Stagg's Prospects.
Coach Alonso A. Stagg of the University of Chicago football team is confident that he has material for a championship organization this season. It is Stagg's ambition to form a team that will defeat that of the University of Michigan.

ALONZO A. STAGG, CHICAGO, UNIVERSITY COACH.

versity of Michigan. He has several new men from preparatory schools that promise well, and these, together with the veterans remaining from the fast aggregation of a year ago, he believes, will give the Windy City institution an eleven that will win the western intercollegiate championship title.

Advice From Kid McCoy.
"When you knock a man down never tell him to get up and fight," was a piece of advice Kid McCoy passed out to some friends recently at Harry Corbett's in San Francisco. "Keep him down. I told a fellow once to get up, and for my pains I got knocked out in turn. I fought big McCormick. In the first round I put him down with a straight right on the jaw. He seemed to hug the floor as though he wanted to quit. I walked over to him and said to everybody could hear me: 'Get up, you dog, and fight. I ought to give you a son of a gun in the face.' I wanted to scare him to stay down, but slowly he crawled to his feet, and as he did he brought over an overhead punch which landed squarely on my jaw, and I went out for twenty minutes. He took me off my guard completely. A little later, when I fought Peter Maher at Coney Island, I knocked him down in the fifth round. Instead of telling him to get up and fight, as I did McCormick, I said to him, 'You easy mark. If you climb to your feet I'll crack your nut,' and Maher never came up."

A New Globe Trotter.
Eugene Eose, from Budapest, Hungary, who is on a walking trip around the world, recently passed through New York. He started on his journey on Dec. 1, 1903, and has covered the following route: Hungary-Budapest, Szekesfehavar, Nagykanizsa, Zagreb, Plume, Austria-Triest, Innsbruck, Switzerland-Zurich. Back to Austria-Meran, Bozen, Trento, Ala. Italy-Venice, Verona, Bologna, Ancona, Naples, Rome, Florence, Genoa. France-Monaco, Nice, Marseilles, Lyons, Nancy, Germany-Metz, Driedenhofen, Pralognan, Luxembourg, Strassen, Belgium-Arion, Brussels, Antwerp, Ostend. Thence by boat to London, to Liverpool by way of Birmingham, where he took a steamship for America. He will cover North and South America, Australia, Asia and Africa.

The Great Western Circuit.
Larger purses will be given on the great western circuit next year, the success of the big purses this season having encouraged the management to still greater ventures. Galesburg can now be set down as a successful racing town, thanks to the efforts of President Murphy, Secretary Smolinger and Treasurer Holland. Many improvements will be made at Galesburg here-fore the harness horses will be seen there again. The grand stand will be fixed up, the bleachers will be moved back and enlarged, and the grounds will be beautified.

The Diamond Handicap Entries.
One of the best fields of trotters which will meet this year is entered in the Diamond handicap at Memphis. The field is: John Taylor, 2:03 1/4; The Roman, 2:04 1/4; Hall Frey, 2:05 1/4; Silversign, 2:10 1/4; Billy Foster Boy, 2:11 1/4; Jim Ferry, 2:10 1/4; Dr. Strong, 2:08; Prince Selma, 2:10 1/4; Early Reaper, 2:09 1/4; Sweet Marie, 2:09 1/4; Snyder McGregor, 2:09 1/4; Mary Gage, 2:11 1/4; Alexander, 2:09 1/4; Stanley Dillon, 2:07 1/4; Lady Gall Hamilton, 2:11 1/4; Dan Wilkes, 2:09 1/4; George G., 2:07 1/4; Direct View, 2:08 1/4, and Consuelo S., 2:07 1/4.

A New Racing Plan.
Secretary Jewett is going to appeal to the stewards of the grand circuit to furnish a uniform programme next year. Then it will be possible for trainers to prepare their horses with some degree of certainty, or, rather, with satisfaction. Commencing early in the season, they can lay out a programme and follow it. Whether the stewards will be able to agree as to the programme is another question, but with this year's fresh in mind it will probably not be a difficult task.

