Oregonian: When you hear a man "howling about the scarcity of money," better inquire how many bicycles he has had to buy for his family. Mrs. Myra Counts of Drain came down on Thursday's local for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Hambrick, returning Friday. Miss Lizzie Whitsett, of Cottage Grove, who has been visiting with her cousins, the Misses Kate and Grace Campbell of this city, returned home this afternoon. Mrs. J. P. Currin and Master Hugh, her son, went to Wildwood Monday and returned Tuesday in their buggy. They enjoyed the trip nicely. Hon. R. M. Veatch, Register of the U. S. Miss Bertha White came up from Eugene, Sunday, to spend her vacation on Coast Fork and revel in the joys of fishing, berry-picking and farm life until her return to school in the fall. "Aunt Helen" McMarrin went out to the Jones logging camp, Wednesday, where she will do the cooking for fifteen men. Aunt Helen is an old campaigner in this line and is provided with excellent help in the person of Miss Stella Adams. Eugene Guard, Tuesday: Miss Mamie Knox, postal telegraph operator in this city, went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to visit a few days with her folks. She will also visit the Bohemia mining district before returning. Miss Anna Oglesby will act as operator here during Miss Knox's absence. Dr. Kuykendall's family left today for Winchester bay in Southern Oregon, where they will enjoy a six weeks' outing. They go to Drain by rail and will drive from there over to the bay, a distance of about 40 miles. The doctor will go over about August 1st. Pass the good word along the line Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Small in size but great in results, DeWitt's Little Early Risers act gently but thoroughly, curing indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation. Small pill, safe, pill best pill. J. P. Currin, druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain. Persons who have a coughing spell every night on account of a tickling sensation in the throat, may overcome it at once by a dose of One Minute Cough Cure. J. P. Currin, druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain. We learn from an exchange that at a convention of tramps recently held to perfect plans for the summer one of their members was expelled. He had been under suspicion for some time, and was finally detected in the act of reading the Christian at work. When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they become inflamed. DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure subdues inflammation at once and speedily removes the difficulty. J. P. Currin, Druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain. The hen that leaves her nest after a few days' sitting because she does not hear the chirp of chicks, is something like the merchant who quits advertising after the first few "throws" because his first calls haven't filled the store with clamoring customers. We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventative of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. J. P. Currin, Druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain.

The Glorious Fourth.

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED. Lemati and Cottage Grove contributed their full share of patriotic sentiment to the glory and honor of the natal day of our national independence. Preparations were made for a glorious time, but the crowd that assembled was greater than was anticipated, and the various committees, and the people of the towns have reason to be proud of the occasion. It was the largest gathering ever in the place and all seemed to enjoy themselves and speak in praise of the manner in which they were entertained. While the program was not very extensive and elaborate, much pains had been taken to make the grove comfortable, and many people who did not care for the noisier part of the celebration enjoyed themselves in the cool and grateful shade of the trees and grass of the grove. The procession took up the line of march about ten o'clock as announced in the program, and proceeded to the grove east of town, and it would seem by its length that every body wanted to manifest some degree of patriotism by marching in the line. Next to the band came a float of the stars of the states, little girls dressed in white, each wearing a crown of white and gold representing a state of the union. Miss Lizzie Mount, goddess of liberty; Bessie Griffin, Ala.; Agnes Walsh, Mass.; Annie Walsh R. I.; Aggie Woolley, Ore.; Lillie Woolley, Del.; Belle Burkholder, Mich.; Nora Younger, N. Dak.; Mary Hart, Minn.; Dian Hart, Miss.; Della Cardwell, Wt.; Grace Lincoln, Ark.; Hazel Remenway, Iowa; Franc Newman, Conn.; Bessie Abbott, Kans.; Pearl Jennings, Colo.; Grace Jennings, Mont.; Lizzie Knox, Nev.; Adelle Stevenson, Fla.; Maggie Veatch, Ga.; Lizzie Veatch, Ind.; Lottie Veatch, Ky.; Katie Knowlton, La.; Leone Fredrickson, Wash.; Cloe Sanford, Md.; Florence Abbott, Texas; Ida Alexander, N. H.; Gretta Bristol, Mo.; Edna Hambrick, N. J.; Lillie Syfers, N. C.; Bessie Martin, Penn.; Della Durham, S. C.; Onah Durham, Tenn.; Orpha Harms, Utah; Stella Martin, Va.; Ruby Kathie Finerty, Wis.; Tillie Jennings, Idaho; Mary