REPORT ON BOHEMIA.

(Concluded from first page)

oping a group of rich claims. On the Vesuvius over a mile of tunnels have been drilled. The ore is oxidized to a depth of 350 feet, and the quantity is said to be unlimited and enough is blocked out to run for years. On another claim there is 1,600 feet of tunneling on a lode of copper ore, which carries from 5 to 26 per cent copper and gold. Mr. Hard is now in the east to secure a large plant adapted for the economical treatment of all characters of ores found on the claims and to take steps for extensive development on all the properties.

PROSPECTIVELY GOOD CLAIMS.

Among the claims that have been prospected and have great bodies of ore in sight are the Great Northern, White Iron, Black Bear, Utopian Group, Eugene, Gettysburg, Monmouth, Salvador, Florence, White Bear, Fallen Stump, Hiawatha, Annie group, Golden Rule group, Sweepstake, LeRoy, Glenwood, Nemo, Fairview, Sunrise, Golden Rule, Grizzly, Mountain Lion, El Calado, Transvaal, Homestead, Red Cross, Venus, Yellow Jacket, Sunset, Cracker Jack and Elephant.

BUCK YEAR AHEAD.

This year is, however, the real beginning of the production of the camp. The completion of the railroad affords facilities for getting in supplies and machinery, and for shipping out ore and concentrates. The Bohemia will be a great factor in the mineral output of the state and stimulate commercial prosperity in many ways throughout western Oregon and in Portland.—Portland Sunday Journal.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

to be chosen to attend the republican county convention Saturday April 9. Organization was effected by the selection of Col. W. H. Blair as chairman and C. J. Howard for secretary. Chairman Blair appointed Jas. Hemenway and H. B. Yancey as tellers and the election of delegates proceeded by ballot, the printed ticket being the only one in evidence, was elected by majorities ranging from 40 to 65. After the slated ticket was declared elected, the delegates were "instructed" to vote for I. H. Bingham for representative, and the meeting adjourned.

The following named delegates were chosen, C. H. Burkholder, John Barker, W. W. Chrisman, C. J. Howard, W. H. Blair, Jas. Hemenway, Wm. Lundess, C. H. Vandenberg and A. L. Briggs.

No fault is to be found whatever with the men who were selected as delegates on the slated ticket, but simply the method employed in making up the ticket, and right here it may be stated that there is not, nor has there been, any opposition in the republican camp to I. H. Bingham of this city for the nomination for representative, but where the friction all came about was a disposition on the part of a certain element to select and slate a delegation from this precinct to the county convention, and thereby ferret out certain prominent local members of the party and set themselves up as political managers or dictators. When the primary convened it was too late for opposition, which had been suppressed all along by the false assurance on the part of the "powers that be" that the names of members of both factions appeared on the slated ticket and not until the ticket was sprung in the convention was it known to be otherwise. This kind of political jugglery may flourish for a time, but it is sure to meet the frown of public and party condemnation in the end and its adherents be relegated to a remote corner in the political bonnyard where the thistle and briar berry flourish. The sentiment for honest politics may become somewhat dormant at times but may all ways be depended upon to assert itself when trickery and ring methods become predominant in a political party.

MINING ACTIVITY.

Much Work Being Done on the Fairview Property.

Bohemia district is assuming activity incident to the Summer season," said C. A. Harlow, who was in Portland lately. Mr Harlow is heavily interested in the North Fairview, besides having several other good properties in the district, but his attention is mostly directed to developing the North Fairview, which is controlled by Eugene people. He said: "The North Fairview has double shifts working driving the tunnel on the freemilling ledge, which shows a width of from 10 to 60 feet, carrying average values of $7.50 per ton in free gold across its entire width where it is crosscut. Besides this ledge, we have several ledges carrying base ores, such as lead sulphides and copper pyrites, with high values in gold. This ore can be shipped as soon as the roads are in condition, as values will run from $500 to $600 per ton. We propose to erect a ten-stamp mill with a concentrating plant on the property this season, as there is sufficient work done to warrant a proper supply of ore for such a step. There is 800 feet of tunneling and drifting on the ledges thus far discovered.

"The lead and copper ores, instead of being in the oxide form, are easily treated by a concentrator and will make a very high-grade product. Plenty of timber and water are at hand for all necessary mining purposes and the property lies between the LeRoy and Crystal and the Oregon Securities property.

"The district is noted for its large, quick ledges, and wherever any amount of development work is done, a good quality of ore is encountered.

Many new faces are in evidence in the district, and prospectors are going into that section by the dozens. The snow is rapidly disappearing from the hills and the smoke of the prospector is visible everywhere. Geo. Graham has just secured control of a group of claims which he begin active development on. The property is situated on Noonday Ridge, and shows good ore. Freight hauling has begun in earnest and the roads are in fairly good condition.

We will have daily mail before many weeks pass, and that will facilitate business to a marked degree.

LIVELY CITY ELECTION

lots were taken which resulted in the re-election of H. E. Underwood. The vote up to the eight ballot stood, Underwood 3, Martin 2, Ostrander 1, necessary to elect 4. Some little surprise was created about town by the selection on account of the high salaried man being elected, H. E. Underwood putting in his bid at $60 per month, and Robt. Martin, the present night-watch, $50. However, the matter rests entirely with the council, the mayor having no voice in the selection, their being no tie. The sewer bonds carried by a vote of 283 to 80.

The retiring mayor and other members of the council are to be complimented upon the efficient services rendered the city during their administrations, it being a well established fact that universal satisfaction in such official positions is an "unheard of quantity."

The newly installed officers are intelligent enterprising public spirited tax payers of the city in whom the people may safely repose confidence, as it is a matter of fact that their own personal interests will prompt them to give the city as conservative, economical and business-like administration as is possible, in consideration of the fact that contemplated progressive improvements the most important and necessary, being the construction of sewerage, will incur the outlay of a large sum. Here's congratulations and wishes for a successful administration for Mayor Medley and his council.

Lake County Heard From.

State politics this year center on the nomination of republican candidates for congress. The fight in the two representative districts is warming up in good shape. The republican aspirants in the first district for congressional honors have raised their flags ready for battle in which several prominent candidates are in the field. The candidates mentioned at this time for the republican nomination are L. T. Harris, speaker of the house of representatives, who resides in Lane county; State Senator Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City; Congressman Binger Hermann of Roseburg, and other prominent men are mentioned for the place. But at the present time Harris seems to be the strongest candidate and he is warmly supported by a majority of the republican papers of the district. If all reports are true he will win the nomination with hands down.—Silver Lake Central Oregonian.

An Errenous Report.

A report is being circulated about Cottage Grove, it appears, to the effect that Miss Ada Hanson, who is displaying an elegant stock of millinery in the building on main street formerly occupied by Welch & Woods, is only here to remain a few weeks. This report Miss Hanson brands as absolutely false and states that she is endeavoring to build up a permanent business here and is decidedly well pleased with the liberal patronage accorded her by the ladies of Cottage Grove since she came here and she hopes to continue to merit and receive this liberal patronage.

It Pays to Advertise.

Billy Jones wrote on the blackboard "Billy Jones can hug the girls better than any boy in school." The teacher seeing it, called him up. "William, did you write that?" "Yes ma'am," said Billy. "Well you can stay after school," said she. After school the children wanted for Billy to come out, when they began to gush him. "Got a lickin, didn't ye?" "Nope," said Billy. "Get jawed?" "Nope." "What did she do?" they asked. "Slau't tell," said Billy. "But it pays to advertise."
