Mr. P. J. Jennings, manager for the Noonday mining company, came down Tuesday. Having only a mine of road to complete he discharged all but 40 men and by Saturday the work will be about done. Most of the boys will come down to spend the Fourth of July and have a little recreation. I. B. Hammond of Portland came up Thursday, leaving with Mr. Rigby, for two days fishing up Row river. Mr. Atkins, treasurer of the company, arrived from Chicago Friday night. H. and Messrs Jennings, Hammond and Rigby will then go up to Bohemia to select a place for the 20 stamp mill which is all completed and will be shipped from Portland within the next ten days. There will be also a saw mill with an engine of 80 horse power, taken up immediately by the Noonday company. This engine will be used for running the saw mill and the 20 stamp mill on the gold mines of the company until electric power can be put in during September. Preparations are being made to have the 20 stamp mill dropping gold in 60 days. Mr. Jennings has been very successful in pushing the road to completion and getting everything ready to take in the 100 ton of mining machinery. We think the company fortunate to have secured the services of Mr. Jennings to push forward this great enterprise. It will only be a few days now until the road to Bohemia will be kept hot with wagons and teams taking up the huge machinery for the 20 stamp mill and new saw mill. This is an enterprise of great magnitude and will greatly benefit South Lane and its people. Things may come a little slow, but there are fine prospects for grand future developments here and the Noonday company will be a great factor in the development of South Lane. We congratulate the company upon getting Mr. Hammond to place the machinery on the mines, for he never fails in accomplishing all he undertakes in fine shape.

Here is a swindle that is a new one, and a good one, as swindles go. It is being worked successfully in many eastern states. A woman book agent appears in town and goes from house to house, leaving books for examination. Next day a man calls to see if the books are wanted, and if they are not he takes them away with him. A few days later the woman agent appears again, and on being told that the man has taken away the book, weeps copiously, says the villain has been collecting her books all over town, pleads poverty and so on, and accepts the proffered compensation.—Ex.
