

NOTICE!

We will move our entire stock of General Merchandise about March 1st to the :

Eakin & Bristow Building

Pacific Timber Co. Store

UNDER ODD FELLOWS' HALL

COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON

LEADERS

H. C. Deir of Eugene was registered at the Graham Wednesday.

Mrs. L. M. Thompson has gone to Gervais to visit with her daughter Mrs. Best.

Mr. G. B. Hengen and Mrs. Hengen left for Portland on the afternoon train Thursday.

T. C. Bartram, Forest Commissioner, whose home is in Roseburg, was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Cleo Lamb of Creswell and Miss Antoinette Buraick of Eugene arrived Friday to visit with their parents.

Darwin Bristow formerly of this city, but now a banker of Eugene, spent Wednesday and Thursday with us on business matters.

County School Superintendent Walter B. Dillard, has been in Cottage Grove the past few days on his official visits to the public schools.

The state board of agriculture is considering the matter of holding a four days' race meet at the state fair grounds this fall in view of the fact that the fair has been abolished this year.

There is evidently one honest man in the city. A pocket book with contents untouched was returned to Frank Jordan on Monday night. Frank says when he finds the man he will tender a suitable reward.

Mrs. F. L. Moore, wife of the pastor of the M. E. Church of this city who has been in a Portland hospital for some weeks returned home on Wednesday much improved and will, it is hoped soon be completely restored to health.

Mrs. Noah Welch, mother of Roy Welch, who has been visiting her son and his family for some weeks, took the train on Wednesday for Orange, California, where she will for a time visit a sister. From there she will return to Chicago, where she lives with a daughter.

The shipment of twenty big beef steers recently purchased at Oakland by John H. Bartels arrived here this week. They are the finest bunch of cattle seen here for a number of years and average 1450 pounds.

The Englishshire stallion, Stuntney Commander 7669, imported and owned by A. C. Ruby & Co of Pendleton has been on exhibition at the fashion stables this week. W. S. Matter and A. C. Ruby are here with the horse and expect to dispose of him at the figure of about $3200.

Hon. G. W. Griffin of Eugene, and a representative of Lane county to the recent legislature is accredited by those who were in a position to know, with doing excellent work during the session. He was of valuable assistance in securing legislation for not only this district but in the state as well.

The Royal Neighbors on Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall gave a most successful apron and Necktie social. A short program was rendered after which partners were selected by matching the neckties bought by the gentlemen with the aprons worn by the ladies, who brought lunch baskets.

F. B. Phillips is confined to his home by illness.

State Game Warden Baker took the train for Portland Friday.

Miss Nan Shively is in Cottage Grove after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fingal Hinds have returned home from a short visit to Eugene.

James White and family have gone to California to be gone some length of time.

Al Churchill is down from his mining property in Bohemia and will spend a few days in the valley.

C. S. Cochran, director of the band, went to Eugene Friday and will join the band there today en route to Albany.

Merchant Ingham, better known as "Ax Billy," at Eugene has sold his merchandising business to Portland parties and will hereafter devote his time to his vinegar factory and mining interests.

U. S. Martin returned home Tuesday from his tour through California. His brother, Willard, remained there and is now at Santa Cruz. He has not yet made any definite arrangements to locate however.

Miss Louise Newland departed for Junction City Friday where she will visit for a week after which she and her sister Laura, now at Junction, will proceed to Portland to select their new millinery stock for the spring openings.

The Pacific Timber Company is having the Eakin & Bristow building repainted by T. W. Jenkins and put in fine condition for the reception of their general merchandise stock which is now being removed from the old location in the Odd Fellows building.

G. O. McGilvray made a trip to Ashland Monday to look after the lines of the Postal Telegraph Company. He found a piece of broom wire making short circuit at Oakland, which had been put on the lines by some miscreant.

The machinery of the Cottage Grove Laundry was this week shipped to Portland by J. M. Arthur & Co., the supply house Cottage Grove now has no laundry and such an enterprise would doubtless do well here under proper management.

The officers and directors of the North Fairview Mining Company as elected in Eugene Monday are: Directors, George McQueen, D. T. Awbrey, Herbert Leigh, George Hulman and Alfred Walker. The officers for the ensuing year are: George McQueen, president; Herbert Leigh, secretary and treasurer.

The Cottage Grove Band of eighteen pieces goes to Albany today on a special car, being under contract to assist in furnishing music at the grand Woodmen rally there this evening. The excellence of the band is a matter of civic pride of the citizens who with the boys, appreciate the honor of their being engaged to go this distance on such an occasion.

The interior of the store building of the Garman-Hemenway company has been repainted by Dick Berry and to some extent remodelled. The grocery stock is now in the rear of the sales room and a stairway has been constructed from the office gallery to the upper story of the building where a neat room is arranged for some of the clothing, etc. The store building is now one of the neatest and most convenient in the county.

J. W. Scott of Wildwood, left February 18th for San Joaquin, Calif.

On Monday evening Mr. Dan Thomas entertained his class mates of the senior class of the High School with a pleasant reception at his home.

This is regular spring weather and with it comes the suggestion that it will be but a short time until the spring election of mayor, councilmen and recorder is upon us. If you stand right, still there is but little danger of being hit.

Joha H. Harms, a prominent citizen of Cottage Grove has instituted a divorce suit against his wife on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in 1866, and have a family of several grown children.

A rare and beautiful phenomenon was witnessed by a number of Cottage Grove people last Sunday evening just before seven o'clock. The moon shone clear in the eastern sky, while in the west appeared a perfect and wondrously beautiful night rainbow. While the sight is nothing uncommon in other latitudes it is one not often seen in this region.

