

DEFEATED FOOTBALL PLAYERS

who are elected to adjourn to the rear and assume a sitting posture can find balm for their feelings and liniments, embrocations, plasters, iodiform gauze, splints and other remedies and surgical applications for more fleshy wounds at the

The Modern Pharmacy

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between J. C. Long and I. H. Bingham under the firm name of Long & Bingham Lumber Company, has been dissolved this day by mutual consent, J. C. Long retiring. All unliquidated accounts are now due and payable at the office of the old firm.

In witness whereof we have set our hands and seals at Cottage Grove, Oregon, this 3rd day of October 1903.

J. C. LONG.
I. H. BINGHAM.

Did You Know?

That everyone who tries Kennedy's Chain Lightning for rheumatism, neuralgia, diarrhoea and all other pains or inflammations, will see no other liniment, for the reason it gives instant relief and affords a speedy cure. Ask your druggist for Kennedy's Chain Lightning. Take no other. Write F. L. Kennedy, Saginaw, Oregon, for his testimonials. For sale by all druggists.

Married.

In the city of Portland, Oct. 28, 1903, at 3 p. m., Rev. W. B. Hollingshead officiating, Mr. F. G. Eby, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Tola Shull, of Portland.

The groom is the well known attorney who located in Cottage Grove in May, 1900, and who is associated with Attorney J. C. Johnson in the practice of their profession. The Leader joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for their future.

Notice to creditors—All those knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once, as I am in need of all the money that is due me.
PHILIP HOHL.

Word comes from Marcola that a young man by the name of John Thompson who has been residing on the Kelly place on the Mohawk, hanged himself Tuesday while despondent. An inquest was held Wednesday.

Local News

A Pen Sketch of Events Occurring in Cottage Grove and Vicinity:

Smile once in a while,
'Twill make your heart seem lighter,
Smile once in a while,
'Twill make your pathway brighter,
Life's a mirrow, if we smile—
Smiles come back to greet us;
If we're frowning all the while
Frowns forever meet us.

The Leader leads.

Fine wall paper at Benson's pharmacy.

Fresh home made candies at the Wave.

The Leader for fine job work—we print anything.

Choice cream candies and bonbons at the Pearl Confectionery.

Latest styles in wall paper just received at Benson's pharmacy.

Ladies and gents fine catches at Madsen's. Call and see them.

Fate Long returned from a brief business trip to Roseburg Wednesday morning.

Lowney's bonbons and chocolates are the best ever. To be had at the Modern Pharmacy.

Mrs. Sarah Cochran went to Pendleton, Friday to spend the winter with relatives and friends.

If you can't afford to buy, then rent the late and popular books from Mrs. Fields at 25c per week.

Don't be eternally scolding the children. If you do they will hate you. Govern them with love.

Groceries purchased of us will be delivered promptly and free of charge by our own delivery wagon. Pearce & Johnson.

Have Dr. Lowe cure your head and eyeache by removing the cause with a pair of his superior glasses. They are the best by all tests.

Mrs. R. W. Veatch came up from Eugene Monday to spend a few days in town visiting with friends and looking after property interests.

All the late, popular books can be had at the Book Store of Mrs. Fields. Any of the high price books will be rented at rate of 25c per week.

See Dr. Lowe about your eyes the first day he is here if possible, to avoid the rush of his last day's stay. He will not be here again this year.

Miss Nina Ostrander returned to her Cottage Grove home Monday from Eugene, where she has been holding a position in a local telegraph office.

The football game Saturday at Rose Park between the Roseburg High School and the Drain Normal teams was won by the former, 11 to 0.

Bran, $1.10; shorts, $1.20 per 100 lbs; lower rates in ton or half ton lots. 'Phone us your order. Free, prompt delivery. Cottage Grove Flour mills.

Pearce & Johnson, the Grocers, have put on a special delivery wagon of their own and goods purchased of them will be delivered anywhere about town free and promptly.

J. M. Medley and daughter, Mrs. C. F. Littlefield, arrived in this city Monday from Eugene to visit the bedside of their daughter and sister, Mrs. W. L. Wallace, who died at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning of consumption.

Mrs. John Bartels and little daughter returned home from Eugene Tuesday where they went as witnesses against Jim Bunn, the scoundrel who attempted to assault the little girl last Saturday in this city.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday noon, the 16th, 17th and 18th, Dr. Lowe, the oculic optician of Eugene, will be in Cottage Grove, at the Graham hotel. Don't forget the dates. Last trip this year. Consultation free.

John Haskell, the Lorane-Cottage Grove mail carrier lost a valuable horse last Monday by having one of its hind legs broken, being viciously kicked by its stall mate. The injury was such that the animal had to be shot.

