Miss Leslie Newcomb has been engaged as teacher for the Silk Creek school. Miss Newcomb is a very successful and competent teacher, and we predict that the Silk creek school will make good progress under her instructions.

Wilbur McFarland informs us that a measles time has been experienced at his farm home lately, his wife, baby and little daughter having all been afflicted with the measles at the same time. They are all on the road to speedy recovery now, we are glad to learn.

The grand ball given at the opera house last Friday evening under the auspices of the Royal Neighbors of America, ladies auxiliary to the M. W. A. was well attended and proved a very enjoyable occasion. Music was furnished by the fine M. W. A. Orchestra, Andrew Nelson, director.

Miss Ada Hanson of Eugene, has opened an elegant line of spring millinery in the building recently occupied by Welch & Woods, which has been newly remodeled and refitted for her convenience. Ladies do not miss her grand spring opening, next Tuesday and Wednesday. Next door to the Modern Pharmacy.

Mr. J. E. Wheeler formerly in business here and father of F. D. Wheeler left for the east Tuesday where he goes in the interest of a large land company at Winnipeg, Canada. He has made a host of friends at this place during his residence here who regret his decision to take up his residence elsewhere.

E. West, who resides a short distance east of this city has two photographs which he prizes highly. They are original photographs of the present King and Queen of England, taken before their marriage, and the king's father. They were taken from life by photographer Mayall, at 224 Regent street, London, and are well preserved.

Mrs. P. D. Knowlton went to Albany last Friday to visit over Sunday with her son, Luke Knowlton and wife. Mrs. Knowlton says one of the highest windstorms prevailed at Albany Saturday that has visited that section in years, which was followed by a heavy rain and some snow. Luke is now station agent and operator in the S. E. depot at that place, and is getting along nicely.

Supt. C. C. Mathews of the Oregon Securities Co., who returned to this city from New York last week has been confined to his room several days this week with a severe cold which threatened to develop into pneumonia. He was sufficiently recovered to be able to go to Eugene Wednesday, thence to Portland to meet President G. B. Hengen, of the Oregon Securities Co. who was due to arrive at Portland Wednesday from New York City. These gentlemen will personally superintend the resumption of operations in the Champion Basin Mines, Bohemia, just as soon as the weather will permit.

The Misses Newland's will have a complete line of Ladies, Misses and Children's dress hats on display Wednesday, March 30.

The LEADER editor went to Eugene today to attend the good roads convention and organization of a good roads association.

Elbert Veatch went to Grants Pass Monday to spend a few days with his sister and will then go to Ashland to remain indefinitely.

For your general blacksmithing go to J. H. Baker the only bald-headed blacksmith in town; shop at the rear of Burkholder & Hemenway store.

Frank Henderson and wife have purchased the sitely lots of Attorney A. H. King in the McFarland addition and will build a modern cottage thereon as soon as spring opens.

R. W. Veatch and family returned to this city Tuesday, from Eugene to reside and will occupy their home on Wall street. Their many friends are pleased to welcome them back to their old home.

The statement published by the state press to the effect that Dr. W. W. Oglesby had purchased the Gardiner Gazette which paper would hereafter be conducted by his daughter, Miss Anna, is without foundation.

A man who prefers the city weekly to a home paper because "it's got more in it," reminds us of a man who picked out the largest pair of boots in the box because they cost no more than a pair that fitted him.

Here we are again on the threshold of spring and it seems but a few weeks since we were busy getting ready for winter. The older we get, the swifter time flies it seems.

Hon. Jas. Hemenway, the merchant spent a few days at the county seat this week transacting business. He says there is evidence at the county seat that a political campaign is approaching.

An irate subscriber has written to the editor demanding that his paper be stopped. He exclaimed, "that he has not received a copy of it for two years and he doesn't propose to pay for anything he doesn't get."

Mr. Geo. Thompson of N. Dakota, purchased through the agency of Phillips & Wheeler, The Imperial Hotel belonging to E. Lureh also the new dwelling belonging to Phillips & Wheeler in McFarland's addition last week.

An unusually heavy ocean gale dashed over the low coast range of mountains and swept down the Willamette valley Saturday, demolishing fences, and racking old sheds and barns, also playing havoc with telephone and telegraph wires. No damage resulted in this vicinity.

Harry Lea and wife of Tomah, Wisconsin, are enjoying a pleasant visit with the former's brother, Geo. Lea, in this city, having recently visited many points of interest in California. Mr. Lea has long taken interest in making a collection of Indian relics and has a magnificent collection of Indian bead work with him which is the admiration of all who see it.

Jas. H. Hawley has returned to his farm home south of this city from California much earlier than he intended to owing to the severe March weather, which is very hard on his stock. Like a number of other stockmen his supply of hay has been exhausted and he is compelled to put in a new supply at a fancy figure. Mrs. Hawley and family remained in Calif.

Dr. A. W. Kine of Bandon, Coos Co. Oregon, has been here visiting relatives and friends the past week. He has also been looking up a location, and is very favorably impressed with Cottage Grove. He left for his home Thursday to make arrangements for the return of his family. The doctor comes highly recommended. The LEADER was favored with a pleasant call from an old Coos county friend.

The revival meetings conducted by Capt. Branson at the M. E. church for the past two and a half weeks have been very well attended and considerable interest has been manifested. Several conversions have been made and a number of wanderers have returned to the fold. The Captain is a very earnest, able and interesting speaker and is doing a good work. The meeting will probably close Sunday evening.

Charles Cochran, who became a member of the orchestra of a large opera company late last summer and toured the United States last fall, at the close of which tour he went to Chicago to receive a course of instructions under a prominent Cornetist, returned home Wednesday. He was met at the depot by the C. M. A. band in uniform, which musical organization was long under his efficient direction, its splendid record and its present excellence being practically the outcome of his efficient instructions, supplemented by the late good work of director, H. R. Berry. Many of the old friends of Mr. Cochran were also at the depot to welcome on his home coming, where his career as a cornetist and band director is carefully watched. His many friends are pleased to note his rapid advancement and all join the LEADER in extending him a hearty welcome home.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE,
 Orator, Entre Nous Club.
 176 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.
 For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.
Cecelia Stowe
 Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

P&B Roofing
 for hot weather
 There is no way you can roof a building to withstand hot weather so practically, economically or easily as to cover it with P. & B. Ready Roofing.
 P. & B. Ready Roofing never cracks nor runs—heat does not bother it any more than it hurts asbestos. P. & B. Ready Roofing won't warp, cringe or curl, heat cannot go through it and warm up the interior, for P. & B. Ready Roofing is a non-conductor.
 Anyone can lay P. & B. Ready Roofing, as it is very simple and quickly done, and it lasts longer than the building it covers. Send for booklet.
