merchants reminds us that the Holiday season is near and the people will do well by making their selections now.

1905—OREGON—1905

Hon. F. J. Hard expects to start for the mines in a day or two. Mr.
Hard says he is getting very flattering reports from the several workings at Bohemia.

1905—OREGON—1905

It is reported that in travelling the street near the Cottage Grove hotel that there is an excess of gravel being put on the bridge. It would be well for the city or county officials in charge of the work to look the matter up.

Harry Peck has gone to Seattle for a time.

1905—OREGON—1905
J. I. Jones returned Wednesday from a visit to Indiana.

Wildwood, were visitors to the city Thursday. Mr. Scott hurt his hand while working at the Vesu-vius some weeks ago, but has about recovered from the injury.

Market Reports.

For the convenience of many of the subscribers to the Leader, a market report will be published each week. It will no doubt prove of benefit to the farmers and others who have produce to sell.

Among the other things you have thought of as a possible present had you thought of an Indian basket. A workbasket perhaps, or a basket for some other useful purpose, they are always handy for one never seems to get too many. Indian baskets are fine for use and decorative purposes. We have them at right prices.

Benson's Pharmacy.

Bazaar and Social.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild held a two nights social and bazaar at Martin's hall on Wednesday and Thursday. Lunches were served and an interesting program given by local talent each evening. Nearly all the articles for sale were disposed of at good prices and a neat sum realized.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT PROGRAM:

Floral hoop drill by the Little Misses.

Song—"In a Big Fig Tree," Sadie and Ruth Blair and Grace Bingham.

Song—"Tessie," Sadie Blair.
Instrumental duet—Frank Rosenburg, Miss Mable Rosenberg and Miss Brown.

Song—"I've Got a Feeling For You," The Little Misses Blair and Bingham.

THURSDAY EVENING.

Piano solo—Mrs. Roy Welch.
Recitation—Ruth Blair.

Instrumental—Maud Blair, piano Roy Griggs, guitar David Griggs, Mandolin.

Song—"Answer," Miss Maud Blair and Miss Maud Bingham.

During the evening by special request the young ladies repeated this song.

Cornet solo—Charles Cochran.
Piano duet—Mrs. Roy Welch and daughter, Lindley.

Guitar solo—Roy Griggs.

At the close of the program manager Rosenberg called upon Col.
Blair to auction off the remaining articles, after which the floor was cleared and many enjoyed themselves in dancing for some hours.

There was a large gathering each evening and the ladies of the Guild were much gratified with the presence and patronage accorded them.

Three lives were lost in a 700-000 fire at Minneapolis Wednesday.

The Original

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. J. S.

Books for Presents

With the near approach of the Christmas season many minds are agitated with the oft recurring question "What shall I give for a present?"
Has it occurred to you that a good interesting book was more lasting than the more transitory gifts that lives through the passing days?

We have books for the boys, books for the girls, and books for grown folks. Recent works of popular fiction, prose and poems by standard authors, both old and new, and lighter reading for the children.
Christmas buying is made easy here.