Harry Brohaut, the genial druggist returned home Monday from a business trip to Portland. It is said Harry saw a sign reading "For Men Only, Ten Cents." He paid the price and went in, and found on a table a pair of trousers and a vest.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby who accompanied Mrs. Jas. H. Barrett to Portland last week to undergo a delicate operation at a Portland hospital, reports that the operation was entirely successful and that his patient is getting along as well as could be expected.

Ross Sharp has sold his house and lot on Wall street in the new McFarland addition to Dudley Gibson who with his family will soon arrive at this place to reside from Corvallis. Mr. Sharp and wife will go to San Francisco where Mr. Sharp will re-enter the S. P. car shops.

"This commercial struggle is terrible," said Dave Griggs, of the Modern pharmacy, the other day. "What's the trouble? we inquired. "Oh, the patent food people are trying to make everyone so healthy that there will be no one left for the patent medicine people to cure."

Robt. A. Osbourne, a representative of the Eugene Daily Guard, spent a few days in this city and the Bohemia mines early this week in the interest of his paper. The Leader was favored with a fraternal call Tuesday and we found Mr. Osbourne a very affable and enterprising gentleman and a thorough newspaper man.

The Sunset Magazine is full of fascinating features of the wonderful west, beautifully illustrated; $1 per year—10c a copy. A free sample copy to all requesting. Sunset wants a subscription representative in every city and town. To those who will give all or a portion of their time it offers attractive work and pays exceedingly liberal commissions. It will pay you to investigate. A postal card will bring particulars. Write at once so as to be particular in your field. Sunset Magazine, 4 Montgomery St. San Francisco

Pay your subscription.

Read Jas. S. Benson's new ad.

Oyster cocktails made to order at the Wave.

Don't fail to read the new half page ad of Eakin & Bristow in the Leader today.

The late heavy rain brought snow to the foothills and plenty of wet in the valley.

Hardie Crow of Lorane, has some very fine winter pears, apples and quinces on exhibition at this office.

F. B. Phillips has the carpenters at work on a very neat cottage on his lots just back of B. L. Pickard's residence.

J. C. Long, Attorney J. C. Johnson, D. A. Mosby and J. W. Harms were among the Cottage Grove visitors at Eugene this week on circuit court and other business.

The Leader is receiving many new subscribers nowadays. It will be the aim of the management to deserve them by printing the best paper this field will support.

The Coquille Bulletin roasts the business men of Coquille for their failure to support the band. Myrtle Point business men recently subscribed $50 per month for the support of the Myrtle Point band.

The McCoy Brothers of Silk Creek, have purchased a new five horse power gasoline engine to supply power for their wood saw. This engine will be less expensive and easier to handle on side hills than a steam engine, we are informed.

Claude Medley of Pendleton, was in attendance at the funeral services over the remains of his sister, Mrs. W. L. Wallace Wednesday and will spend a few days here visiting relatives and friends.

D. E. Slagle of Silk Creek sold 27 head of fine Angora goats to John Harms this week. The price paid was something like $5 per head, and we are informed that the goats were purchased for Mr. Harms' brother, who resides near Goshen.

Lulu Smith's barn on the old Kelly place in the outskirts of Springfield was burned to the ground Monday. The barn was a total loss and three horses were burned to death besides wagons, farming implements, a large amount of hay, etc., destroyed. Loss $1500.

Next Sunday morning at the Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. George H. Fees, will preach the fourth of a series of sermons upon the Lord's Prayer. Subject: "Thy will be done in Earth as in Heaven." The subject for the evening Sermon: Andrew, the Alert Introducer.

George McQueen has purchased the large unfinished residence of Bert Willard and the lot it occupies opposite J. H. McFarland's residence in West Cottage Grove, and has a force of carpenters at work finishing the building, which, when completed, will be one of the most convenient and commodious houses in that part of town.

To relieve the muscular strain of the eye, that saves the vigor of the rest of the body, use Dr. Lowe's superior glasses. He puts the cream of over seventeen years' experience into them. They are intended for more than the aiding of vision. Do not procrastinate in the matter of having your eyes examined; delays are dangerous. Sight is priceless. Consultation free.

G. W. Chisholm, of Indian Territory, but late of Roseburg, arrived in this city lately with his wife and has decided to locate here permanently, having rented the Canfield place in Gowayville for a period of four years. Mr. and Mrs. Canfield will go east to visit with relatives and friends and will attend the St. Louis world's fair before returning home. Mr. Chisholm will engage quite extensively in strawberry and raspberry culture as well as gardening and will cultivate an acre or more of onions. He will, no doubt, make this sort of farming pay well.

Edmund Vance Cook, the noted poet and lecturer, delighted a large crowd at the opera house last Saturday night in his famous lecture "Pot Luck With a Poet." He is a wonderful impersonator and has an ease and grace of speech and appearance on the lecture platform that readily captivates his hearers. This was the first of a series of lectures to be given at this place this season under the auspices of the public school. Prof. Hawley of Williamette University, the evening of Nov. 29, will deliver the second of the lecture series.

