VOLUME SIXTEEN

With this issue the LEADER turns its sixteenth milestone. The paper during the past year, under the present management, has met with unprecedented success. Its subscription list has been more than doubled, while its advertising and job printing patronage has increased at a similar ratio. We have endeavored to give our patrons and the town a good local paper, striving at all times to encourage every legitimate enterprise, promote the development of our great natural resources—the mining and timber industries, and aid in the upbuilding and advancement of our prosperous, and rapidly growing town. We have endeavored to merit the liberal patronage extended the paper and will continue in our efforts to give full value for whatsoever patronage is accorded the paper. In the future the LEADER will keep pace with the growth and advancement of the town and tributary country as it has in the past, and will endeavor to maintain its reputation for independence and fairness, and will pursue the same liberal policy which has characterized the paper under the present management. In conclusion we thank one and all who have contributed to the support of the LEADER during the past year and solicit a continuance of this liberal patronage.

The Lane county democrats met at Eugene last Saturday and nominated a county ticket, the proceedings of which convention is published in full in the LEADER today. This ticket seems to meet with the approval of the democrats throughout this part of the county and as far as the LEADER is able to ascertain is composed of good competent men. The socialist convention was also held at Eugene last Saturday, a report of which will be found in this issue of the LEADER.

It is related that a local member of the famous Second Oregon on arriving in Manila was stationed with his company at a nearby fort. At that time it was the custom to fire a gun at sunset. "An what's that?" inquired he, upon hearing its report for his first time. "Why! that is sunset" was the reply. "Sunset, the devil. An does the sun go down with such a bang as that in this God forsaken country?" was his reckless retort.

Four tickets are now in the field in this county, the Republican, Democratic, Socialist and Prohibitionist. This should afford every legal voter an opportunity to express his sentiments at the polls in June.

The LEADER is today presenting its readers with a fine relief map of the Russian-Japanese war territory, which will no doubt be cut out of the paper and reserved for reference during this great war, by our subscribers.

Placing your first advertisement is like laying the first foundation stone to a building—it is the beginning of what may terminate in a great enterprise.

A Bohemia miner claims that he recently saw a five foot snake swallowing another snake nearly equal its own size. Ah, the curse of strong drink!

The trouble with modern politics is that a two-dollar bill will go much farther towards changing some men's political views than sound argument,

Some people advance an idea that the souls of men progress even after death. If they didn't it would seem useless for some men to die.

It requires money to build good roads and good streets and it requires money to maintain them, but they are worth the expense.

Not only have Japanese women adopted the European costumes, but some even wear trousers.

Every time you help to improve your own town you help your own business just that much.

The newspaper man will be a pretty good fellow among the candidates until after election.

Red Men Hold Pow-wow.

On the 18th inst., G. M. Orton, Great Sachem, of the Order of the Red Men, arrived in the hunting grounds of Cottage Grove, on an official visit to Calapooia Tribe No. 26. The Braves responded to the call and at the 8th, ran assembled at their Wigwams and received their Great Chief, after spending 3 runs of long talk and pow-wow, with the Great Chief who emplified the work of Red-men-ship, the Tribe adjourned to Willson's Restaurant where they all partook of the good things that is pleasing to the inner man. After bidding their Great Chief a fond farewell. The Braves returned to their own Tepee's feeling glad that they had had the pleasure of meeting the Great Sachem.

A Literary and Musical Treat.

Mr. R. W. Kelsey of Newberg, winner of the National Prohibition Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest at Chicago in June, 1900, accompanied by W. Eugene Knox, the inimitable impersonator, and supported in song by Messrs. Howard L. Hockett and Emmet A. Newby will hold a meeting at the M. E. church on Friday April 29th, at 8 p. m. The object of the meeting will be to stir up sentiment in favor of Prohibition and especially the proposed local option law.

Every person interested in temperance work is cordially invited to be present. Boys and girls under 15 should be accompanied by parents or some adult person who will be responsible for their conduct.

For prosecuting attorney, second district—L. M. Travis, of Eugene.

Delegates to the national convention were chosen as follows:

Committee Meeting.

Cottage Grove, Ore. Apr. 18, 1904.

Persuant to call by President Eakin,

the following members of the Advisory Committee of the Oregon Cooperative Association met at the appointed place of meeting to talk over the affairs of the Association, and to attend to such business as might be necessary to be taken up at that time. T. K. Campbell, H. O.

Thompson, A. B. Wood, C. H. Burk-

holder and B. Lurch. Meeting was called to order by Vice-President T. K. Campbell. Secretary reported satisfactory progress in the matter of signatures to petitions

as well as having received many congratulatory letters from similar organizations throughout the state.

Many invitations were reported on file coming from other towns

throughout the valley, asking the Association to set a time when a committee could be present to outline

plans of organization, with the assurance that the movement would be taken up and pushed vigorously.

After discussion, it was deemed advisable to call a special meeting of the Association to meet at Martins Hall, on Tuesday evening, Apr.

26, at 8 o'clock, to take up all matters calculated to further the success of the Association, in detail,

and to pass upon any measures that might be pending. Upon motion

Committee adjourned.

HERBERT EAKIN,

President.
