BRIAR POISONING—Frank Blair the commercial traveler, is another victim of briar poisoning. While out hunting the other day he pricked his right thumb with a briar and the whole hand is now badly swollen from the effects and he is unable to use it.

ENTERTAINED—Mr and Mrs J S Benson entertained a number of the young people of the town at their home on Thanksgiving evening. The evening passed quickly away in mirthfulness and pleasure. Various parlor amusements were indulged in until a late hour when the guests after expressing their appreciation of a most pleasant evening to their host and hostess departed for their various homes.

THANKSGIVING BALL—On Thanksgiving evening those who enjoy the terechorean whirls of the waltz and two step were afforded an opportunity to spend a delightful evening. Martin's Hall was the scene of gayety and delight. About twenty five couples were present and tripped the light fantastic to the sweet strains of McQueen's orchestra. All report having spent a most pleasant evening.

AN ATTRACTIVE SHOW WINDOW—The New Era Drug Store has a very attractive show window this week. It is an ideal woodscene. The window is lined with cedar, with the bottom covered with beautiful moss, in the center of which is a fountain. Beside the fountain stands the old mill, with numerous little brownies about it. A wind mill is kept turning by a minature water wheel. The moon in the eastern sky is also beautifully represented and to make the picture complete, Doc, their pet owl is perched off in a lonely corner, where he can make "goo-gooeyes" at the admirers of the beautiful scene.

THE REVIVAL—The revival meetings which have been protracted at the C P church for the past six weeks came to a close last Sunday evening. Rev Baker the evangelist has delivered two sermons each day during the entire time, and at the close his voice was as clear and he showed no more sign of fatigue than at the beginning. He is a devoted christian man and a power in the pulpit. He makes no display of oratory in any way but attacks sin wherever it may be found in his bold way and always holds his ground. As a result of the meetings there were fifteen accessions to the C P church last Sunday while several will unite with other denominations. Rev Baker left Monday for Albany where he will commence a series of meetings.

SAW MILL ACCIDENT—Last Friday morning there was a serious accident at the Cutlock mill below Comstock. Mr Harry Cutlock, the sawyer was the unfortunate man. While at his work in the mill a large board which was thrown from the saw struck him in the breast and knocked him off the carriage. He struck on his head and was rendered unconscious. His brother who was running the engine hastened to his assistance and found him 20 feet away from where he was standing when the board struck him. He was taken to Mrs Grigg's Hotel at Comstock and Dr Wall of this place was telegraphed for and was soon at the injured man's bedside. He found that he had sustained serious injuries about the chest and also internal injuries. There were several large cuts on the head necessitating the use of several stitches. A letter received from the brother of the unfortunate man by Dr Wall states that he is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Cottage Grove O Drain O

The Most Exciting Foot Ball Game of the Season Saturday.

The most exciting runs of the game were those of the spectators back to town and of the Drain team to catch the 3 o'clock train.

THE GAME

HYPNOTIC SLEEP—Tuesday at 11 a m Dr Payne hypnotized Will Stiles and placed him on exhibition in the New Era Drug Store show window, where he attracted much attention until 9:30 in the evening. Dr Payne gave a number of entertainments at the Opera House the first of the week. A number of young men were hypnotized each evening and made to perform all sorts of amusing capers.

HELLO TO BOHEMIA—By Monday morning it is expected that the telephone line to Bohemia will be completed and Cottage Grove will then be able to "Hello" to Bohemia. The two crews working from each end are now only a few miles apart and the work is progressing very rapidly. The line will be connected in Cottage Grove with the long distance line thus connecting the Bohemia mining district with the outside world.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL—A series of revival meetings were commenced at the Christian church last Sunday by Rev Morton L Rose of Eugene. Rev Rose is a fluent and forcible speaker and is drawing good audiences. Considerable interest is manifested as was to be expected, the meeting being a continuation of the revival just held at the C P church by Evangelist Baker. The meetings are expected to continue several weeks.

NEW PRESS AND TYPE—The Moore Job Printing office of Eugene has been purchased by Mr Winters Wallace of this office and will be shipped here the first of the week. This will give the Leader office as fine a job printing outfit as there is in any of the country towns in Oregon. There is a good Gordon press and some 20 or 25 late fonts of job type in the outfit so when you want first class printing, the kind that pays, you know where to get it. That's the only kind we do.

He is, we believe, doing a great deal for the institution he represents and the results of his labors will no doubt be seen in the future of that school.

Editor W Wallace of the Cottage Grove Leader was in town yesterday. Mr Wallace has just disposed of his interests, 37500 shares in the Goldouda Mining Co, of Bohemia to J C L Wooley, who is a member of the company and will put a force of men to work right away driving a 300 foot tunnel. J S Wooley is out from the mines and has been doing some good development work on the mine. Rich specimens have been taken out and they are in the hands of Assayer Leigh. There are six claims on the Helena lead, which makes them valuable property.—Register.
