1905—OREGON—1905
The Ladies of St. John's Guild will hold a bazaar at the Opera House, Dec. 14th and 15th. A splendid programme will be rendered each evening. All are cordially invited to come.

A Very Pleasant Evening.

The dance given by the band boys at the Opera House was a very enjoyable affair and thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The music furnished by the band as a whole was excellent and the hours sped swiftly by to the strain of the enchanting numbers.

It is the intention of the band to give a series of dances during the winter, the success of which is assured under the able management of the band boys.

Wagonmaking, blacksmithing and general repair work at J. H.
Baker's shop. Every guarantee of good workmanship given.

The Original
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. J. S.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion.
Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.
"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years.
Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.
Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.
