

The famous military drama, "The Confederate spy," to be presented under the auspices of Co A, Fourth Regiment O N G the at Martin Hall this evening promises to be well attended. The seats are selling fast. The play is under the direction of Sgt Major C Kauffman. The play was given at Eugene Monday night to a crowded house. Mr Kauffman takes a leading part in the play.

The following is the cast:
George Waterman, (A young Unionist) Capt C C Kauffman
Philip Bradley, (A daring Spy under Lee) Sgt Chas Griffin
Fred Ainslen, (A Rebel Aid-de-Camp) Capt R S Huston
Maj General Banks, U S A
Lt C C Hammond

Officer Mulgarry, one of the finest out of danger, Mus, M Vincent
Clay, what knows wher der chicken roost, Mus, C Cheshire
Society Schnidlebecker the draft-dutchman, Pvt A Stubling
Maud Bradley, a southern bell,
Miss Sina Orrel

Mrs Waterman, mother of George,
Miss Mattie Hulery
Nora Mc Geggia, down on the haythen Chinaxers, Mus G Oliver
Soldiers in blue and gray, villagers, etc.

It will be of interest to Cottage Grove people to know that Miss Sina Orrel takes the leading female role in this drama and does it in a manner and grace that is peculiarly her own. Miss Sina has appeared here before in amateur theatrical efforts and her well known ability as an elocutionist in select readings easily wins for her laurels that only fall to the lot of few amateurs. She was the star at Eugene and should have a large house here to greet her at her old home.

BASE BALL.—An interesting game of base ball will be played on the Stouffer field today between the Bohemian's and Eugene's first team.

We are not betting on the result for we believe it will be a rub. The Eugene boys are said to be in good shape and the Bohemians will not let any grass grow under their feet during the game. It will be worth seeing.

The line up for the game will probably stand as follows.

Bohemians	Eugene
Wm McQueen	p
W McFarland	c
Roy Hemenway	1b
Geo McQueen	2b
Bennett	ss
Frank Blair	rf
Walt Robinson	cf
Horace Harms	lf
	Willowby

Prof E B McElroy, one of Oregon's most widely known educators, died of heart failure very suddenly at his home in Eugene last Friday night, Prof McElroy was an accomplished instructor and has been held in popular esteem for the past 20 or 25 years by the people of this state. He was school superintendent of Benton County for a number of years and was elected by the people of Oregon for three successive terms as Supt, of Public Instruction and held a chair as a member of the faculty of the U of O until about a year ago when failing health induced him to resign. He was a Civil War veteran and in his death the country has lost a noble patriot and our state another of her favorite educators.