Mrs. Sarah Snow, who some weeks ago had the misfortune to break her leg by a fall on the sidewalk, has been removed from the home of J. B. Lewis to that of her daughter Mrs. Walters. Contrary to the doctors orders she unbound the fracture and is suffering from a severe relapse in her recovery which was progressing nicely heretofore.

Thos. Conger has removed his residence and laboratory from the location east of the depot to the building formerly occupied by Kayser & Huff near the bridge on Main street. Mr. Conger is building up a good trade for his Bohemia and the "C. G. brand" the top grade of his cigars.

Ben Lureh, one of the leading merchants of Cottage Grove, was in Roseburg Wednesday looking over the Mabley tract, lying west of the Soldiers Home, with a view of accepting it in exchange for Cottage Grove property, a shingle mill which he owns near that city. The Plaindealer was favored with a pleasant call.—Roseburg, Plaindealer.

The following in brief are the changes made in the Oregon game law: Hunters' license of $1 a year for all hunters except furriers, and $10 for non residents. Sale of all kinds of wild game absolutely prohibited. Limit on ducks cut down to 50 in a week, not more than 25 in a day. Fishing for black bass permitted at all seasons of the year. Use of live pigeons as targets in trapshooting prohibited. Some changes in eastern Oregon open quail and pheasant.

A Polish laborer named Papas, was killed by a passenger train on the Oregon Pacific Monday afternoon. He was employed as a section hand on the railroad, and as the north bound passenger train approached the place where the section hand was at work, Papas stepped in front of the locomotive and was knocked off the track. He was dead when his companions reached him. It is thought that Papas stepped in front of the train with suicidal intent.

Pingree's Gloria-made Shoes

FOR MANY REASONS

Appeal to Discerning Ladies

A SWELL BOOT that individualises its wearer as being exclusive.

PRICE: 3.50

Back of the mark Pingree's made mark Is the mark of intelligence And reliability.

The experience and reputation of a generation is embodied in every shoe.

GARMAN, HEMENWAY CO., Leaders in Merchandising

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

There will be services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday Feb. 26th. Morning subject "Abundant Life" The evening service will be conducted by the Endeavorers. An interesting programme. Short addresses, recitations and papers. Good music. This service will be presided over by Miss Neva Perkins, president of the Y. P. S. C. E. Public cordially invited to attend. Strangers and sojourners always welcome. R. C. GRACE, Pastor.

Methodist Episcopal church.—On account of the pastor being called away last Sunday the evening theme, "Christian Science" to what extent Christian and how far Scientific, will be given next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. This will be the first in a series under the head of "Substitutes for the Gospel."

An Englishman travelling in the south of Ireland overtook a peasant travelling the same way.

"Who lives in that house on the hill, Pat?" said the traveller.

"One Mr. Cassidy, Sir," replied Pat; "but he's dead—rest his soul!"

"How long has he been dead?" asked the gentleman.

"Well, your Honor, if he lived till next month he'd be dead just twelve months."

"O! what did he die?"

"Troth, Sir, he died of a Tuesday."

Keep the Money at Home

The Cottage Grove Flour Mill are installing a new steam boiler for the purpose of making rolled barley for feed. They will be enabled to turn out a first class article at reduced prices. Call and see them.

Cottage Grove Girl Wins.

The Honor Scholarship given by the Whitman College, has been awarded to Miss Georgetta Berg of this city.

There's Nothing Too Good

When You are Sick..

The quality of goods we use and the care exercised in compounding make our prescriptions good enough.

Fine Stationery Toilet Articles Perfumes School Supplies

Benson's Pharmacy Cottage Grove, Oregon

First National Bank ORGANIZED 1900

Herbert Eakin President T. C. Wheeler Cashier CAPITAL $25,000 A general banking business transacted COTTAGE GROVE OREGON

DR. J. J. MURRAY

(LICENSED) VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST EUGENE, OREGON Office: K. Bangs' Livery Stable, Phone Main Graduate of the American Veterinary College of New York City

DENTIST DR. H. H. PETRIE ALL WORK WARRANTED Office: First National Bank Building upstairs.

A. W. KIME, M. D. PHYSICIAN and SURGEON Office in McFarland Building Over Wynne's Hardware Store Office Phone, 341 Residence Phone, 336

DR. B. E. JOB PHYSICIAN and SURGEON All calls promptly attended. Office: Main St. Phone 114.

J. E. YOUNG ATTORNEY AT LAW Office: Young Building, Main Street, West Side.

H. C. MADSEN WATCHMAKER Watches, Clocks and Jewelry at Lowest Prices.

DR. E. C. MACY Office: Awbrey Building, Main Street DENTIST

DR. C. T. HOCKETT PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON Offices in Dr. Geo. Wall building, Main Street, Cottage Grove. Office phone Main 303. Residence phone Main 06

General Blacksmithing

Horseshoeing a specialty. Wagon and carriage rearing. All work guaranteed. Have your horses teeth examined and repaired. Shop at rear of Hemenway & Burkholder's Store

J. H. BAKER

COLDS THAT HANG ON

So frequently settle on the lungs and result in Pneumonia or Consumption. Do not take chances on a cold wearing away or take something that only half cures it, leaving the seeds of serious throat and lung trouble.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Stops the Cough and heals the lungs and prevents

Pneumonia and Consumption

Consumption Threatened

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs

A. M. Ake, Wood, Ind., writes: "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages. I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble."

Free Sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much. REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY Benson's Pharmacy, Cottage Grove, Oregon