Detroit Gets Cromley.
Cromley, the Georgetown pitcher who turned professional early in the season and made a good record with Indianapolis, has been secured by the Detroit club.

"Sheek" the Sole Survivor.
Of the Brooklyn teams of 1899 and 1900 it is a noteworthy fact that Sheekard is the only one left at Brooklyn.

THE COMPASS.

The Belief Was Once Held That It Disclosed Men's Thoughts.

A belief that the mariner's compass disclosed men's thoughts was entertained by a number of ancient Mexican companions and allies of Hernando Cortes. His habit of consulting his compass and chart in his advance through the country and the ease and assurance with which he reached whatever town or village he determined to make for tended to confirm this idea.

In the estimation of the Mexicans the compass was a universal oracle. Accordingly in one of the conspircacies which were set on foot against Cortes by the Aztecs a number of the natives, most likely innocent of what was in contemplation, were earnestly entreating Cortes to have recourse to his infallible guide, the compass, that he might ascertain for their mutual satisfaction that they at least were faithful. Cortes himself records the singular Men held of the powers of the magnetic needle by his Aztec associates and their request in a letter addressed to the Emperor Charles V. Their belief, he adds, was one in which he took care to confirm them.

AN OFFER DECLINED.

Attempt of the Tweed Ring to Bribe Nast, the Cartoonist.

A lawyer friend one day intimated to Nast that in appreciation of his great work a party of rich men wished to send him abroad and give him a chance to study art under the world's masters. The friend was probably innocent enough, an unconscious tool of the ring.

Nast said very little except that he appreciated the offer and would be delighted to go but for the fact that he had important business just then in New York. He fancied that he detected the faint odor of a mouse under the idea, but he did not mention this to his friend. On the following Sunday an officer of the Broadway bank where the ring kept its accounts came out to Morristown to see Nast. He talked of a number of things. Then he said: "I hear you have been made an offer to go abroad for art study."

"Yes," nodded Nast, "but I can't go. I haven't time."

"But they will pay you for your time. I have reason to believe you could get $100,000 for the trip."

Nast pondered a moment, then: "Don't you think I can get $200,000?" "I do. I believe from what I have heard in the bank that you could get it. You have a great talent, but you need study and you need rest. Besides, this ring business will get you into trouble. They own all the judges and jurors and can get you locked up for libel. My advice is to take the money and get away."

Nast looked out into the street and perhaps wondered what $200,000 would do for him. It would pay the mortgage on the house in the city. It would give him years of study abroad. It would make him comfortable for life. Presently he said: "Don't you think I could get $500,000 to make that trip?"

The bank official scarcely hesitated. "You can. You can get $500,000 in gold to drop this ring business and get out of the country."

Nast laughed a little. He had played the game far enough.

"Well, I don't think I'll do it," he said. "I made up my mind a long time ago to put some of those fellows behind the bars, and I'm going to put them there!"

The banker rose rather quietly.

"Only be careful, Mr. Nast, that you do not first put yourself in a coffin!" he smiled.

It was not until two years later that he met Nast one day on Broadway.

"Nast," he said, "you did it after all!"—Albert Bigelow Paine in Pearson's.

FRUITFUL FACTS.

Lemons are an excellent remedy in pulmonary disease.

Persia practically enjoys the monopoly of the date trade.

Sieliy has some of the finest lemon orchards in the world.

The pear tree will continue bearing fruit for several centuries.

The cherry, the peach and the plum all originally came from Persia.

Strawberries are regarded as particularly good for scurvy and gout.

At one time strawberries were sold strung on straws. Thus they got their name.

The banana is a perfect food. Weight for weight it is claimed to be as nutritious as the beefsteak.

About one pineapple in 20,000 has seeds in it, and it is from these seeds that new varieties are produced.

Prunes are the dried fruit of certain kinds of plums which are put into very slow ovens. The finest of all, the French prunes, are made in Provence.

Not One Agreed.

