COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1904.

NO. 11

President and Four Directors of the Home Loan and Savings Bank of Cottage Grove

TURNED THE SCORE.

Cottage Grove K. of P. Gets the Long End 10 to 4.

When the south bound train pulled into the station at Cottage Grove Wednesday at 3 p. m. there were more than 500 people on the depot grounds to welcome the Eugene K. of P. ball team. The Cottage Grove Band made music and passengers craned their necks to see. The impression of a live town was general among them. The Eugene players got a hearty welcome and were escorted up town by the Cottage Grove team and a marching body of citizens.

When the Eugene lads had got into their base ball regiments all headed for the ball grounds in Long & Bingham addition, which had been specially prepared for the game. The line up was as follows:

Cottage Grove	Eugene
Wallace, W. c	McClanahan
Medley p	Dunbar
Baker ss	Knox, R
Johnson 1b	Traver
Wheeler 2b	Barger
McQueen 3b	Hays
Dutton lf	Wintermeier
Knox, D cf	Poindexter
Wallace, A rf

The game was raggedy as to errors, but full of excitement and marked by many good plays, notably Eugene's double in the third and the two three baggers for the home team in the sixth by McQueen and Baker.

McClanahan and Griffin, battery for Eugene, were in the game steadily, though Griffin got a bum finger in the third and was hampered by it.

Medley and Wallace (W) did the pitch and toss for the locals and did some bunting also. Only two hits were secured off Medley, while McClanahan had eight to pass out among the homers.

At Eugene when the teams last played the score was 10 to 4 in favor of Eugene. In Wednesday's game figures were the same with Cottage Grove in the lead. Runs by innings were as follows.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H
Eugene	1	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	4	2
Cot. Grove	3	0	0	1	0	3	2	1	10	8

Struck out McClanahan 9; Medley 8. Umpire Pearl Bennett, Scorer, Ben Bingham.

A large crowd of enthusiastic fans was present and the game proceeded amid much good-natured badinage. In the evening the visitors were present at the regular meeting of the local K of P lodge. The third degree was exemplified and a banquet succeeded at which many happy toasts were given and responded to. Visitors from Eugene were cordially received and all agreed that it was "a most felicitous occasion."

The Eugeneites returned home on the 2:14 a. m. train.

NEW BANK DIRECTORS

Decide to Build Temporary Vault at Once.

PLANS OF OFFICIALS

Minnesota Paper Speaks of J. W.
Donohue's Departure
With Regret.

At a recent meeting of the Home Loan and Savings Bank of Cottage Grove it was decided to build a temporary vault on the bank property, corner of Second and Main streets. Construction will begin at once. Some delay, however, is experienced owing to difficulty in obtaining bricks. This is not a serious delay and active work will begin next week. The vault will be connected with the building next the corner, where the bank will be temporarily located. Inner walls will be four inches thick with an air space of four inches. The outer wall will be eight inches in diameter. This vault must be removed when the bank building is erected, but the directors have deemed this extra expense advisable in order to begin business at once.

Referring to the departure of John W. Donohue, the Union, the leading paper of Bird Island, Minnesota, Mr. Donohue's former home, publishes the following:

By the farewell reception tendered Mrs. Olive Donohue, J. W. Donohue, A. Dell and members of their respective families on Tuesday evening, the people of Bird Island honored at once the departing ones and those who remain. By it they proved themselves capable in the highest degree of expressing the sentiment that "mankind is one in spirit." Everyone of the multitude present seemed to be thrilled with the purpose to express his good will in the most positive manner. As these our friends and neighbors depart to their new home in Cottage Grove, Oregon, they cannot but be gladdened by the memory of that evening.

The committee who made the preparations did their work well. The large assembly room in the new schoolhouse was beautifully draped in the national colors and profusely decorated with flowers. Here Bird Island gathered early in the evening. After a brief time spent in exchange of greetings, the appearance of Col. Haggitt, Father Fey and Dr. Carpenter behind the teacher's desk served as a signal for quiet. Several numbers of vocal and instrumental music were well received. Jo Quigley "spoke a piece." At Dr. Carpenter's suggestion the talented young Father Fey then arose and in words and manner which commanded the admiration and approval of all present, bade Mrs. Donohue and hers, the community's most genuine good bye, after which on behalf of the many friends, he, in a few happy and well chosen words, presented Mrs. Donohue with a beautiful floral design and Mr. Donohue and Mr. Dell each with a silver tea set. The response made by each brought pleasure clothed in sadness to those who heard.

The doors of the dining room were then thrown open and well—a country newspaper office does not contain words of requisite size or quality. About midnight individual "good byes" were said and the company slowly and regretfully dissolved. These who are leaving us have for more than two decades occupied a place among us which must remain vacant after they are gone. Mrs. Donohue is one of the few remaining old settlers. Her daughters, Misses Ada and Gertrude, are talented young women who have grown from childhood among us. The same must be said of Mrs. John Donohue and Mrs. Dell.

Mr. Donohue has been for many years president, and Mr. Dell cashier of the Kenville County Bank, one of the oldest and safest banks in Western Minnesota. Let it be said to their credit that never, not even during the panic of 1893, has the responsibility or integrity of the bank been questioned. They all leave us for what they consider a more desirable clime and they carry with them the general good will and commendation of their old neighbors and friends.

Parents, Attention.

The old method of teaching a child to read by the uninteresting meaningless plan of learning his A. B. C's has long since been supplanted by the word system. The methods of teaching music have kept pace with the improved methods of teaching school. The old tedious, discouraging method of teaching the five finger exercises and scales has given place to a method, which interests and delights children as well as grown people.

Mrs. Roy Welch has taught music for eight years during which time she went east twice to study. Recently she had the privilege of a year's continuous study under an own pupil of Calvin Cady of Boston, Mass., whose genius has revolutionized the methods of teaching music. Drop a card in the P. O. and Mrs. Welch will call upon you and give you an idea of the method whereby one can begin reading and writing music from the first lesson.

Will Build Cottage Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jephtha Hart who formerly lived at Harlan, Oregon, have come to Cottage Grove to make their home. They have bought a piece of property in the Landess addition and will begin construction of a dwelling which they will occupy at once upon completion. W. F. Hart, contractor, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hart, will have the construction in hand. Work will begin next week. Oliver Hart, another son, who has been a resident of Cottage Grove for the past five years, also has property in the Landess addition and it was through his advice that the father and mother decided to locate here.

Work on Stamp Mill.

F. J. Hard returned from Bohemia Tuesday morning. He reports that the boiler for the new stamp mill now being built on the Vesuvius has been delivered, an 8-horse team being required to haul it to the site. Other machinery for the mill is expected in a few days. Operation will commence as soon as the machinery can be put in position.

Bought Four Claims.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby returned Tuesday from the Bohemia district where he purchased four claims—a group on White creek. With F. P. Talkington of Salem he will at an early date begin development. The ore is free milling and shes well. Ed Jenks and Ben Curry were the previous owners. These claims are on the spur of Adams mountain.

Irwin Petrie and Wm. Hawley of Lane, were transacting business in the Grove Tuesday.

The order of exercises for the day has been completed and the fireworks ordered have been received.