Owen, New York; Nellie Hemaway, Me.; Docie Willett, W. Va.; Doris Spang, Cal.; Leah Perkins, Wyo.; Iva Younger, S. Dak. The literary exercises at the grove were opened by prayer from H. C. Veatch. Then followed the reading of the declaration of independence by Miss Elsie Lee, and then an address by H. W. Ross. After dinner the exercises consisted of declamations for prizes by persons under twenty years and for children under ten years. Miss Lizzie Knox was awarded the first prize and Elsie Crow second prize for person; over ten years, and Minnie Abbott first prize and Katie Finerty second prize for those under ten years. Mr. N. B. Walden talked for a short time on the "Pioneer Preacher" and Mr. H. C. Veatch told something of Lane County before the advent of railroads. Good attention was paid to their remarks and much interest manifested. E. F. Owens won the foot race Archie Piper won the men's bicycle race. Lizzie Todd won first money, and Nora Todd second money in the girls bicycle race. Much interest was taken manifested in those races, and the crowds that lined both sides of the street became enthusiastic in their interest. The horse race between the Eagle Hose Co. of Lemati and Rescue Hose Co. of Cottage Grove, excited considerable interest. The prize in the wet contest was won by the Eagle Hose Co. The nozzle-man of the Rescue team failed to get the nozzle on the hose; otherwise both companies got water in the same time, thirty seconds, as reported by the timekeeper. The hub-and-hub race was declared no race, after considerable wrangling on account of some blunder or misunderstanding about starting, both teams ran, but the judges declared it no race. This ended the day's sport without an accident or an unpleasant incident of any kind. Many people were here from a distance who had never before been here, and many complimentary remarks were made concerning the place and people. A CAT ROASTED.—We are informed that a big cat was roasted in a cook stove oven in the southern portion of the city yesterday, accidentally. It appears that the feline has been in the habit of resting in the oven of the stove, yesterday the door became closed some way and a hot fire was built in the furnace and the cat was badly roasted before he was rescued. Eugene Guard. El Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes, "I have been suffering from Piles for 25 years and thought my case incurable. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used. J. P. Currin Druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain. A Dayton, Oregon, dispatch says: The recent dry hot weather has done much damage to the small grain through this section. Farmers say unless rain comes soon the oat crop will be very light. Fully two-thirds of the hopyards around Dayton are not being worked this year.

IMMENSE MILLING ENTERPRISE.

The long talked of flume which has been such a stupendous undertaking is fast nearing completion. The bridge to carry it across the Willamette River built by L. N. Rooney, has been completed and is a fine piece of work—a Home truss of over 200 feet in length. The flume is 5 miles and 900 feet in length. In a dozen places the trestle reaches a height of 30 feet and upwards. In 4 places it reaches a height of 50 feet and upward and in one place it reaches the immense height of 85 feet. In this place it crosses a deep canyon from overbridge to another in order to get over a ridge and tap Gittens creek for a feeder and also to tap the immense body of timber lying tributary thereto. The last mile on the west end of the flume, the trestle is from 15 to 40 feet in height. This was rendered necessary by reason of the ground being lower near the foot hills than at the river bank, and also in order to give it the necessary fall. At the juncture with the R. R. it has a dump of 10 feet above the level of flat cars on the track. The high trestle shows a very intricate and skillful piece of civil engineering. It reaches with a varying height of from 12 to 85 feet a distance of 1800 feet (over one third of a mile) in a compound horizontal curve, and the grade also has a vertical curve joining two grades: one 22 per cent the other 2.40 per cent. There has been about one and a half million feet of lumber used in the construction of the entire flume. This alone gives a good idea of the magnitude of the enterprise which has cost Mr. Jones somewhere near $15,000, which speaks well for his enterprising and pushing business abilities. This is a new venture in this part of Oregon the only one of its kind on the upper Willamette, but it will not be long before flumes will thread the streams and canyons of the surrounding hills along Row River, Coast Fork and the McKenzie and millions on millions of valuable timber be brought to market. After the flume is built the expense of putting lumber to market is almost ended. It goes itself; and there are many locations near here which will soon be booming with just such enterprises as this one which Mr. Jones has had the temerity and pluck to accomplish. In the flume lies the value of the mill, the timber, the wood, piling, fence posts, shingle timber and in fact every thing surrounding it. It is transportation economizing to a minimum