Dr. X. of Capitol Hill has—rare thing for a Washington physician—an Irish driver. The doctor's horse is kept at a livery stable, and when its owner and the driver arrived there on a Sunday morning not long ago the doctor discovered that his watch had run down hours before. He asked the time of one of the men lounging about the stable. The man produced a noisy tin trumpet and announced the hour as 9. The livery stable keeper's watch made it 8:57. Somebody else's had it 9:10.

"Come on, Jim," said the doctor to the driver. "It's no use. No two of these watches agree."

"No two of them?" said Jim. "Faith, devil a wan of them agrees!"—Washington Post.

The Practical View.

"The trees stand up so beautifully," exclaimed the young poet, just home from college.

"Yes," replied the old man, "that's some tall timber round here."

"They seem to laugh in the wind, and bow 'good morning' to you," continued the poet.

"Look here, John," said the old man, "fore you go plum crazy, take this here as an' chop 'em down a dozen trees an' run 'em through the sawmill!"—Atlanta Constitution.

No Discrimination.

"Beensay has a good ear for music." "What makes you think so?" "He told me you were the worst singer he ever heard."

"That's strange."

"Why?"

"He told me you were the worst."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Rob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No one talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used grip and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me." DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by The Modern Pharmacy.

HE COULD WAIT.

The Way Lafadio Hearn Pushed Himself into a Situation.

Lafadio Hearn at one time in his career was employed on a daily paper in Cincinnati.

He obtained the position by presenting his application in person to the editor.

"We don't need anybody at present," said the editor.

Hearn sat down on a chair, pulled a book out of his pocket, wiped his glasses and smiled.

"I said we don't need anybody," repeated the editor loudly.

"I heard you," replied Hearn affably. "I will just sit here until you happen to need somebody."

That editor was not long in "needing" Hearn.

For lack of anything better the new man was sent out for a descriptive story to be written in the steeple of the Catholic cathedral. When the story was handed in it proved to be a composition rivaling the word painting feats of a Ruskin or a Gautier.

He pictured the city as it looked from the steeple and imparted to his description something besides beauty. There was reality in it. Persons who had viewed the city from the steeple averred that the story was marvelous for photographic accuracy.

Now, Hearn was so nearsighted that ten feet from his nose all objects were misty and indistinct, and it is doubtful if he could distinguish the nearest house from the point to which he had climbed.—News Letter.

DELICATESSEN.

She was not highly cultured, nor grammar had no use; She never heard of Browning Nor studied themes abstruse. She had no ear for music, Could not a rhyme repeat, But knew the art of cooking Good things for us to eat.

She could make apple custard With knack of sure success; With pies of mince and pumpkin The family would bless. Her angel food was manna To feed the hungry heart; Her golden crusts doughnuts Paid tribute to her art.

The black hat, indigestion, No'or settled on my roof, And the medicine dispenser Her presence kept aloof. She's still on earth and hearty, But, oh, the aching void! For in a school of cooking Our former cook's employed.

The Usual Catch.

"So Bragley was out fishing yesterday. How many did he bring back with him?"

"Oh, about a dozen." "A dozen, what? Bass?"

"No, fish stories."—Philadelphia Press.

Recalled.

"Did it reveal the figure?"

"Yes. She had 'the price tag on the collar.'—Boston Herald.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

We desire to place in the hands of those afflicted with Bright's Disease and Diabetes a 36-page pamphlet that is saving human lives. It is not an ordinary pamphlet, such as is commonly used to advertise medicines, but is principally made up of reports of scientifically conducted tests in a large variety of cases, showing 87 per cent of recoveries in these hitherto incurable diseases.

The specimens employed in these tests are known as the Fulton Compounds and the results obtained prove conclusively that these dreaded diseases so long fatal (the deaths from Bright's Disease alone are appalling, over 100,000 a year, starting as kidney troubles) have at last yielded to medical science. The pamphlet is free. Write to the John J. Fulton Co., 409 Washington Street, San Francisco, Cal.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—Puffy ankles; hands; weakness without apparent cause; kidney trouble after third month of frequent urination; (may show sediment or cloudy on standing); falling vision; day drowsiness—one or more of these.
