

A WISE PERSON

Like a mirror, always reflects. When you feel the need of anything in the line of medicines, reflect and give us the benefit of the reflection

We have in stock everything that a first class drug store ought to have, and we couldn't make our prices any lower for first class goods, and we will not keep any other kind

We are "down to date" in our prescription department. Our drugs are pure and fresh, absolutely. Your doctor won't be disappointed in results if his prescriptions are filled at Congressman Hermann Here.

Congressman-elect Binger Hermann and wife, accompanied by their grand-daughter, little Miss Miller, arrived at this place Thursday afternoon to enjoy a brief visit with relatives and their many friends. Responding to an earnest request submitted by Mr. Hermann, we note that Secretary Root has just wired that he has apportioned $10,000 as an emergency aid for removing the great shoal established in the Coos bay harbor entrance. Mr. Hermann seems to possess, even in a greater degree, his old faculty for "doing things" for his state.

Delicate Surgical Operation.

Mrs. C. A. Hubbard of this city, submitted to a very delicate surgical operation Monday, which was most successful in every particular, the patient rallying promptly from the anesthesia and now being on the road to speedy recovery. The operation in the medical profession is known as hysterotomy, and this difficult operation was most successfully performed by Dr. Geo. Wall, of this city, assisted by Dr. B. R. Job of Cottage Grove and Drs. Barker of Yoncalla.
This operation is one rarely attempted and successfully performed outside of the large hospitals and the success of this case reflects much credit upon Dr. Wall and his assistants for their skill in surgery.

Smelter Men Here.

C. D. Williams and M. Blanchard, operators of the Improved Mineral Smelter, are spending a few days in this city. T. K. Richardson is also interested in this new smelter with these people. Features claimed for this smelter is that it burns coal instead of coke and consumes all of its smoke and foul gases.
M. O. Warner, of Eugene, accompanied by J. D. Hurd, a capitalist from Oro Grande, Cal., left for Bohemia Wednesday to select a site for a smelter which they expect to establish there by next season at least.
This will be a valuable acquisition to the Bohemia mines.

Jas. Jeffries and Jas. Corbett will meet it to each other at San Francisco tonight, Friday. Ring experts predict that Jeffries will retain the championship.

John Cochran and family went up to the Booth, Kelly Mill No. 1, above Saginaw Tuesday to spend a week picking wild blackberries, which are very plentiful in that vicinity. He was taken into the camp by E. C. Conner.

Tom postoffice.

A new game called Christianity is becoming quite popular with young folks. It takes two people to play the game, a boy and a girl. The girl gets on one side, she is the Christian; the boy gets on the other side, he is the Heathen. Then the Heathen embraces Christianity. It is a nice game; try it.

W. H. Hamersly, of Benton County, arrived in this city Tuesday with a view to locating here permanently. Mr. Hamersly is a first class candy manufacturer, having formerly been proprietor of Roseburg's popular candy kitchen. He will endeavor to purchase one of the confectionery stores in this city and manufacture candy for both the retail and wholesale trade.

W. S. Williams and family who have resided in Cottage Grove for some time past left for Springfield Monday to reside. Of Mr. Williams bakery deal at that place the Springfield News says: On Sunday Mr. Huntley received a letter from Mr. Williams stating that he would not accept the terms agreed upon and forfeited the advance money. He will engage in some other line of business.

Last Sunday morning the new bicycle ordinance went into effect and bicycles are now prohibited from the sidewalks of Main, River, Wall, Bridge and Fifth streets. The bicyclists have only themselves to blame for this action on the part of the council, as their rapid and reckless riding on these streets with, in many cases, a total disregard for the rights, and safety of pedestrians rendered the passage of this bicycle ordinance imperative.

Ira Conner has purchased the H. B.
Yancey place adjoining the Harding farm on the South and has also purchased Mr. Yancey's homestead northeast of this city, arrived at this place from San Diego, California, Tuesday after an absence of several years, where he has been sojourning in an endeavor to regain his health. His many friends here are pleased to note his hale and hearty appearance, he having evidently been greatly benefitted by Southern California's balmy and invigorating climate. Mr. Harding will remain here indefinitely and personally look after his large property interests. The LEADER was favorably impressed with a pleasant call from Mr. Harding Tuesday afternoon.

in the S. P. Co.'s railroad offices at Roseburg, was shaking hands with his many Cottage Grove friends Thursday. He informed the LEADER man that he was gratified to see his old home town forging ahead at such rapid strides.

Jas. Price of Spokane, purchased a 60 foot front business lot of Jas. Henderson McFarland on Main street near the bridge this week for $1600.
Mr. Price will soon erect a commodious business house on this lot, but whether a brick or frame building he has not yet determined.

OFFICE BOY WANTED.—A bright, industrious boy, ambitious and anxious for a business education, can get a position in the Pacific Timber Company's

The Lorane Creamery has suspended operations while the busy season for the farmers is on. The plant will resume its work in the fall. The enterprise so far has been a success and the management realized quite a demand for their product. The last consignment for the present reached this city Tuesday and as usual was first-class.

Ben Jackson, Ernest Sears and Ira Conner have returned home from Newport. They were held up and robbed by the Village Squire at Junction, but upon assuring the Squire and that they "needed the money" and that he was "mistaken in his men," the booty was promptly refunded.
The trio and the Squire promise to meet again soon and be weighed in the balance of Justice. Ten to one the squire will be found wanting.

G. C. Miller of Walla Walla, representing the Medford cigar factory, was a passenger on Wednesday afternoon's train to Medford. He was joined by his wife and family, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents here, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Veatch, and they will spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Miller's brother, Conductor Al Veatch and wife, at Roseburg. On their return to their Walla Walla home they will stop over at Cottage Grove a few days.

D. W. Harding, owner of the big Harding farm a short distance north-

As a result of the action of the city council in passing a Sunday closing law last week, Cottage Grove last Sunday was a closed town, everything of a business nature being suspended with the exception of one cigar store, that of O. O. McClellan, which is understood to have kept open for the purpose of making a test of the recently enacted ordinance. There is no doubt but what many a throat asked the mouth, "whats the matter up there, is there a drought?" on this occasion.

The following obituary, reprinted from an exchange, could be used on the occasion of the death of more than one resident of these United States: "Bill Skinner is dead.
Everybody knew Bill. For years he had bumped around working a little when his wife's health was such that she could not support the family, and became the father of children who will be of little use to the world if there is anything in heredity. Bill will be gladly missed by people who had to keep lying to him about being short of change when he wanted to borrow money."

SLAUGHTER SALE OF SUMMER GOODS

The cold, rainy, backward season has to a considerable extent retarded the sales on summer wash goods, and we find our stock too large for mid-summer, hence we have concluded to reduce the stock if a general slaughter of prices will do the business. To this end we have reduced all lawns, dimities, etc. from 10 to 50 per cent from former prices. In this great reduction sale is also included a large line of wrappers :

Just to Make Things Lively we have again cut prices on the remaining shirt waists, which make many of them sell for less than half the former price. Come in and
