HARR—Saturday evening a few of Miss Lillian Harts many young friends silently gathered at her home and made her aware that she would not be permitted to spend the evening alone. The evening was pleasantly spent in games of amusement and social conversation until a late hour when refreshments were served. It is needless to say all enjoyed themselves for Miss Lillian is a favorite among the young people and well versed in the art of entertaining. Those present were: Misses Roby Baker, Mary, Curriu; Lea Hickey and Ethel Wooley. Messrs Frank Whipple, Jesse Griffin, Bob Blair, John Veatch, Tom Abrams and Harry Hart.

IN THE TOILS—J H Gates, the fellow who so successfully got away with the $1500 while assistant Janitor of the State House during the last legislature is now in the custody of Sheriff Withers on a charge of forgery. Tuesday's Guard says: "This morning shortly before 11 o'clock Gates entered the First National bank and presented to Cashier, P E Snodgrass, a check on the First National bank of Portland for $75 with the name of "Henry Corbett" attached thereto. Mr Snodgrass immediately saw that the check was a forgery and held Gates until Sheriff Withers who was telephoned for, arrived, when he was turned over to that official.

The job was a bunglesome one and it seemed as though anyone with ordinary common sense would know better than to try to pass such a check. From Gates, endorsement of the check it is plainly seen that he made out the check and that he signed the name "Henry Corbett" himself.
