A. Faikenburg, founder of the order and since its birth its executive head, elected John H. Foley, of Los Angeles, to fill the vacancy. Neighbor Foley was elected Head Adviser at the last meeting of Head Camp two years ago and has since that time filled the second highest position in the order.

John H. Foley is an active and enthusiastic member of the organization, thoroughly in accord with the policy of his lamented predecessor and well informed on the needs of the order, and his election was received here with general satisfaction. The Board of Head Managers adjourned this evening.

It is expected that Head Consul Foley will be elected to succeed himself at the meeting of the Head Camp to be held in Los Angeles in April when the biennial session of the order is held.

The Cottage Grove contingent will have a special car at their service. Any one can go for a one and one third fare, round trip.

Spiritualistic Meetings.

For several days Mr. and Mrs. Sprague of the Oregon State Spiritualist Society have been in the city for the purpose of organizing a branch society in this place. Wednesday and Thursday nights meetings were held in Masonic hall.

Both nights the room was well filled with those curious to hear what they had to say and witness the efforts of Mrs. Sprague in delivering messages from the other world, as well as those who are of that faith. It is understood that quite a number have joined the society.

OREGON NOTES.

Department officials are investigating conditions with a view of having an all-night postoffice at Roseburg. The people of Coos county ask for it for the reason that their mails by the present system are delayed 12 hours in transit.

A 3000 foot spur will soon be built from the S. P. tracks to the end of the flume of the W. P. Johnson Lumber Co., at Myrtle Creek.

The majority of the lumber mills on the Siuslaw are preparing to resume operations within a few weeks.

Pres. Demster attended a county committee meeting at Roseburg Saturday to plan the county educational exhibit at Lewis & Clark fair. A good exhibit will be sent from Douglas county.

The friends of the Normal are planning to have a "live feast" over the success in maintaining the school. Keep your eye on the Normal. We have sent out 23 teachers this spring.

Many inquiries are coming from the East relative to this section and one of the first questions is regarding school privileges. It is pleasing to be able to say, "Oregon is alive on education."

Work is being renewed on the flower beds and school gardens. All are taking a deep interest in the matter. Mr. Briggs has secured many flowers, bulbs and seeds from his friend, Prof. Spillman of the Agricultural Department at Washington, D. C.

The Toast.

A man who has just returned from a western trip tells the following:

"Recently in Los Angeles five prominent gentlemen of foreign birth happened to meet. One was a Russian, one was a Turk, one a

Frenchman, one an American and one an Englishman. These gentlemen became bosom friends and finally a champagne supper was proposed, at which each gentlemen, to be in keeping with the times, was to give a toast to his native country, the one giving the best to be at no expense for the wine. Here are the toasts given:

The Russian—"Here's to the stars and bars of Russia, that were never pulled down."

The Turk—"Here's to the moons of Turkey, whose wings were never clipped."

The Frenchmen—"Here's to the cock of France, whose feathers were never picked."

The American—"Here's to the stars and stripes of America, never trailed in defeat."

The Englishman—"Here's to the ramping, roaring lion of Great Britain, that tore down the stars and bars of Russia, clipped the wings of Turkey, picked the feathers off the cock of France and ran like a—ll from the stars and stripes of the United States of America." —Exchange.

How to Please Her.

A woman likes to be truly loved and to be told so.

She likes some noble, honorable man to be thoughtful of her, kind and considerate of her welfare.

When well and becomingly dressed, a quiet notice of it is always appreciated.

A word of praise for a nice dinner or supper often more than compensates her for the worry and work of preparation.

She wants her husband not only to be her supporter but her companion, remembering that it is the kind word that often brings her greater happiness than a new set of dishes, though presents like the latter are always welcome.

She likes to be made to realize that she is good for something besides a mere household drudge.

She likes to be petted occasionally, but not in public. The little private pet names are very dear to a woman's heart. —McCall's Magazine.
