

LEADERS

Frank Burroughs of Roseburg is visiting in the city.

Harvey E. Lounsbury, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Co., arrived in the city Friday morning. He will spend a few days in this portion of the valley.

Attention is called to the new advertisement in this issue of D. C. Baughman, who has opened up a feedstore in the old Hawley building on West River Street. He has on hand 120 tons of good hay and all kinds of flour and mill feed.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby this week received a number of the latest works by some of the great specialists in the different branches of medical science and surgery. Dr. Oglesby has a splendid library which is kept right up to date, thus enabling the reader to keep in touch with the greatest achievements of medicine and surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkley were down from the Black Butte mines Thursday to meet Mrs. Luke Sutherland and her brother-in-law, who will spend a few days at the mines. Mrs. Sutherland is now living with her mother at Roseburg, while her husband who has been working at mining near Nevada City, Calif., has gone further south to seek a location.

J. C. Harris returned to Seattle Wednesday, where as stated in the last issue, he had purchased land and was preparing a home. His family will remain in Cottage Grove until a disposition is made of their restaurant and rooming house, when they will join him. Mr. Harris has been a life long miner, but failing health has caused him to seek some less arduous vocation.

Miss Della White of the business college went home to the Grove yesterday. Mrs. Frank Pierce of Cottage Grove came down yesterday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Charles Martin, Merle Kirk and H. Dow of Cottage Grove came in on yesterday's train. Mrs. Jack Knowlton of Cottaf's Grove came in yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Morris. George Clark and son Voyle went to Cottage Grove on a short visit. Sunday Eugene Register.

W. Strong, a prominent furniture dealer of Roseburg, spent Wednesday in the city on business.

Frank Knox, of Fossil spent Christmas in the city, the guest of Uncle, Dr. W. W. Oglesby and family.

Bessie Thompson, of Salem spent Christmas in Cottage Grove, the guest of her cousin, Miss Anna By.

P. Bettersworth, employed in the printing office at Salem, spent Christmas with friends in Cottage Grove.

A party who left the gloves in the opera house at the first performance of the home talent play may find the same by calling on Manager Milne.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts spent Christmas in Cottage Grove with their daughters, Mrs. J. I. Jones and Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg. Their son is in Eugene.

C. Madsen has just received a line of gents' vest chains to suit all tastes. Just the thing to give your sweetheart and husband. Call and see them.

Miss M. H. Silsby returned from Portland Monday to resume her duties as stenographer for the Pacific Telephone Company after having spent Christmas at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Gray, of Halsey, accompanied by their grand-daughter, Miss Pearl Gray, spent Christmas with their daughter in Eugene, Mrs. H. K. Metcalf.

Mr. F. J. Hard has returned from Portland, where he went to spend Christmas with his family. He was accompanied on his return by his son, Charles, who will spend the time with his father.

Professor Willis McQueen is now engaged in teaching a nine months' course of school at Wendling. He spent Christmas in Cottage Grove with relatives and friends and resumed his work on Wednesday. The paper will hereafter keep him in touch with the home doings.

G. H. VanBuren, S. P. station agent at Comstock, was in Cottage Grove Wednesday on business.

M. H. McKelvey, a mining man of many years of experience is spending a few days in the city.

Owing to the high water which is caused by recent heavy rains, the Cottage Grove Flour Mill has been compelled to close down for a few days.

Wm. Hogate of the firm of Wynne Hardware Co., together with his family spent their Christmas with friends in Salem.

J. L. Flint and wife of Junction City, have been spending several days in the city. Mrs. Flint is a sister of W. T. Kayser, the auctioneer. They returned to their home on Friday.

Manager Milne announces that he has secured the Western Musical Comedy Company for Monday night, January 2nd. This company is reputed to be one of the best of its kind now on the road and Mr. Milne says he can guarantee theatre goers a treat. The prices will be 15, 25 and 35 cents.

T. M. Hunt, Oregon manager of the forestry department of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, departed yesterday for Washington D. C., to attend the American Foresters Convention, which convenes at the Capitol from January 2nd to 6th inclusive. Representatives from all over the world will be in attendance.

Peterson & Dunbar will open their Vaudeville entertainments at the opera house, Cottage Grove, on Tuesday Jan. 3d. To give everyone a chance to come only 10 cents will be the admission to any part of the house, they have a company of clever specialty performers. Change of program every night. Come once and you will come again. Doors open at 7:30. Performance at 8:15.

Mr. W. B. Hartley arrived from Corvallis on Thursday, and Friday morning went to the Star Consolidated group of claims in Bohemia. Mr. Hartley goes there to start a force of men to work in the main tunnel which will be continued all winter. Since September 120 feet of tunneling was done and a vein of three feet of ore, which is said to assay well was encountered.

A grand masquerade ball will be given in the opera house Saturday night to which every one is invited.

J. M. England, of Dorena, was in town yesterday on business. This office acknowledges a pleasant call and renewal of subscription.

S. P. trains from the south have been delayed by the rising waters, and the north bound overland did not pass until late Friday evening. Trouble is also being experienced at the rebutment on the Oregon & Southeastern about two miles east of town on Row river. Telephone lines to Bohemia are also down.

The Federal Grand Jury investigating the land frauds has so far indicted Dr. C. E. Loomis, S. B. Ormsby, George Sorenson, W. H. Davis, mayor of Albany, Henry Young, John Doe and Richard Roe. Senator Mitchell and Congressman Hermann have both been before the grand jury, but no indictment has been made for them.

The funny farce comedy "Do You Know" was put on at the opera house again on Thursday evening as a benefit to Mr. Fred C. Lewis, the director, and was patronized by a small house. They play is a funny one and unobjectionable in all respects but one, which is that the lesson it teaches is that it is the proper thing for a boy to be a spendthrift and a rake in order to gain the respect of men and to be wise in his old age. The work of the home talent people was first-class and merited a much better patronage than was received at both performances combined.

Arrangements were made in the week by the H. T. B. Basket ball team for a game with the girls team of Albany College to be played on Friday evening. On Thursday a telephone message came from Albany calling off the game. As the home team had been put to some expense they arranged for a game with a picked team from Cottage Grove and played last evening. The players were: Agnes Wooley, Nellie Martin, Lizzie Veatch, Katie Knowlton, Fannie Johnson, Clara VanRiper, Abbie Johnson, Lindley Welch, Anna Rhody and Grace Bailey. Owing to the Leader going to press we are unable to announce the result.

The Original

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine, ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. J. S. Benson Pharmacy.

Books for Presents

With the near approach of the Christmas season many minds are agitated with the oft recurring question "What shall I give for a present?" Has it occurred to you that a good interesting book was more lasting than the more transitory gifts that lives through the passing days? We have books for the boys, books for the girls, and books for grown folks. Recent works of popular fiction, prose and poems by standard authors, both old and new, and lighter reading for the children. Christmas buying is made easy here.
