FACETIOUS COCHRAN

Says He Will Beat Binger Hermann.

IN RUN FOR CONGRESS

Intends to Be a Candidate on the Democratic Ticket to Succeed Roseburg Man.

(Evening Telegram.)

In the person of one Pearne Alexander Cochran, of the town of Woodburn, B. Hermann, is in time to come to have a rival for a seat in Congress from the First district, if any dependency is to be placed in the boat of the said Pearne Alexander Cochran, of the town of Woodburn, and such a rival as is sure to be worthy of his steel.

Only a short time ago, before the departure for Washington of Senator Mitchell, Pearne Alexander Cochran boasted to the Senator and several other well-known men that he was after the Congressional honor of the Congressional incumbents and intended to have it. Whether or not this dire prediction is to pan out remains for the electors in the First district to decide in little more than two years hence.

Now Pearne Alexander Cochran, of the town of Woodburn, is a baker, man of many parts and divers and easily accomplishments, judging from a tale in propria persona poured out the other day to several listeners on the Albany local, bound down from Salem. He is furthermore, a Democrat, and says that it is the generally agreed plan of the Democracy of the First District not to make the same mistake that has been made heretofore in the nomination of lesser lights, but to place him at the head of the district ticket and put the Honorable B. Hermann out of business, should that politician again come out in the role of a Congressional aspirant.

Notwithstanding the presence in the town of Woodburn of Walter L. Toze, Republican chairman of the Congressional District Committee, it appears that the said Pearne Alexander Cochran, baker and man of many parts, talks Democracy and tells the populace thereof that he is to be the next Congressman from these parts.

"Yes, sir," said Pearne Alexander Cochran, the other day, "I am after Hermann and I am going to get him. The people want me to run, and I am going to do it. Hermann hasn't treated me right," and Pearne Alexander Cochran gave it to be understood in dieticn dramatic and terrible that he will have his revenge. Pearne Alexander Cochran also says he has no use for George Clayton Brownell, who, says he, has also been guilty of political trickery, and he wants nothing to do with such a man. If George Clayton Brownell should in the event of things, himself run for Congress, vice B. Hermann, it follows in the nature of the threat promulgated by Pearne Alexander Cochran, that he will also put him out of the race on the Democratic ticket.

Thus far, however, it doth not appear from any public demonstration on the part of any considerable number of Democrats in good standing that there will be a demand for the candidacy of Pearne Alexander Cochran, the vociferous declarations of that individual in the opposite direction to the contrary notwithstanding.

TO ASK FOR A DISTRICT

Commercial Club Will Start Movement

FOR COTTAGE GROVE

Streets of City to Be Included in Separate Road District—Will Petition Authorities.

Tuesday's meeting of the Commercial Club was presided over by Vice-President H. O. Thompson, with F. D. Wheeler in the Secretary's chair.

One new member was added to the roll in the person of Levi Geer, manager of the Oregon Mineral Springs Association.

Committee on Mining reported shipment of 12 tons of ore to Lewis & Clark Exposition.

It was ordered that a petition be prepared asking the County Commissioners to set apart the City of Cottage Grove into a separate road district. This if secured will make the road tax assessed in the city applicable to improvement of city streets.

B. Lurch was named as a member of committee on fortnightly club evenings for ladies.

The following communication expressed approval of the work the Leader has been doing in support of the Commercial Club:

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21, 1904.—MR. C. J. HOWARD, Sec'y., COTTAGE GROVE COMMERCIAL CLUB, COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON.

DEAR SIR:—I enclose you a carbon copy of a letter sent today to Mr. A. Clifford Gage, editor of the Lane County Leader, which is self-explanatory. While I wished Mr. Gage to know that his co-operation was appreciated, I also desire to congratulate you most heartily upon the good being accomplished by your organization.

The idea of semi-monthly entertainments at your club quarters appeals to me as an exceptionally good one, as nothing conduces to effective work so much as cordial relations between the members of the club. The Portland Commercial Club brings its members into closer touch through the medium of its mid-day lunch. From one hundred and fifty to two hundred usually eat here at noon.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

TOM RICHARDSON,
Secretary.

