

READ THESE NEW PRICES.—Bed Room Suits $7.00 and up. Couches $3.50. High Back Dining Chairs, 60 cts each and up, other goods in proportion. Now is your chance to buy. Cheapest place this side of Portland at J D Cochran's Furniture Store.

CALLED IN.—The Forest rangers have been called in and Saturday R M Veatch and Joe Carpenter who have been holding down the field at Bohemia returned home. The rangers did some good work this season opening trails upon the principal divides leading to and from Bohemia.

NEW PASTOR.—Rev Zimmerman the new M E Pastor preached his initial sermon Sunday at 11 a m to a large and interested congregation. Rev Zimmerman is a good speaker, an agreeable and pleasant gentleman and will without doubt accomplish much good here.

TO HALSEY.—Rev Crandal and family left for Halsey their new home Friday, on the Local. Mrs Crandal has been seriously ill for sometime past and had to be moved on a litter. The good lady has had a severe siege of sickness and her many friends hope the change will materially benefit her health.

Stepped Into Live Coals.
"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W H Eads, of Jonesville, "which caused terrible leg sores which caused terrible leg sores which caused terrible leg sores."

KILN BURNED.—C H Wallace has finished burning the large brick kiln just north of town and has now all the brick on hand necessary to run him until next season. He finds a good demand for first class brick to be used in building flues and chimneys. He is away behind in filling orders and doing job work.

On Saturday, Oct. 19th, Dr. Lowe, the well known oculo-optician, will be in Cottage Grove. See him if your eyes need help. Free consultation.

FROM MISSOURI.—A family by the name of Trunnell arrived here Tuesday night from Missouri bringing with them a full car load of household effects, farming implements etc. The gentleman is a brother of the Trunnell boys who live above Latham and has come to make Oregon his home. It is a safe guess that he has struck the garden spot when he landed here and he is sure to be pleased. Cottage Grove has room for more.

SUPPLIES PURCHASED.—F J Hard came back Wednesday from a flying trip to Bohemia and proceeded to his home in Portland, Thursday morning. Mr Hard made the trip up to the Music Mine in six hours on horseback and says he has never seen the roads in better shape. On his return he purchased another load of supplies here to be sent in before the rain sets in, for the miners who are working upon his property. It is to the credit of our business men that while Mr Hard lives in Portland he felt justified in purchasing his winter supplies in Cottage Grove as prices in Portland did not justify shipment to the mines. This makes the second load of goods going to his camp during the week.

WALD-HOHL.—The marriage of Miss Barbara Hohl, daughter of Philip Hohl, of Cottage Grove, to Michael Wald, of Prine & Kay's sporting goods establishment, was solemnized before a large assemblage of friends and relatives this morning at the Catholic church, the rector, Rev Father Beutgen, officiating. Promptly at 10 o'clock the bridal party entered the church and proceeded to the altar, the bride and the groom accompanied by Miss Yetta Wald and Geo Hohl, bridesmaid and best man respectively. The impressive Catholic service, concluding with the nuptial benediction, made the happy couple man and wife, after which congratulations followed and the audience dispersed. Mr and Mrs Wald will take up their residence on East Eighth street. This evening at the Hohl residence on South Williamette street and elaborate wedding supper will be served to a number of invited guests.

HOES SOLD.—Duke Knox sold his hop crop the first of the week to S H Friendly of Eugene, for 9 1/2 cents. He had 53 bales of good quality and although the price paid is quite low he will realize a fair profit on the crop.

Al Churchill arrived down from the mines Saturday, where he has been since the fourth of last May. In all this time he has only lost about one week on account of sickness. Al is enthusiastic over Bohemia prospects and clearly reflects the general opinion of everybody there that the camp was never in better trim than now for a leap to the front. He says every one is jubilant in the camp and arched at work. This of itself is the best of good signs.

We thankfully acknowledge receipt of a box of luscious grapes grown in Cottage Grove by one of our most esteemed lady friends but at her earnest request we refrain from saying who brought them. Nevertheless they taste just as good and serve to remind us that Mrs Wynne never forgets the Editor, even when her cherries are ripe.

A young man recently wrote to the editor of The Ladies Home journal asking; What have you to say, squarely and fairly, to a young man of twenty nine who is about to marry? In the October Journal Mr Bok uses a page for his answer. Its salient points are these; that a man should make the woman of his choice his choice his chum, as well as his wife, that he should show her the highest consideration as well as love her, that he should remember that he owes his wife to her mother, and his mother-in-law with respect, at least that he should keep his wife informed as to his income; that he should give her a regular allowance and that he should have his life insured in her favor. And above all that when a young man marries he must remember that he leaves a world of self and enters into a world of another and self.

We Must Be Progressive or Nothing

There are three classes of Stores, the Stationary, the Retrograde and the Progressive. We'd rather suddenly cease to exist than be either of the two first. From day to day and from month to month we must be up and doing, and keep the store ever on the upward move. To Progress we must do the best we can for you. We must do this or lose your custom.

We are Doing This and Gaining New Trade Every Day

Each month since the first that we have been in business here, has shown an increase over the previous month's trade. The Public knows that this is a safe place to trade. We're not going to falter in our efforts to make it better and better. The store news for this week is "Special Prices on New Goods."
