 This Friday evening the Cottage Grove Commercial Club will hold a formal opening at its club rooms. Invitations have been issued to Eugene and other Clubs to be present and assist in starting this new movement with energy and enthusiasm.

Secretary Wheeler has been notified that a good sized delegation from Eugene will attend. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant evening is in prospect for all who attend.

There is a general feeling that much good can be accomplished for Cottage Grove and Lane county as well as for Oregon by the establishment and concerted work of this organization and the membership committee has secured the names of nearly fifty prominent men who will become charter members. The meeting this evening will be in part devoted to discussion of measures for the development of the resources of Cottage Grove and vicinity, and for co-operation with other Commercial Clubs in the work of making a greater and better Oregon. Don't fail to be present.