MR. A. CLIFFORD GAGE, EDITOR, LANE COUNTY LEADER COTTAGE GROVE OREGON. DEAR SIR:—I have been intending for some days to write you a letter extending my congratulations on your very forceful article in the Leader of November 12th. I also want to compliment you on the work being accomplished by the Cottage Grove Commercial Club, as evidenced by the report of its proceedings in paper of November 19th. Intelligent newspaper co-operation is of the highest importance to any commercial organization and the Commercial Club and Leader form a team whose effectiveness cannot be over-estimated.

Very truly yours,
TOM RICHARDSON
Secretary.

Another letter from Mr. Richardson asked for information about Cottage Grove and vicinity. Request was also made for printed literature for distribution. The club adjourned next Tuesday evening.

PROGRESS OF EXPOSITION

Lewis and Clark Fair Bearing Completion—Ready for Exhibits in December.

Portland, Nov. 25.—Although nearly seven months still remain before the opening day, June 1, the construction work on the grounds and buildings of the Lewis and Clark Exposition is rapidly nearing completion. Several of the main exhibit palaces are already finished and the completed state of the landscape gardening is exemplified in the beautiful lawns and beds of blooming flowers which now grace the site.

Three of the main exhibit palaces—the Agricultural building, the Foreign Exhibits building, and the Liberal Arts building—are under roof and ready to receive exhibits, shipment of which will be commenced in the East December 1. The Agricultural palace, the next to the largest building on the grounds, which, it was stated six months ago, would be ready for exhibits November 1, was ready on the specified date. The Forestry building, probably the most interesting on the grounds, is well advanced, the massive timbers which compose the walls and pillars being already in place. The Mines and Metallurgy, Festival Hall, the Machinery, Electricity and Transportation palace, and the Oregon building are rising from their foundations. The shelter pavilion, located just outside the Colonnade entrance, is receiving the finishing touches and some beautiful modeling work in decorative designs is to be noted both on this building and the colonnade entrance.

Archie Graham and Ed Mathews, two San Francisco boys who have spent the best part of a year in Cottage Grove and Bohemia, came down from the Champion basin, Bohemia, Monday and on Tuesday started on their journey south. The boys have made many friends while here and will be welcomed back in the spring.

WORD TALKS OF GAMBLING RAIDS

Tells Seattle People He Will Make Portland a Model City.

(Telegram Coast special.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 23.—Sheriff Word, of Multnomah County, has arrived in Seattle to take a short rest after his strenuous life of the past weeks in putting a stop to gambling in Portland. Sheriff Word looks tired, but he says he will soon recuperate and be ready again to renew the fight on those who have been breaking the laws of the state.

"I have the gamblers on the run," he said to the Telegram correspondent, "and I expect to keep right after them. Games of chance will not be operated in my county as long as I am Sheriff if I can prevent it. All gamblers are criminals, and I treat them as criminals. They go to jail and into a cell like other felons. I am playing no favorites. I am doing my duty as I understand it, and as I swore to do. Damage suits against me for arrest will have no effect, and, although there are now civil suits for alleged false imprisonment and illegal raids filed against me, I shall keep right along as I have in the past. While I am gone my deputies are watching games that may try to run. The mere attempt will result in arrest."

"You may say for me, if you like, that my fight has only started. Before my term as Sheriff expires gamblers will know that I am Sheriff and not being bulldozed by gamblers who for years have been running the city and doing about as they pleased. I'll fill the jail to overflowing or I will stop the breaking of the laws. Gambling and gamblers must go from my bailiwick."

Jack Klopfenstein who seldom leaves his work in the mines at Bohemia is spending Thanksgiving week in Cottage Grove. All the boys are glad to meet him.

FAILED TO MEET.

There was no meeting of the Common Council Monday evening. No quorum.

Absent, Mayor Medley. Present, Councilmen Hinds, Veatch Chamberlain, Bingham and ex-Councilman Wall.

Mayor Medley mounted the stairs to meet the retiring Councilmen after adjournment, unfortunately too late to hold a meeting at which all Cottage Grove expected something would be done to remedy evils existing in this city.

It was doubly unfortunate that the Mayor was delayed, because not only were there important matters of municipal administration to be discussed, but the question of sewer connections is one that is prominently before the public for discussions and before the Councilmen for settlement. All householders and all property owners are required to connect with lateral sewers now being laid by contractors in an alley running east and west throughout the city and as yet no ordinance has been passed to that effect.

Mayor Medley no doubt equally with other citizens regretted the delay on his part which prevented the holding of a council meeting Monday evening, in view of the important measures about to come before the city fathers.

The meeting adjourned to meet November 28.
