Some years later he acquired what is known as the Shields place on Mosby Creek where he lived until some years ago when he disposed of it and bought a farm west of town where he resided until his death. Mr Shields has been among the most staunch and influential pioneers in this community. His hospitality was only equaled by his early peers when homes were few and far-between. The lonely traveler always found a welcome at his hearth.

Dearest mother, thou has left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft,
He can all our sorrows heal,
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.
