.

Wm. Edwards came down from Bohemia Monday where he has been putting in some two or three months active development work on his Peck-a-boo mining property. Billie says the property is showing up better all the time and he says the same encouraging reports come from all of the other properties of this promising mining district. He says there will be a big influx into the camp during the present and next month, and that more outside capital is seeking investment in this camp this season than ever before.
F. J. Hard, principal owner of the celebrated Vesuvius mines in Bohemia, was joined by his family at this place Tuesday evening, and proceeded at once by private conveyance up to the mines where they will spend the summer. The family was accompanied by W. B. Fisher and wife, who will have charge of the Camp. Mr. Hard also met Wm. B. Root, a Denver capitalist and a mining expert of many years experience who contemplates investing in the Bohemia district. Mr. Root accompanied Mr. Hard and family to the mines.
Mrs. W. S. Bennett and son, Willie accompanied by Mrs. Bennett's sister Mrs. McFarland and son went to Clark county, Washington, Tuesday to visit with Mr. Bennett's brother Henry Bennett, and Elisha Wright, an uncle of Mrs. Bennett. Mrs. Bennett was a guest at the wedding of her niece, Miss Kate Bennett and Benjamin Barr, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bennett, Wednesday. Miss Bennett attended school at this place and is well tended favorably known here. Her many friends here join in extending congratulations and wish her a happy and prosperous wedded life.

LEADERS IN MERCHANDISING

Ladies and gents fine watches at Madsen's. Call and see them.
Work is progressing with an increased force on the O. & S. E. railroad and trains are now running out to the Red bridge while construction work is progressing beyond that point. A fine large new Willamette Donkey engine was received by the company this week which will be used in clearing their right-of-way and logging and will greatly expedite construction work. Good progress is also being made on the wagon road from Warehouse to Champion basin.
Mrs. D. E. Fields has purchased the lot and building adjoining the Opera House now occupied as an assay office and will immediately replace the small building with a commodious two story store building in which she will install her news and book store. Mrs. Fields will have the second story fitted up for living rooms and will move her household goods therein in order to be more convenient to her rapidly increasing business. She will rent her cottage on Bridge Street.
Scott Chrisman, Ben Lurch, Jas. Jennings, Frank McIntire and R. W. Veatch who went to Portland as witnesses in the Ware, McKinley timber land case last week returned home Saturday morning. Horace McKinley and Marie Ware were placed under $2000 bonds each to appear before the U. S. grand jury in October.

Great Men and Great Pianos.

President Roosevelt has just bought a fine Knabe piano, and the late vice-president Hobart has at his residence a fine NEEDHAM, such as we are selling every day, right here at the Grove, and since the good judgement of Roosevelt we have secured the agency for the Knabe and the J. & C. Fischer. These three all world-renowned pianos, of the highest standard. We have also in transit a lot of those medium pianos for which the people are paying all the way from $275.00 to 300.00 and even more. We are going to offer the same grade for $150.00, $175.00 and $200.00. These figures will surprise those who have been buying those so-called high-grade pianos. Besides this lot we will have the genuine CABLE piano and not the Hobert M. Cable. It will pay you to see this line before buying a piano. RICHARDSON MUSIC HOUSE, Roseburg and Cottage Grove, Ore.
