Lloyd to Bingham.

Hon. I. H. Bingham has received from Geo. W. Lloyd at St. Louis, the following on a wooden postal card:

"All-a-board for the World's Fair.
Arrived safe. Exposition is more than ask-a, it is ash-tonishing; you regular sights of your life. The pike is first-straight, more than a pear of peaches and the spicers don't dark like a tree. Board and (s)lunger at poplar prices, no need to sne for what you plank down.
Hitch-hike the last great show for many years. More fun than the beech, I wood spruce up and come.
You walnut regret it. Butternut delay." Sincerely,

HICKORY HEMLOCK,
Per Geo. W. Lloyd.

Dwelling Completed.

William H. Lincoln has just completed a new five-room dwelling, with barn and well, on River street, opposite and north of the home of Thos. K. Campbell of the Pacific Timber Co. The house is the work of Contractor Hayworth and is well built, three weeks having elapsed since it was commenced. Some delay was caused by difficulty in getting lumber. The painting was completed Tuesday. This is the third house that Mr. Lincoln has built since April.

Apostle of Strange Creed.

At Corvallis Apostle Creffield, of a strange religious sect that has turned many insane through its teachings, was found under the house of a man named Hurt, where he had been for probably three months. He was naked and half starved. A boy discovered him in hiding and notified the officers. He was taken to Portland, where a reward of $300 has been offered for his capture.

Salem Beer on Draught.

Salem beer makes the sultry summer days a dream of bliss. Hotel Graham bar will have the agency for this exhilarating beer. Kept in bottles and on draught.

Della E. Jackson has been appointed to succeed Postmaster I. P.
Adams who has resigned, at Lorane, 12 miles west of Cottage Grove.

A man from Gardiner tells the Nonpareil of one method of killing deer in that vicinity. He says dogs are used to put the deer in the water, then they are chased with a row boat and captured.—Drain Nonpareil.

L. C. Huffman and family are new arrivals in Cottage Grove, having arrived overland Wednesday from Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. Huffman was a caller at the Leader office and expressed himself as favorably impressed with this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Morse returned from Coburg Wednesday where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Morse's son, Fred Russell, who is manager of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co.'s store at Wendling. The bride was Miss Catherine E. Nickerson of Coburg.

Warren McFarland, manager of the west side store of Garman Hemen-way Co., has gone to Eastern Oregon with the family of Baker Stewart for a stay of several weeks. Warren has been in poor health for some time and it is expected that this outing will restore him to his usual robust health.

There has been and is now a general exodus of townspeople to the coast and mountain resorts, where these fortunates leave cares and trouble behind while the exponents of true spartanism, together with the rest left in town, sweater through the dog days of August in contentment and without a murmur.

The Eugene papers have been devoting much space to the disappearance of one Tom McCoy, who, it was feared, had met with foul play, as his absence from a hotel for several days had led to that belief. But Thomas is safe and sound, and has been all this time visiting with friends only a few miles south of Eugene.

The supreme court of Oregon has decided the recently-enacted "barber law" valid, which is a reverse decision of Judge George made in a test case in Portland. This means that barbers not now registered must take an examination and qualify the same as a physician or pharmacist. There is no doubt but what some tonsorial "artists" need examining.

Charles H. Vilas of Portland, came to Cottage Grove Saturday. He was working on one of the railroad bridges near that city and while descending near the false work stepped on a nail, which penetrated his left foot. The injury occurred ten days ago and he is taking a lay off at the home of his father-in-law O. P. Adams here, and is recovering steadily.

struction department of the Pacific Postal Telegraph Co., has been in the city this week. The work of rebuilding the line between here and Roseburg has commenced.

The band concert was the stellar attraction for those who remained in town Sunday afternoon. Several new pieces were rendered, and under the directorship of Chas. Cochran the music was highly appreciated.

Joe Kester a 15 year old boy, was drowned in the Willamette river below Springfield Tuesday afternoon.
In company with other young boys he was in swimming and got into deep water and was unable to swim out.

T. S. Hill, of Jasper, brought to the Springfield flour mill Saturday the first wheat of the season. It is of fine quality and weighs 61 pounds to the bushel. The yield per acre was also good, much better than the average this year.—Guard.

Every community knows the man who sits on a storebox and whistles, finding fault with his neighbor and bragging how much better he could do it than his neighbor, yet who never goes out and does anything right himself. We have all seen that fellow.—Eugene Register.