and Mr. Jones deserves great credit for his pluck which enabled him to branch into an enterprise of such proportions, which must necessarily be an experiment, but which is now no longer an experiment but a verified fact, and a source of vast revenue to the community. The mill is 200 feet long and 40 feet wide and will soon be supplied with a 150 horse power engine and two boilers of 125 horse power each. The two engines and boilers now in use will be moved to Jones to run the planers and other machinery at the end of the flume. This enterprise takes over 2500 acres of the finest fir timber that grows. Soft yellow fir over 200 feet long and the mill will cut logs 72 feet long. There is an unlimited demand for lumber shipped to California, Utah and Nevada at good prices besides the vast amounts, as well as piling and posts used by the railroad company. Mr. Jones has one of the finest dams built in Oregon, 35 feet high 200 feet wide and will hold one million feet of logs. Built by W. R. Johnson. The whole enterprise speaks well for Mr. Jones who conceived and planned the work, Mr. Johnson who built the mill and dam, Mr. Todd, the engineer who surveyed and planned the flume and Mr. Charles Raymond who built it. The whole expense of the mill, dam and flume construction has cost Mr. Jones near $40,000, but he will soon get his money back with profit. The town of Jones is building up rapidly and promises a rival to Cottage Grove. Families moving in nearly every day and as soon as the flume is completed which will be in a few days houses will spring up like Jonas' gourd. It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief. It kills pain. J. P. Currin, Druggist, Joe Lyons, Drain. A wheelman has started from Southern California for West Virginia on his wheel over a route 7000 miles long. He will travel along the northern boundary of this country. Young Honeymoon called his wife a dumpling. But ten minutes later when he told her she was too heavy to hold on his lap, and she reminded him that at dinner he said that he didn't like heavy dumplings, their first quarrel loomed up on the horizon. No wonder the demand for a system of public education that educates is growing. With juvenile crime on the increase, and tramping a national malady, the call for turning the education of the 16,000,000 children whose names appear upon the school registers of the country into channels that promise self-support is imperative.—Oregonian. Not a few who read that Mr. Robert Rowles, of Holland, Va., has to say below, will remember their own experience under like circumstances. "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. A. Benson, Cottage Grove, Joe Lyons, Drain. It is estimated that the Hood River strawberry crop this year will net $300,000. During the season about 6000 pickers were employed, 4000 of whom were white people and the remainder of the number Indians. Last year a large number of Japanese were employed. W. I. Church, of Staunton Post G. A. R., says: "I have tried nearly every cough remedy but have found nothing to compare with Parks' Cough Syrup. There is nothing on earth like it for bronchitis. I have suffered over since my discharge from the army with Cough and Consumption. What is the only remedy that has ever helped me." Sold by J. A. Benson. Money is not needful; power is not needful; liberty is not needful; even health is not the one thing needful. But character alone is that which can truly save us, and if we are not saved in this sense, we certainly must be damned. It has been said that "when poverty is our inheritance, virtue must be our capital."—Blackie. TAKE NOTICE.—I am prepared to furnish ice cream on my table on Third street, by the dish or send it out by the gallon or quart by carrier, at special hours. Also ready to furnish for church or other special parties, by order. Fruit and confectionery. D. LINCOLN. Eugene Guard: Miners are passing through Eugene daily for the Blue River mines. This district will be thoroughly prospected this summer. We predict that in less than two years it will have a population of several thousand. Many merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance we mention Perry and Cameron, prominent druggists of Finishing, Michigan. They say: "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. A. Benson, Cottage Grove, Joe Lyons, Drain. Bonds of the city of Eugene to the amount of $5700, including interest, became due the other day, and the city lacked $1255 of having enough money in the treasury to pay the debt. A gentleman was present and offered to loan the city $1255 for 1 per cent premium. The offer was accepted, and the obligation will be met without trouble. For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound over the spot of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is especially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by J. A. Benson, Cottage Grove, Joe Lyons, Drain. A newspaper in a neighboring town recently said: "The prettiest girl in this city does not carry herself straight enough when promoting." For a week afterward all the young ladies of the town walked about like so many bean poles, and every girl said: "That horrid old paper! Ma, don't I walk straight?"