Fred Gale, who recently sold out his harness business at this place to J. W. Clark & Son of Winlock, Wash. took his departure Tuesday for San Francisco, where he will remain a few weeks after which time he will go to the Southern part of the State to spend the winter. Messrs. Clark and Wm. Hart, the carpenter, at work enlarging their new quarters and they will no doubt build up a good business here.

W. H. Bowman and family arrived at this place from Jefferson and have purchased of J. W. Gowdy a house and lot on Wall street adjoining the residence property of Frank Rosenberg. Mr. Bowman has lumber on the ground to be used in making extensive improvements on the premises which have been considerably neglected. We join in extending this estimable family a cordial welcome to our city.

Articles of incorporation have just been filed at San Francisco to build capital stock of $1,000,000 to build 131 miles of railroad from Grant's Pass to Crescent City, thence down the coast to Eureka to connect with the coast road to San Francisco.

Eggs 35 cents per dozen; chickens averaging $1 a dozen—there is more money in poultry raising than in an average gold mine—try it.

HOLIDAY GOODS

We are the leaders in Merchandising in Cottage Grove, and we now have our store chuck full of the best goods ever offered in Lane county. We have always had the finest display of Holiday Goods in town, and this year we have tried to make it better than ever. We want you to come in and see for yourself. We know we can please you with both the goods and prices :

Garman, Hemenway Co.

LEADERS IN MERCHANDISING

Irwin Lea arrived at this place Monday from the Hawaiian Islands where he has been for the past year, the greater portion of which time he has been employed as a government chemist in the large sugar refineries about Honolulu. Lately he was offered a larger salary to take the position of chemist and superintendent of a large sugar plantation seven miles out of Honolulu, which he accepted. He was sent on a trip to the Louisiana sugar refineries in the interest of his company and took advantage of his opportunity to stop off at his old Cottage Grove home to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lea and many old friends. He left on his trip to New Orleans Tuesday night and may stop off here again briefly on his return to Hawaii.

Sidewalk to the Cemetery.

The soliciting committee spent a day about town this week securing pledges to the cemetery sidewalk fund and met with well merited success, the personal subscriptions now aggregating $160 and the canyas is not yet complete, nor has the Masonic, Oddfellows and other lodges been heard from and they are expected to contribute liberally to this worthy cause. It is estimated that at least $375 will be required to complete a five foot sidewalk to the cemetery. The subscription list will be published next week.

benson's pharmacy

wall paper wall paper

new patterns this week

Careful attention given to our prescription work : a complete line of pure drugs : paints, oils, druggists sundries : successor to j. p. currin

McKibbin Hats

None Better Made
See your Hatter

No Argument Necessary

The selling powers of the McKibbin hats talk for themselves

Style, Quality and Price

The three things to consider in selecting a hat are combined here

Hemenway A N D Burkholder

Going at Cost

For the next 20 days we will sell a fine line of youths and boys

Ready Made CLOTHING

at actual cost. Rare bargains for those who call early. Values in boots, shoes and gents furnishings. Also carry a fine fresh stock of which we bought right and can sell right. Country produce bought and sold. You always get your money's worth at

FAMILY GROCERIES

The Cash Grocery Co. Phone MAIN 25

The Wireless Telegram

A MESSAGE OF GOOD CHEER TO THE PEOPLE

We have just received a large installment of fall and winter dress goods and waistics at prices ranging from 15c to $2.50 Per Y rd

We have also received our first shipment of ladies skirts, waists, wraps, and a full line of Misses Skirts. These goods are being displayed as fast as possible and it will pay those desiring goods of the latest styles to call on us while the stock is complete

We carry the largest line of carpets, rugs, lace curtains, dress goods, trimmings, cloaks, skirts, waists and dry goods of any house in the city and we guarantee our prices as low or lower than any house in the county. Remember the latch string always hangs on the outside of the door at

LURCH'S STORE

Laughlin Fountain Pen

IS THE PEER OF ALL PENS AND HAS NO EQUAL ANYWHERE.
FINEST GRADE 14K. GOLD PEN

YOUR CHOICE OF THESE TWO POPULAR STYLES FOR ONLY

$1.00

SUPERIOR TO OTHER MAKES AT $3

The Laughlin Fountain Pen Holder is made of finest quality hard rubber, is fitted with highest grade, large size, 14k. gold pen, of any desired flexibility, and has the only perfect feeding device known. Either style, richly gold mounted, for presentation purposes, $1.50 extra. Surely you will not be able to secure anything at three times the price that will give such continuous pleasure and service.

For Sale by

NEW ERA DRUG STORE